He lived a beautiful Christian life.

He leaves father, mother, two brothers and two sisters to mourn their loss, but their loss is his eternal gain.

He filled his place in the church, he often shouted the praises of God, as we looked on him while he was in the Spirit it seemed that the glorious light of the Son of God was on him.

He believed much in prayer and often called the writer to his bedside to pray with him. Just four hours before God called him home he called me to his bedside and as he was too weak to talk he raised his hand and pointed to the floor. I kneeled down to pray with a sorrowful heart knowing that the death angel was standing near to bear his soul to God who gave it. When I arose from my knees he reached out his hand, and as I took that frail hand for the last time the Spirit of God was present. I looked into his face and saw that calm satisfied expression that only a child of God can have.

He had many friends to miss him, but God loved him best. So weep not for Hubert for he is resting with God. WRITTEN BY CELIA JOHNSON.

Shortly before his death he stated to Bro. G. D. Barrette and Bro. W. C. Presley that all was right with His maker. Let us all pray God we can make this statement before we leave this world.

GEORGE MARION WILLIAMS, was born in Hancock County, Tennessee, on May 11th, 1906, the youngest child of George A and Amanda Williams, he died in a Greenville, Tennessee Hospital on November 1st, 1941. He was the youngest of eight children, two sisters and his mother have preceded him in death, he leaves his father, four brothers and one sister surviving him.

George M. Williams professed faith in Christ at an early age, joined the Bajtist Church at Cool Branch, Tennessee, where he lived a faithful member till his de ath. George leaves his widow, Grace Willaims and six children to mourn for him.

But George is gone, he sleeps the sleep ofthe just, and while the white phospherscent light of the moon keeps vigil over him by night, the rain and wind pass over him, and the noonday sun warms his bed of clay, he is not awakened or disturbed, the lightning flash and the thunders roll, he is not awakened from that sleep which no one has ever awakened.

George was always an obedient son, he was a loving and kind husband and father, he was loved by all who knew him, he had not an enemy in the world, and lived the life of a Christian from his early childhood. But he is gone from us, to never return to this sinful world, he has passed through the valley alone, and we will soon follow him and will meet him again in a land where parting will be no more. George it is hard to give you up, but we will meet again soon to be together forever, and for his heartbroken family and friends we will say, let him sleep on in his silence till he is awakened at the last day when he will come forth clothed in the Glory of our Lord to be with us for evermore.

But life will never be the same for us without, our George but he is gone. God touched him with his hand and he slept, never to awaken till the judgment day. Sleep on. God bless you, we will see you again soon. FATHER.

TONEY L. WOLFE, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lon Wolf, was born March 2, 1921, died, December 2, 1942. Age 21 years, 10 months. He was married to Evelyn Brewer Wolfe October 6, 1940 and to this union was born one daughter, Wanda. He professed faith in Christ at the age of 13 at Rock Bridge Baptist Church, where he remained a faithful member until God saw fit to take his loving soul to Heaven. He loved to go to church and Sunday School—on Sunday morning his seat was always filled at the house of the Lord.

He was a good husband, and father, a loyal, faithful and true friend to everyone, always wearing a happy smile. Oh, how our hearts ache to know he has gone from us forever in this lonely troublesome world never to return again, but I know he has gone to that sweet Heavenly home where there's no pain, heartaches, sorrows or separation ever come, and nothing but the thought of the loving hand that removed him from us, can reconcile us in his absence.

Toney bore his pain and sickness with patience and as he had lived without resentment, quietly and peacefully, he breathed along until the call came, which our Master promised his children. The chair is vacant which no oth er can fill; the kind words and gentle greetings will be missed; the humming of his favorite song will be no more, because the voice so well loved is stilled and a place is sadly vacant in the home.

We all must prepare ourselves to meet our dear one, and many others who have gone to the Heavenly home. It brings great joy to hearts to know that we will meet our d ear ones again.

He leaves a wife, one daughter, father and mother, two sisters, and two brothers besides many friends to mourn their loss, but our loss is his eternal gain. So sleep on dear husband until God calls us home, where there will be no sad partings, but we will be together. Heaven has gained a precious jewel. He is gone but not forgotten.

SISTER MALINA LEAMON, wife of Rev. J. H. Leamon was born on November 11, 1857. When God saw fit in his infinite wisdom to take her to that beautiful home, not made with hands, but eternally in the Heavens, after almost 4 years of a lingering illness, she departed this life at the age of 85 years 2 months and two days on January 14, 1943.

During her illness she was obedient and kind, always met everybody with a smile. It was hard to give her up but God's grace is sufficient, He has promised not put any more on His children than they can bear. She can't come back to us but we can go to her, that's all the consolation we have in giving up our people.

After a service of song and praise in her home the remains were taken to the Leamon cemetery for interment. Rev. Richard Davis of Sneedville, and Rev. Luke Trent of Eidson conducted the funeral services and as the gentle shades of eventide were falling over the beautiful valley the remains were lowered to their last resting place to sleep with the slumbering flowers until eternity's spring time shall call her forth to be transplanted in the garden of God where she shall forever live with the pure in heart. Her passing was the end of a true Christian life.

OUR DEPARTED MOTHER

Dearest mother how we miss her, no one knows but God alone.
She's up in Heaven with the angels all is joy and peace and love.
Dearest mother God has called you to that home sweet home above
While we linger here in sorrow bereft of a sweet mother's love.
Dearest mother our home is vacant, your place no one can ever fill
God alone can only comfort if we trust and do His Will.
Farewell mother, but not for ever, we'll meeet again where parting is no more
There to live with our dear Saviour and all our loved one gone before.
