

Dear Cousin

I hastened to reply to your letter as soon as I could hear anything Mother is very poorly. My health is no better First your Grandma did not have Dr Bantys address but she will send it in her letter

She will write soon as for the ones the children of James Jamison married Uncle John married Polly Gillian (think this is right) Adam married married Nancy

Sherwood

Elizabeth married G. R. Patton

Joseph married Kate Jamison

Sams first wife Petsy Bradley

Second wife was Caroline Sherwood

James married Esther Brown

Aunt Jane married Peter Carr of who we know nothing of the Holidays we know not if John Jamison is related or not unless he is of the family of Joseph Jamison my Grandfather's uncle who lived years ago in Baltimore & was engaged in the powder business he was very wealthy) if you can; will you send us the advertisement you saw in the paper or tell us the date & name of the paper & where we can find it we think perhaps that we can trace the relation & if you send us the paper or tell us where we can get it Captain Jamison name is James Carson Jamison he is first cousin of my mother & & your Grandfather My Grandfather came here from North Carolina in the year 1820 his fore fathers were from Ireland let us hear from you as soon as you can & if there is any money for us I trust we may get it for we need it badly your Grandmother is very poorly indeed & your mother

Ought to come just as soon as I he possible can I he said when I he heard from you all I he feels as if I he was ready to fly away you dont know how I he ap-^{reacat} your letter I must close mother & I send our very best love to you & yours I remain your loving Cousin

May J. Patton

mother says for you write as soon as you can.
