Notes for JUDITH ?:

from NEHGS Register, v. 49: Genealogical Gleanings in England, p. 267

JUDITH GOULD of Watford, widow, 6 May 1650, proved 3 September 1650. To my son Abel four hundred pounds and a little box at my cousin Gase her house in Hemsteed and all that is in it. To my daughter Lydia three hundred pounds. To daughter Elizabeth three hundred pounds. To my daughter Hannah, to her two daughters, Hannah and Elizabeth by name, I give them forty pounds betwixt them. My son in law George Younge by bond oweth me one hundred pounds. Out of this I will to my son Nathan in New England, to his own children, forty pounds and to my daughter Sarah her children threescore pounds, if so be my son Nathan hath not divided the goods that my son Zaccheus left him when he died equally betwixt them, him and his Sister Sarah; but if they are equally divided then this hundred pounds to be equally divided betwixt them both for the use of their children. This to be given them a year after my decease. And if my son Abell he dieth before he cometh of age it is my will that three hundred pounds be equally divided betwixt my two daughters Lydia and Elizabeth. And of the other hundred pounds I will fifty pounds to my daughter Hannah, twenty pounds to my daughter Mary and the other thirty pounds to be sent to New England for my son Nathan and my daughter Sarah their own children, to be equally divided betwixt them both. And if the money that I have lent to Parliament should be paid in then I will one hundred pounds to my son Abel and forty pounds to my daughter Mary, and what other money ariseth from the Parliament I will it should be equally divided betwixt my three daughters Hannah, Lydia and Elizabeth. For the Minister of Watford, by name Master Goodwinge, I will five pounds and to the poor of Watford five pounds. The residue to son Abel and daughters Lydia and Elizabeth and I make them executor and executrixes.

Ralph Kinge one of the witnesses.

Abel Guild united with his two sisters in taking the oath of probate

Notes for ZACCHEUS GOULD:

From SAVAGE's DICTIONARY OF FIRST SETTLERS OF NEW ENGLAND, Vol 2

GOULD, or GOLD, ZACCHEUS, Weymouth 1639

and

GOULD, or GOLD, ZACCHEUS, Ipswich 1644 (in that part which soon was incorporated as Topsfield), came from Hants Green, near Potter's Row, in County Bucks, a parish, seen on the map, about 33 miles from London, near Great Missenden, left good estate to only son John, and four daughters perhaps, both at Rowley and Topsfield. His daughter Phebe married Thomas Perkins; Martha married John Newmarch; Mary married a (probably Abraham) Redington, and Priscilla married John Wild, who strange as it may appear, was a witness against her brother.

From NEHGS Register, v. 46, p. 186 "Savage's Genealogical Dictionary, Corrections and Additions"

Vol. II.--Page 285. Zacheus Gould of Ipswich and of Weymouth is the same man. He bought out James Parker 1644, and afterwards sold.

From Pope's The Pioneers of Massachusetts:

GOULD, GOOLD, GOLD, Zaccheus, husbandman, Lynn, headed a petition that husbandmen be excused from training in seedtime and harvest; dated 7 (8) 1640. [L.] Removed to Ipswich; sold land at Weymouth which had belonged to Jeremy Gould 26 (9) 1644. Removed to Topsfield. He deposed in 1661, age about 72 years. His wife Phebe died 20 (9) 1663. Children [Phebe, (married Thomas Perkins,) Mary, (married John Reddington,) Martha, (married John Newmarch.)] [So stated by the genealogy of the Family.]

From Farmer's Genealogical Register of the First Settlers of New England:

GOULD, ZACCHEUS, Lynn 1640, had a son Daniel. Lewis.

Zaccheus lived in Hemel, Hampstead England and later in Great Misseden, where he was assessed in 1629. He came to America with his family and the first record of him is in Weymouth MA where in 1639 he bought land from his brother Jeremy. He was one of the executors of the will of Henry Russell, of Weymouth the same year. He moved to Lynn and in 1640 owned a mill on the Saugus River. He rented lands there in 1640, the rents payable in rye, wheat, barley, oxen, cows, heifers, calves and mares. In 1640 he signed a petition to the governor for exemption from training during seed time, harvest and during haying. He moved to that part of Ipswich which became Topsfield about 1644 and was one of the petitioners for the setting off of Topsfield as a town in 1650. He purchased from William Paine the homestead in Topsfield where he lived and died. He took the oath of fidelity 30 Sep 1651 but was never admitted a freeman. He was fined for entertaining Quakers. The farm in Topsfield was in the Gould family for several generations. The first house was a block house to defend the inhabitants from the Indians and a garrison was kept at that time. The third house was built in 1724 or soon after and was destroyed by fire in 1878. On its site a fourth house was erected which was occupied by David Pingree. Zaccheus died in 1668 and his wife Phebe on 20 Sep 1663.

Notes for JOHN WILDES:

Per SAVAGE'S Genealogical Dictionary of New England Settlers, v. 4

WILDES, JOHN, Topsfield 1660, then aged 40, perhaps son of William, married Priscilla, daughter of the first Zacheus Gould; may be that youth of 17 years coming from London, 1635, in the Elizabeth. From Coffin's gatherings in Geneal. Reg. VIII. 167, it may be inferred that he had a son JOHN, who in his will of October 1676, after mention of his grandfather Gould, names brothers Jonathan, Ephraim, and sisters Sarah, Elizabeth, Phebe, Priscilla, and Martha. His second wife Sarah was old enough in 1692 to be condemned and executed as a witch, but not young enough to falsely accuse herself or others during the execra. delusion.
