1946 Aspinwall (PA) High School Yearbook "Cavalier"

FOREWORD

In compiling the material for this current issue of The Cavalier, the yearbook staff has made a sincere effort to portray the everyday events in a typical school year—attempting to literally and pictorially reproduce its high and low tides, its triumphs and mistakes, its victories and defeats. School and education, being what they are—laboratories used in preparation for future life—resemble somewhat an elevator, with many ups and downs, successes and failures, joys and sorrows.

If, in the future, you may remove this yearbook from its storage shelf, dust off its cover, leaf through its pages, and experience that feeling of mellowness that comes through recalling by-gone memories, it will have served its purpose.

That is the wish of the entire yearbook staff.

The Editors.

DEDICATION

We reverently pause to honor the sacred memory of those who went from our midst, never to return.

May their sacrifices eternally remind us that peace, justice, and brotherhood can prevail only so long as we remember the mistakes of the past.

To these honored dead, we respectfully dedicate this edition of The Cavalier.

ALMA MATER

1.

Close beside the Allegheny
Hill and vale serene,
Stands our own, our Alma Mater,
Aspinwall our queen.

2.

There she stands in all her glory
Loved by one and all.
Here's to you, our Alma Mater,
Fair old Aspinwall.

Chorus:

All ye sons and all ye daughters
Fight the good old fight,
Honor Aspinwall forever
Hail maroon and white!

CLASS OF 1946

The years you have spent in high school have been war years and will be long remembered. Many of those who left our midst to defend the nation endured much, and some of these made the supreme sacrifice by giving their lives so that democracy and decency could live on. Emerging from this hardship, suffering, and death is the clear challenge that all possibility of future wars must be eliminated. You and millions more like you have in your very hands the power to answer this challenge. It must be answered so that the men who suffered painful and premature deaths will not have died in vain.

The solution is not easy. It demands all of the intellectuality, charity, and ingenuity you can possibly muster. You will be scorned at times, and many will say it cannot be done. But, you will achieve the heretofore impossible if you will eliminate prejudices, think straight, and have a firm faith in the One who can and will help you.

C. A. SHERMAN
