THOMAS BLANTON (1724 Va-1810 Ky) who went to Kentucky in 1786, settled ed on a farm south of Frankfort, on the Versailles Road. The Homeplace was later occupied by his son JOHN, whose Estate was settled 1811, and later still by John's son WILLIS BLANTON (1789 Va-1859 Ky). The home was on a hill overlooking all of the hills that surround Frankfort, Kentucky. The land was lately owned by the widow of Lafayette CRUTCHER, and is in full view of the site of the old Grassy Springs Church, and the nearby cemetery, both of which have recently become abandoned.

The children of JOHN and Nancy (Robberson) ELANTON were:

I. Sally Blanton married 1796 Capt Richard TAYLOR, lived in Kentucky.

Mrs. Louise M. Donald,

Whittier - Calif.

Dear Mrs. M. D. Donald:—

In the August D. A. R. Magazine, I was interested in the questions you asked about the Blanton family.

My great-grandfather was Benjamin Franklin Blanton, born in Lincoln Co. Missouri, 1820, died in Randolph Co. Ark. - Nov. 11 - 1872.

He was the son of Thompson (probably Josias Thompson) Blanton who was born in Kentucky - This family came from Kentucky to Missouri - I have lived in the South all my married life so have never had the opportunity to "trace" the family. What I want to tell you is this, Mrs. Mark Gregory, (Beatrice Blanton) the great granddaughter of Sampson Blanton could probably give you some information if you think this is the same family as yours.

 Mrs. Gregory lives in Fredericktown, Missouri. I was also born and raised in Fredericktown, Mo.

Sincerely—

Norma Christoph Sumner
