

BLIZZARD CEMETERY

Smith Lane

Located off US Hwy 21, South Ridgeway
*Behind Blythewood Oil Company and close to the county line
Cemetery is located on property now owned by John W. McIntosh*

John Blizzard
June 23, 1886-Dec 9, 1914
He was the sunshine of our home

Voluntine Blizzard
July 27, 1811-Feb 28, 1889

Nicklos Gladden
Feb 24, 1843-Aug 22, 1910

Mary Jane Gladden
Jan 2, 1836-Aug 8, 1910

Elizabeth Blizzard
Jan 20, 1810-Feb 26, 1891

Arthur Blizzard
Oct 18, 1847-Dec 18, 1920
Gone but not forgotten

Child's grave (last name Staples)

At least 5-6 more unmarked graves

Family Info

John Blizzard: Son of Arthur Blizzard and Susan Miles; grandson of Valentine & Elizabeth Blizzard. His death certificate gave his date of death as Dec. 9, 1916, also the notice in The State newspaper printed on Dec. 10, 1916.

Nicklos (Nicholas) Gladden: Husband of Mary Jane Blizzard.

Mary Jane Gladden: Wife of Nicklos Gladden and daughter of Valentine & Elizabeth Blizzard.

Elizabeth Blizzard: Wife of Valentine Blizzard.

Arthur Blizzard: Lang David "Arthur" Blizzard, son of Valentine & Elizabeth Blizzard.

In the 1876 Map of Fairfield County by William B. and B.E. Elkin the name Blizzard appears in the 8th Township near a branch of Big Cedar Creek, this is the location of the Blizzard Cemetery above.

Submitted by: William R. Bauer, Columbia, SC