HARMON GREATHOUSE

1762-1849

Harmon Greathouse was born in Frederick Co. Maryland on June 30, 1762. He was the fourth son of Harmon Greathouse, Sr., a German immigrant, Harmon Greathouse served in the Sandusky, Ohio Expedition. His unit fought against the Indians in 1781 under Col. William Crawford and Capt. Charles Bilderback. A lively battle was fought at a spot about five miles north of the old Sandusky Fort. Though about equal in numbers initially, Indian reinforcements soon gave the Indians a better than three-to-one advantage. Orders were given for the soldiers to retreat - every man for himself Harmon Greathouse had a very fine filly and could have made his retreat without any difficulty. However, he came upon a fellow soldier who was afoot and lame. Knowing that this comrade-in-arms would be captured and scalped by the Indians, Greathouse dismounted and gave up his horse and a portion of his rations. He then bid the soldier farewell and continued his escape on foot. Greathouse met up with ten members of his old company and together they marched day and night for about a week. With little rest and only buds and roots for subsistence, they eventually reached their settlement. Only about 60 of the original 400 soldiers reached home. Among these was the lame soldier who returned with Harmon Greathouse's horse. Harmon Greathouse died July 5, 1849 in Bardstown, KY.

Additional Information

Harmon Greathouse, Jr. was the son of Harmon Greathouse and Mary Stull. He was born June 30, 1762 in Baltimore (now Carroll) Co., MD. His first wife that he married about 1784 was MARY GRIFFITH of Ohio Co., VA. She was prob. the daughter of Capt. William Griffith.

(Harmon's first wife's name is clarified by the writings of his son, William Greathouse. William called her Mary Griffin, but the surname of the family of the area was Griffith. Harmon's first wife has been often called Mary Massey, incorrectly. This surname was mistaken with his second wife's given name Mercy which occurred as an error years ago and has been copied and passed down to each generation.)

Harmon and Mary Griffith had two children, both of which died young.

1. Unknown child Greathouse b. about 1785
2. Unknown child Greathouse b. about 1787

Mary Griffith Greathouse died June 25, 1787 in Ohio (now Brooke) Co., (W)VA probably as a result of the birth of her second child. She was buried in a cemetery on the banks of the Ohio River where Fort Holliday was located. Holiday's Cove is now Weirton, WV.

Harmon married the second time on March 5, 1789 in Ohio Co., (W) VA to MERCY BUKEY, daughter of Capt. John Bukey who died in 1778 in Ohio Co., (W)VA and his wife was Jemima Dunn, who was administratrix of his will on Aug. 3, 1778. Jemima was the daughter of Hezekiah Dunn of NJ and his wife Marcy Martin.

MERCY BUKEY was born March 19, 1768 in Ohio (now Brooke) Co., (W) VA.

They had 10 children.

1. Luther b. Dec. 5, 1789; md unknown then married Mary Samuels.
2. Jonathan b. Feb. 18, 1791; married Sarah Caldwell.
3. Dr. Isaac Newton b. Nov. 18 1792; md. Elizabeth Berkeley Lewis.
4. William b. Jan. 4, 1794; md. Sarah Beall Swearingen & then Catherine M. Stowers.
5. John Bukey b. Feb. 12, 1797; md. Elizabeth Grass.
6. Mary b. March 8, 1799; md. Shadrack Hall.
7. Rodolphus Bukey b. Aug. 21, 1801; md Susannah Rebecca Lewis.
8. Joseph Fawcett b. March 17, 1804; md. Mildred Hughes.
9. Jemima Greathouse (twin) b. Dec. 27, 1807; md. James Porter.
10. Elizabeth (twin) b. Dec. 27, 1807; md. Coleman Bridwell

Some of you may have a child by the name of Rebecca. This information came from Alice Winters Nelson in her history of the Greathouse family. Rebecca is not listed as a child in the records of Alphonzo Hall. Hall's record came from a bible record and is probably correct. There is no documentation that Rebecca is a child of Harmon and Mercy Bukey. As you can see Hermon was not burned at the stake. This unhappy fate of Capt. Crawford was incorrectly interpreted as the fate of Herman Greathouse, Sr. by at least 3 members of the DAR and has been copied and quoted by researchers. These 3 DAR records are marked ERRORED in the files of the NSDAR in Wash., DC. Harman, Jr. was a member of Capt. William Crawford's regiment during Crawford's fateful expedition against the Sandusky Indians in 1782. William Greathouse, his son, in his writings told how he escaped and returned home.

Harmon Greathouse's grave is located in the farm field of 600 acres that belong to John Mayer in Deatsville, KY. The two headstones are joined together and stand upright. Harmon's inscription is on the right side and Mercy's inscription is on the left side as you look at the stone marker.

Notes for DR. ISAAC NEWTON GREATHOUSE:

From "Kentucky: A History of the State", Battle, Perrin, & Kniffin, 2nd ed., 1885, Hancock Co.

DR. ISAAC N. GREATHOUSE was born near Bardstown, Ky., about 1792. His father, Harmon Greathouse was born in Pennsylvania. In an early day, he and his two brothers started for Kentucky in a flatboat, and one of his brothers was killed by Indians while making the journey. The second brother settled in Shelby County, and the third brother, Harmon, settled in Nelson County. In an early Indian war he was captured by the Indians. He remained a prisoner some time, but finally escaping settled in Nelson County, Ky., where he resided until his death. Subject was reared in Nelson County and was there educated. He read medicine with Dr. Goodman of that place. In 1818 he went to Troy, Ind., where he practiced his profession. In the latter part of the same year he returned to Kentucky, and married Miss Elizabeth Lewis. This lady was born in Jefferson County, Ky., in 1799. Her parents were John and Hannah Lewis; the father came to Hancock County with his family in 1799, and settled in a fort which then stood on the banks of Yellow Creek. He was a surveyor by occupation, and in an early day made a plat of the major part of the land lying between the Salt and Green Rivers. In 1812, he had listed for taxation over 199,760 acres. This land was, however, considered very cheap; as, speaking about it in a letter written to people in Virginia in 1788, he said that a tract of 2,000 acres on the Ohio River, in what is now Hancock County, could be bought for fifteen farthings, but he remarked that the land in a few months could be bought for ten farthings. Soon after his marriage Isaac Greathouse settled in this county, on the farm owned by his son William. Here he followed his profession and also paid some attention to farming until his death in 1832. His wife was born in 1799 and died in Hancock County in 1879. To her were born seven children, of whom three are now living. H. B., J. L., and William L. Harmon B. Greathouse was born May 2, 1822, in Troy, Ind., and was the second of a family of seven children. His schooling was received in Hancock County. He began life for himself when twenty-three years of age. He first bought a farm near Lewisport, where he resided about two years. From there he farmed for seven years. In 1859 he came to his present farm in Hancock County, where he owns about 173 acres, with about 150 acres in cultivation. Mr. Greathouse was married on February 10, 1840, to Miss Martha R., daughter of James and Catherine (Lewis) Haywood, natives of Henry County. This lady was born in Daviess

County, in November, 1827, and was the mother of six children, of whom three are now living: Catherine E., wife of Milton C. Tracy, in Macon, Mo.; Martha H., wife of Thomas L. Henderson, and Isaac N. This lady died September 29, 1862. Mr. G. was next married, December 1, 1868, to Miss Martha E. Haywood, a daughter of George Haywood. This lady was born in Clark County, Mo. (first white female born in that county), in 1830, and to her was born one child, since deceased. She died September, 1878. Subject is a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, and has been identified with the Grange fraternity. J. L. Greathouse was born in Hancock County, Ky., March 17, 1828, and was the third of seven children. His education was received in Hancock County. He began life for himself at twenty-five years of age, in Lewisport Precinct. He settled on his present farm in 1864, where he owns 120 acres. In 1864 he erected a saw mill on his farm, and is still running it. Mr. Greathouse was married, January 1, 1855, to Miss S. C. Smith, a daughter of Michael and Sarah (Scott) Smith, natives of Virginia. This lady was born in Henry County, Ky., in 1836. This marriage has resulted in the following children: Nicholas J., Sarah, wife of Stephen Emich; Susan, wife of Rufus Neel; Almenda O., wife of William Roberts; Laura Cooper, Vinson, Clark and Fannie Lou. Mr. Greathouse is a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church South; Mrs. Greathouse of the old school Presbyterian Church.
