 Martha Kimball b. ca. 1836-8; d. after 1900. (m. rec. gives her name as Martha Kelly, but d. recs. of some of her children gave her maiden name as Kimball. I believe she is the Martha Kimball in the Madoc area of Hastings Co., Ont., in 1851 in the home of George R. and Margaret Smith. In the 1900 census Martha says she was the mother of 4 with 2 living. Since I have a record of only 3 children born to her and James Meyers, perhaps she m. (1) . . . Kelly and had 1 child by him. Perhaps it was the Lottie Kelly b. ca. 1866, who m. 5 July 1888 Edwin Wallington b. ca. 1864. They m. in Ionia Co., MI (A-14) and had a son b. 24 September 1897, not named. They were in Thurlow in 1851. I'm not certain this is the correct family.

vi. Mary Walden Meyers bapt. 29 May 1774 as Maria Waltermeyer at Catskill Dutch Ref. Ch., in then Albany Co., now Greene Co., NY; d. ca. 1868; bur. Old Sidney Burying Ground, Hastings Co., Ont., Can. (date bur. below ground).

m.(1) perhaps late summer 1793, John R. Bleeker, widowed husband of her sister, Catherine. Family tradition says that because her father strongly opposed the marriage, they eloped to King's Town to be married there by the Rev. John Stuart, but I haven't found a m. rec. Bleeker's mother had remarried a Mr. McKenzie and lived in King's Town, so they visited there before returning home. John was not successful in preventing the marriage, and soon became reconciled to it. John Bleeker was b. ca. 1762 and d. ca. 1807. At the time of his death, in early March 1807, John had gone with a mill-wright and an Indian guide to the family work camp where he and other members of the Walden Meyers family were building a mill. They wanted to observe the height of the water so they could determine the level of the dam and mill wheel to accommodate it. He came down with a raging fever and died of pneumonia before he could return home. A raging snowstorm with freezing rain made it impossible for them to return the body to his home, so his companions buried him near the mill site.

Mary received land 13 November 1797 (O.C.).

m.(2) perhaps late 1807 or early 1808 John Row b. ca. 1772; d. 24 May 1857. He had m.(1) Sarah Rose b. ca. ; d. bur. Old Sidney Burying Ground.

Mary decided to keep the Bleeker family business--an inn, and ferry services across the Trent River.
