- - Stores Department's " Diamond Merchant " - -

With thousands of dollars worth of diamonds at his finger tips, James A. Jeffreys could be termed " Alloys' diamond merchant. " For more than fifteen years, he has been personally responsible for the stock of industrial diamonds and diamond compounds used for heavy duty polishing and cutting at this plant. The diamond paste, packaged in five-gram jars, used for polishing operations is valued at more than eight dollars pre gram, while the three-carat stones , mounted in nibs for cutting, cost about seventy- five dollars each. And since these warehouse items are so valuable, he inventories them weekly.

Mr. Jeff, as he is known to his hundreds of friends at Alloys, is not only responsible for high unit-cost items such as diamonds, but acts as the watchdog over 22,000 other items normally stocked in Alloys' Stores Department. It would seem that keeping tabs on the previous stones, writing the necessary requisitions to keep inventories replenished and posting the receiving reports on 22,000 items would be enough to keep one man busy, but Mr. Jeff acts in another vital capacity. With calm efficiency he doubles as an information center, handling hundreds of inquiries weekly in regard to items stocked by the warehouse. In the normally harassing operation of keeping tabs on such a wide variety of materials and equipment, Jeff not only remains unruffled but, with his easy going, relaxed manner, soothes the work-jangled nerves of harried inquirers.

Mr. Jeff was born on August 24th, 1892, near Town Creek, Alabama, in Lawrence County. His early schooling was in Leighton Alabama, and he graduated from Colbert County High School in 1913, which in those days was tantamount to a college education. He was introduced to the rigors of farm life at an early age and continued at that occupation afre reaching adulthood. He later became a merchant, operating an establishment, selling dry goods and general merchandise.

In June of 1942, he came to Alliy's as an hourly employee in the stores department, assuming the position he now holds.

He met the lady who was to be the future Mrs. Jeffreys, the former Miss Mattie Landers, of Hatton, Alabama, at a Sunday-after-noon singing convention in the summer of 1912; they were married a year-and-a-half later on February 10, 1914. He recalls that many of their courting excursions were made in the hotrod of the day, a spirited horse trotting to a light buggy. This union has been blessed with sis daughters and three sons,(one son deceased), and the Jeffreys are additionally proud of their sixteen grandchildren. Though large in number, this family remains in close touch by means of annual reunions at christmastime, usually held at the Jeffreys home at 1405 East Second Street in Tuscumbia, Alabama.

An accomplished cabinetmaker, an avid fisherman and huntsman, Jeff's spare time is well filled. He is due to retire from Reynolds in January, and while he "loafs till March", when he will begin the construction of a new home on a five-acre lot adjacent to Lake Wilson, he plans to acquire power tools for a fully-equipped cabinet shop. His biggest fishing thrill cost him a nearly-new reel, but it was worth it. Once while casting for bass, a seven-and-a-half pound small mouth hit his hook so hard that the gears were stripped out of his reel; he landed the near-record fish after a twenty-minute fight, by pulling it in had over hand.

A Mason since 1917, Mr. Jeffreys is a three-time Past Master. He is Past Master of the Washington Lodge, Number Thirty-six of Tuscumbia, and is twice Past Master of the Town Creek Lodge ,Number 361, of which he is presently a very active member.

This is James A. Jeffreys, " Mr. Jeff " to his friends- - which means everybody- - a man who is cooperative to perfection, who, through his unobtrusively efficient manner, has made himself a permanent place in the hearts of Alloys people.
