Notes for PIERRE BILLIOU:

from Pierre Billiou, the Walloon, Staten Island Pioneer, by Elmer G. VanName, 1958:

``Pierre must have possessed the true spirit of the pioneer. Within 16 days he was ready to face the wilderness, for it is known that until Pierre and 18 associates on 8-22-1661 petitioned the Governor of the Province to grant them land upon which to settle on Staten Island, this beautiful isle was almost bare of inhabitants. A majority of those who joined in the petition turned back, but Billiou pressed on. It was Billiou who succeeding in pacifying the Indians where others had failed, and it was he who, with the assistance of the Governor's surveyor, laid out the first Staten Island town at 'Old Town' near the present South Beach. On 10-2-1661, he and his wife joined the Reformed Protestant Church at New Amsterdam. He was a judicial officer of the first court established 1-28-1664, was a delegate to the General Assembly in Manhattan, 4-10-1664, was appointed a Lieutenant of Militia 5-14-1669, and was on 8-25-1673 elected Schout and Sclepen (sheriff and magistrate) during the Dutch re-occupation."

Memorial Pillar Inscription, Church of the Huguenots, Huguenot Park, Staten Island, N. Y.:

"Sacred to the memory of PIERRE BILLIOU and of FRANCOISE DUBOIS, both of Artois, who were married in the Walloon Church Leyden April 20, 1649, and emigrated to the New Netherlands May 9th, 1661, and of their daughter MARIE BILLIOU, who married at Wiltwyck, June 3, 1670, ARENDT JANSEN PRALL, who died on Staten Island 1725. May they rest in Peace."

The will of Pierre Billiou, dated 9-11-1699, probated in New York, 1-6-1702 is recorded in Liber 7, page 79, but several errors were made by the copyist. Elmer G. Van Name in 1958 transcribed the original will as follows:
