

Logan News Notes

(Special to The Herald-Republican.)

Logan, July 30.—Maurus Pedersen, father of Marshal Niely Pedersen of the Logan police force, died Wednesday night. He was born in Denmark in 1830 and moved to this country thirty-nine years ago, living in Logan ever since. He leaves a widow and seven children. The funeral will be held Sunday at 2 p. m. in the Third ward meeting house.

The fourteen-year-old son of Thomas Buttars of Clarkston was kicked by a horse Thursday evening. Five ribs were broken and such internal injuries inflicted that it is feared that he will die. The lad was unhooking a team when the accident occurred.

Apostle Grant and President C. H. Hart will be in attendance at the Cache stake quarterly conference, to be held here tomorrow.

D. R. Roberts has returned from Stone, Ida., where he has been attending the sale of lands under the Carey act. He reports that the sale was a great success. Most sales were made to people residing in Nebraska, Colorado and other states east of here.

Harold, the five-year-old son of Joseph Albiston of Richmond, had his clothes catch fire while playing with matches the other day. He was very badly burned about the chest and face.

Attorney A. C. Smith and wife of Preston were Logan visitors today.

The five-months-old daughter of Oliver Skanchy died last Wednesday night and was buried Friday in the City cemetery.

M. Bard Shipp, the youthful forger, pleaded guilty in the district court today to a charge of forgery. He will be sentenced later by Judge Maugham.

Professor Richard R. Lyman of the University of Utah passed through Logan Friday on his way to Paradise, where he is superintending the construction of waterworks for that city.

James T. Hammond is in Logan for a few days.

Robert Fishburne and wife of Brigham City are in Logan for a few days.

Marriage licenses have been issued this week to Joseph J. Nelson, Idaho Falls, and Emma Hobusch, Salt Lake; Walter Rawlins, Fairview, Ida., and Lavon Cherry, Lewiston, Ida.; John Corbidge, Richmond, and Mary H. Brittner, Logan.

Jurors for the August term of the First judicial district court were drawn yesterday by Clerk James. They are:

Logan: William M. Smith, John E. Carlisle, William Bingham, Charles T. Barrett, William Hyde, Charles England, William Hibbard, Edward Korupkat, Jacob Schaub, Albert Hauffman, William C. Jensen, Edelbert E. Cranney.

Wellsville: William H. Maugham, Thomas Thorpe; Trenton: Andrew M. Simmonds; Wheeler: William Bybee; Millville: George W. Huise; Lewiston: Oscar M. Pope; College: James A. Anderson; Smithfield: John T. Hines; Hyrum: John L. Baxter, Harry G. Shaw, Iver Nielsen; Providence: Karl Kowalls, Christian Hansen; Hyde Park: William Balls; Clarkston: Allen M. Archibald; Richmond: David Smith; Coveville: Elias S. Larsen.