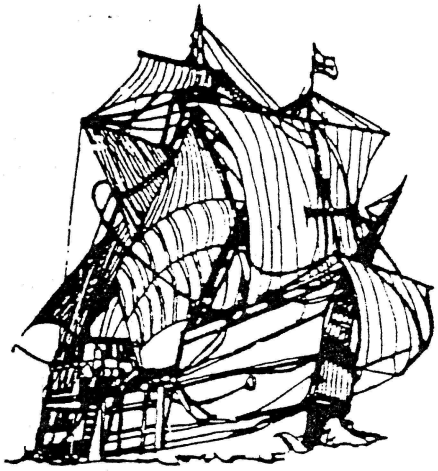
NAFZGERS IN HOLLAND



We have written many articles on the migrations of the Naffzger family. We traced their movements from the small hamlets of Geislingen/Steig and Wiesensteig of the State of Wurttemburg in Germany to the Kanton of Bern in Switzerland and to the southern Alsace, France. The Swiss Naffzgers settled near the city of Thun and are still residing in Uetendorf at present. Some immigrated to the Alsace/Lorraine region of France, while others settled just north in the Palatinate (Pfalz) area of Germany. From there the Naffzgers fanned out into Hesse-Darmstadt, Hesse-Nassau, Baden and Bavaria in Germany and to Luxembourg, Belgium, Canada and America. In all we could identify Naffzger descendents in at least seven countries. Now we may add an eighth!

We have received correspondence from Martinus Johannes Nafzger of The Netherlands. His ancestors lived near Thun, Switzerland in the hamlet of Uetendorf. His paternal ancestor Samuel was born at Thierachern and married in The Netherlands in 1848. His Dutch wife was Petronella Laenen. Although Samuel died in Belgium in 1869, his descendents continue to lived in the same Dutch town since Samuel's arrival. We have asked Martinus to provide the News with additional information on his heritage. When we receive the more expanded history on his family we will print it. We look forward to learning about our Dutch cousins and wish the best to Martinus and his family.

More on Jacob Naftzger, 1750 immigrant.

The Fall and Winter Issues of 1988 covered Jacob of 1750. We wrote that we believed he was Amish. We noted that he arrived on the Ship Brotherhood, which is known to have carried many Amish families. In addition we noted that Jacob settled in Londonderry township near other Amish families. Finally we mentioned that he was administrator/witness to estates/wills of known Amish men. Some people have written asking where Jacob's property was located. David Stauffer, a descendent of Jacob-Christian-Michael, has provided the News with a copy of the original land tracts for North Londonderry Township (see page Three).

Jacob's original land warrant of 1755 is #38. On this piece of land stood the house and barn, Naftzger's Schoolhouse and the family cemetery. Jacob purchased the Michael Miller--Jacob Sailor farm (#33) in 1773 and he gave this plot to his son Joseph in 1780. When Jacob obtained the 40 acres in warrant #40 is unknown. He did will this land to Christian N in 1783.

David Stauffer of Palmyra, PA kindly sent us the map (printed on Page Three) of the original land warrants for North Londonderry township. In his informative letter he identified the location of Jacob Naftzger's house and barn, the Naftzger School House, the Naftzger Family Cemetery and Bindnagel's Evang. Luthern Church. He also expressed an additional concern about the Naftzger Family Cemetery. We are passing this information on to our readers hoping someone might have a suggestion about what can be done about the situation.

Mr Stauffer noted that the Broyhill Corporation had recently purchased the land surrounding the Naftzger cemetery, which is presently about 100 yards from their limestone quarry operations. He noted that the company had successfully petitioned the courts and moved another cemetery which was also located on their property. He is concerned and rightfully so. This will probably be the fate of the Naftzger Cemetery unless something is done. Any suggestions?

Jacob, 1750

Bowman(Bauman): Jacob' son Jacob (Jr), born 1767, married Magdalena Bowman, daughter of Abraham Bowman. Jacob (Jr) was a witness to the will written by Johannes Bauman of Upper Paxton township in 1798. How the Bowmans of Londonderry were related to Johannes Bauman is unknown.

Bindnagel: Evangelical Luthern Church north of Palmyra where Christian Naftsger (Jr) and wife buried. Children of Joseph (son of Christian) and Anna N were baptized at the church. Joseph elected Deacon in 1844.

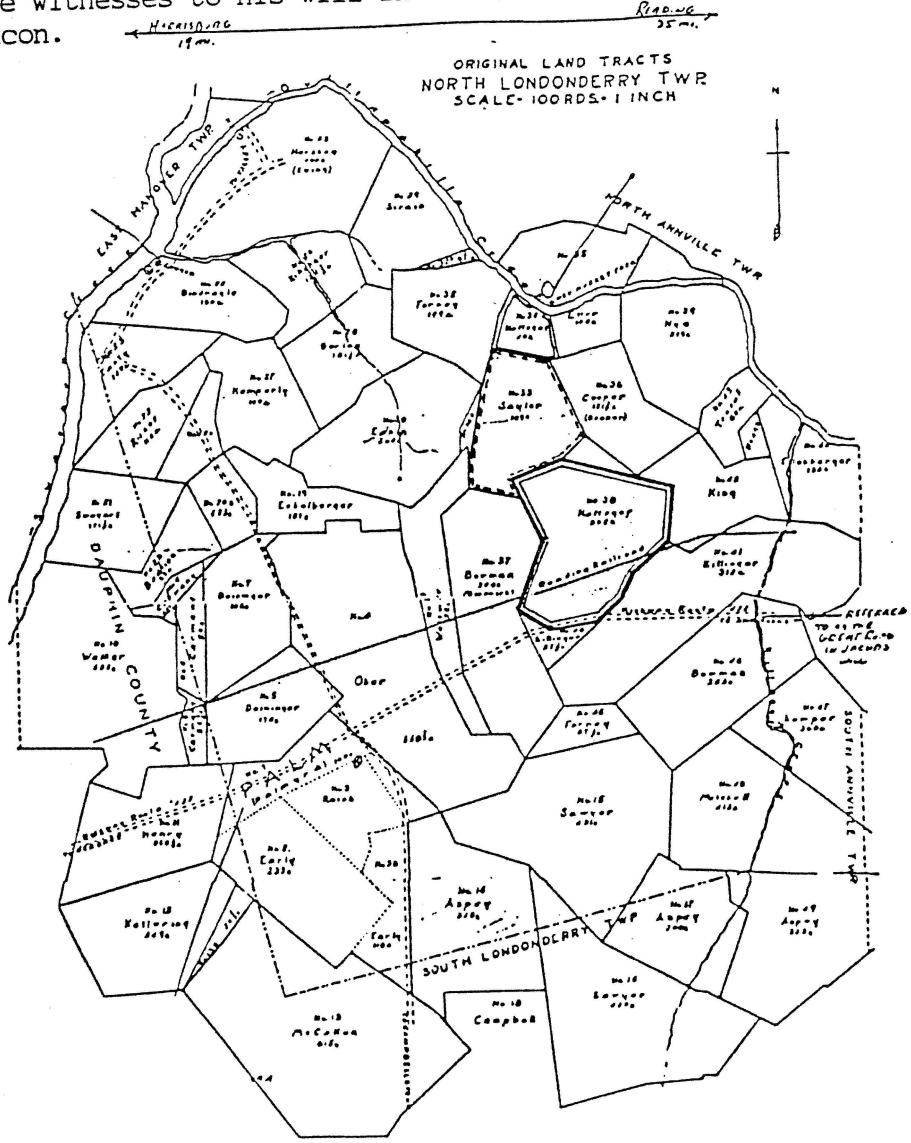
Ellenberger: Johannes, executor with Christian N (son of Jacob) of the estate of Christian Snider, blacksmith of West Hanover township

Forni/Forney: these families arrived on both ships the Phoenix with Matthias and Brotherhood with Jacob. An Elisabeth Farni married a John Nofsker, whom we believe to be the John who settled in Franklin County, PA. A John Farney married Elisabeth Naftzinger. How they were related is unknown.

Gingerich: Peter and Michael were brother-in-laws to Jacob Naftzger, son of Christian, grandson of Jacob.

Nye/Ney: William, a "friend" of Christian N (son of Jacob), who died in 1804 and Christian was an executor to his will.

Traschel (Draschel/Troxell): Abraham, arrived on the ship Phoenix with Matthias N in 1749. Was an Amish Bishop of the Lebanon Valley community. Jacob N was one of the witnesses to his will in 1781, along with John Kurtz, another Amish Deacon.



The lands of Jacob Naftzger are highlighted (#s 33, 34 & 38).

Mrs. Nancy Lonsinger and Mr. Kenneth Striker inquire about Rudolph's descendents.

The questions of Mrs. Lonsinger and Mr. Striker involve Daniel Nofsinger who was born July 11, 1791 and died October 13, 1866 in Montgomery County, OH. In 1813 he married Mary Ritter, a daughter of Michael. She was born in North Carolina on 12 January 1793 and died in 1873. Daniel, a Dunkard Elder, and Mary were buried in the Noffsinger Cemetery, which is sometimes referred to as Hollars or the Lower Miami Cemetery in Jefferson township, Montgomery County, OH. Glea Brown Richer in her 1939 book History of the Nafzger Family in America wrote that Daniel and his sister Elisabeth were children of Peter of Washington County, PA who accompanied their uncle Samuel to Montgomery County, OH.

Elisabeth Noffsinger was born in December, 1793 and died January 10, 1862. She married Jacob Shank, a son of Henry, June 6, 1811 in Montgomery Co, Jacob Miller, the Dunkard Elder, officiated. Were Daniel and Elisabeth children of Peter who moved to Ohio with their uncle Samuel? We will hopefully raise enough questions below to suggest much more research is required to settle the issue in the affirmative.

We wrote about Rudolph and his children in the Summer Issue 1988 of the News (Vol. XVII, No. 2). Samuel Noffsinger appears to be the second son of Rudolf. Samuel is found in Frederick Co, MD records as early as 1775. We can assume that Samuel was about 18/22 years old when he appeared in the 1775 militia records. This would suggest his birth was about 1753/1757. In 1790 he bought land in Green Co, PA. In 1806 Samuel and Susan (Crumerine) sold that land (although it was not recorded until 1814) and moved to Ohio. In 1809 Samuel paid taxes in Montgomery Co, OH and he and Susan sold land in 1816, 1823, 1828, 1831 and 1832.

The 1820 US census of Montgomery Co lists Samuel Noffsinger Sr. Does this mean there was a Samuel Junior? Ten years later Samuel(Sr?), his age listed as between 70 and 80 years (1750-1760), lived with a female aged 20 to 30 years old (maybe his widowed daughter-in-law (?) Hannah) and three children. They lived next to Daniel N. Samuel died sometime prior to September 3, 1832, when his will was filed. When Susan died is unknown.

In May, 1821 a Samuel Noffsinger married Hannah Ritter, another daughter of Michael Ritter and sister to Daniel's wife Mary. Hannah was born in 1806 in North Carolina. Richer wrote that this Samuel was the uncle of Daniel. If this were true, and our guess about Samuel's birth year between 1753/1757 correct, then he would have been between 64/68 years old when he married and Hannah would have been about 40 years his junior. Samuel and Hannah (Ritter) had at least three children. Although it is not altogether impossible that Samuel was an elder uncle of Daniel, it seems unlikely. It is our belief that there were two Samuels, father and son. Furthermore, we believe the younger Samuel died prior to his father. His widow Hannah later moved to Defiance County, OH with least three of their children.

The elder Samuel sold 139 acres of land to Daniel Noffsinger in September, 1823. He and Susan also sold land to Jacob Kaylor and Henry Leeds--but how they were related is unknown. In 1830 Daniel sold his water rights to Samuel Landis. At that time Daniel and his family lived next to Samuel and Daniel was an Elder in the Lower Miami district.

As we mentioned above, Mrs Richer wrote that Daniel was a son of Peter, who lived in Washington Co, PA. In 1790 Peter, his wife and one son lived in East Bethlehem township next to Ruddy (Rudolf) N. In 1793 Peter and 13 other men entered into an agreement with Frederick Wise (Weisz) about platting the soon to be town of Frederickstown. Among other things included in the agreement, there would be no liquor sold within the town limits of Fredrickstown. By 1795 Peter had married the widow of Frederick Wise, Catharine, whose maiden name may have been Rinehardt. The last mention of Peter found in Washington County records was a 1797 settlement involving the Wise estate. In 1810 Catarina Naffsinger lived in East Bethlehem township between Adam and John Wise. Living in her household were two females and one male (16 to 26 years old). When Peter died is unknown but he does not seem to have been very old. Ms. Richer wrote that Peter was referred to as "old Peter". Could this have been to contrast himm with his son named Peter, "young Peter"?

A probable child of Peter (the Old?) is Peter (the Young?) who married Freni Keen in Belmont Co, OH in 1810, and later lived in Monroe Co, OH before settling in Nodoway Co, Missouri. As we wrote in the Summer Issue of 1988 Peter was probably a child of Peter and not Matthias N who lived in Belmont Co. We arrived at the conclusion through a process of elimination. The will of Matthias, which was written in 1808, did not mention a Peter, only eldest son John and youngest son James. However subsequent land sales of Matthias' property by his heirs did not reveal a son named Peter. We therefore assumed Peter (Jr?) to be a son of Peter (the old) and the male enumerated in the household in 1790. It may be that we will have to correct our view at a later date.

Another child of Peter was William. In October, 1840 the children of William settled their part of the estate with the heirs of Frederick Wise. William died about 1837 in East Bethlehem. He was born in 1797 and would have been enumerated with his mother Catharine in 1810.

Two additional people we assume to be children of Peter are Judith and Catharine. Judith married Robert Correll and Catharine married Henry Cauffmann. Both were married in Jefferson Co, OH.

We hope we have raised sufficient questions concerning the family of Peter of Washington Co, PA and Samuel of Montgomery Co, OH. Can any of our readers provide any additional clues as to the parents of Daniel and Elisabeth? Please write if you have solutions or clarifications.

Readers respond about Judith (Noffsinger) Emerick

In the 1988 Summer Issue of the News (Vol. XVII, No 2) we outlined Rudolf Noffsinger and his descendents. Rudolph's eldest son was John. Children of John and Catharine (Koontz) that we mentioned were Daniel, John Jr, Susan (wife of Samuel Cripe), Samuel and Eli. Another probable child whom we did not mention was Judith, who married Michael Emerick. Many readers have written to update the News.

Judith was born in 1790 in Washington County, PA and accompanied her parents to Ohio when she was quite young. On December 12, 1812 she married Michael Emerick. Michael was born in Lancaster County, PA in 1787, one of seven children of Christopher Emerick. Judith and Michael had seven children, the five youngest born in Greenfield township, Darke County, OH. In 1856 Michael Emerick died and was buried in Baker Cemetery. After the death of Michael, Judith Noffsinger-Emerick married Joseph Harter in October, 1856 in Darke County, OH. (Joseph had been previously married to Elisabeth Eller.) They subsequently moved to North Manchester township, Wabash Co, IN. In 1861 Joseph Harter died. August 29, 1871 Judith died. She was buried in Mississinewa Cemetery.

In July, 1928 Mary Nossinger Root gave deposition in Fayette County, IL that Judith Nossinger was her aunt and named all seven children of Judith and Michael. At the time Mary was over 90 years old. She was the wife of Christian Root and a daughter of Eli Noffsinger, youngest son of John.

If any other reader has additional information on the family of Judith (Noffsinger) Emerick, or any other related family, please do not hesitate to write. Special thanks is extended to Ms. Linda Hanabarger, Editor of Fayette Facts (Fayette County Genealogical Society, Box 177, Vandalia, IL 62471-0177 [Vol. IX, No. 3]) for permission to use her publication's article on the Emerick Family and to Mrs Mardell Edwards of IN, Mr Marwin Brubaker of CA, Ms D. JoAnn Johnson of MI and Mrs Florence Eakin of IL for their helpful letters.

Mrs Laura Clapper of Ohio inquires about John Nofsinger of Starke County, OH.

Mrs. Clapper is a descendent of John Nofsinger who settled in Starke County, OH in 1815. She asks if anyone can provide any additional information on her line.

John Noffsinger was born about 1782 (maybe in Somerset Co. PA), a son of John Nofsinger (Sr). In the 1985 Summer Issue of the News (Vol XIV, No. 3) we outlined John of Somerset County, PA. At that time we felt John may have been the son of Ulrich, who arrived in 1741. We now feel this was probably an error. At present we do not have sufficient evidence to correctly identify the father of John, so we will beg the issue for the time being.

John Sr (from Lancaster County) received a land warrant in Somerset County in 1774. In October 1786 he sold it to Phillip Kimmel Jr. In 1786 John lived in Elk Lick township, listed as an inmate (land renter) in the PA General Assembly census. In 1790 he was listed as a head of household in the 1st US census and again in 1800 and 1810. John Sr paid taxes from 1796 through 1813 in Quemahoning (later Somerset) township. John (Jr) first appeared on the tax rolls as a single freeman in 1800 (when he was 18 years old).

John (Sr) died circa 1813 and named the following children in his will: Henry of Franklin County, PA, Elisabeth (wife of Peter Longnecker), Christina (wife of Henry Yoder), Barbara (wife of Jacob Mummaw), John (Jr), Christian of Tuscarawas Co, OH, Freni (wife of George Leightenberger), Nancy Ann (wife of John Hoffman) and Catharine (wife of Joseph Zimmermann). The name of John's first wife is unknown, however she died sometime prior to 1800. John's second wife was (Nancy) Anne Haldemann, nee Shellhorne, widow of Abraham Haldemann. John married Anne about 1801. The two youngest children appear to have been daughters of Anne.

John Nofsinger (Jr) paid taxes in Somerset county for 1815. It is believed that he married about the same time. He may have married twice. His (second?) wife was Elisabeth Rohn. She was born in 1795, the daughter of Henry and Anna Rohn. (In 1790 a John Rone & his family were enumerated in Somerset Co, PA. How they are related to Henry is unknown.) In 1815 John moved to Starke County, OH and settled in Bethlehem township. His brother Christian had moved to Tuscarawas Co, OH sometime prior to 1812. In the 1820 census John was enumerated with his wife and a son and daughter and in 1827 he paid land taxes in Bethlehem township. John lived in same township until his death in 1846. His widow Elisabeth died in 1870. Four of their six children were married in Starke County.

Does anyone have additional information on John of Somerset County, OH or John of Starke County, OH. Our thanks to Mrs. Clapper for her family chart.
