1947 Sharpsburg (PA) High School Yearbook
"Wolverine"

W THE WOL
LVERINE

1947

Bill M. [unclear]

Foreword . . .

In 1924, "THE BLUE & WHITE," the first, last and only Yearbook was published by the twenty-four members of the Senior Class of 1924, under the guidance and inspiration of Professor B. J. Steggert, then Supervising Principal.

This year, the forty-four members of the Senior Class of 1947, inspired and stimulated by Mr. John B. Veltri, the new Supervising Principal, make an attempt to bridge the gap of 23 years by publishing an Annual which, they hope, will serve as a milestone in the activities of Sharpsburg High and be a beacon light to the classes which shall follow in the succeeding years.

May this Annual—"THE WOLVERINE"—a name dear to the Sharpsburg "Wolves" be the first of a long series of Annuals which will help preserve memories of happy school days and activities enjoyed by every member of the student body.

—THE EDITORS.

Dedication . . .

We, the Senior Class of 1947, do hereby gratefully dedicate this first Annual to Mr. John B. Veltri, our Supervising Principal, as a token of our appreciation for making this publication a reality. Our sincerest thanks and best wishes to him for his inspiring help and sympathetic understanding.

TO THE GRADUATES OF '47

"Where Now?"

Having completed your high school education, you are now leaving an institution that has striven for four years to be of service to you. This institution has ever tried to develop the best in you and prepare you for a worthwhile, creditable life when you take your place in the world.

It is not a time to instill the feeling that "all's completed" for remember, you are merely on the threshold of life and many great and important problems will be encountered and need solving. With confidence and courage tackle these situations and make your decisions wisely.

Whatever you do in the future, let it bring credit and praise to your Alma Mater. You can be assured that the Board of Education and the faculty will be ready at all times to help you. Your high school will never lose interest in you and in your welfare.

As a parting word: "Set your mark high; have a purpose; establish a goal; decide; build a program that will level the hills, fill up the valleys, bring down the mountains and make your path straight that it may lead you on to the fulfillment of your purpose and to your desired goal."
