

Descendants of William Carpenter

Generation No. 1

1. WILLIAM<sup>1</sup> CARPENTER was born Unknown, and died Unknown.

Notes for WILLIAM CARPENTER:

From A Genealogical History of the Rehoboth Branch of the Carpenter Family in America, also known as the "Carpenter Memorial," p. 33:

"The statements in Playfair, Burke, and Davis and Owen, in regard to the descent of the Tyrconnel Carpenters from John of 1303, and also of William of Homme, establishes the fact that the Homme Carpenters are all descended from John of 1303. William Carpenter, (No. 8,) the great grandson of William of Homme, was the direct ancestor of the Tyrconnel Carpenters; and his third son William, was the progenitor of the Rehoboth branch of the family"

Children of WILLIAM CARPENTER are:

  - i. JAMES<sup>2</sup> CARPENTER, b. Unknown; d. 1593.
  - ii. ALEXANDER CARPENTER, b. About 1560<sup>l</sup>; d. Unknown.

Notes for ALEXANDER CARPENTER:

From A Genealogical History of the Rehoboth Branch of the Carpenter Family in America, also known as the "Carpenter Memorial," p. 34

"No. 9--2. Alexander was born about 1560. He was a Dissenter and on account of religious persecution removed with his family to Leyden. It was probably this Alexander who stopped at Yarmouth on his return to England. After quiet was restored he settled at Sommersetshire where his wife died. He had several children whose names will be found in the American Ancestry, as the daughters came to America. His youngest child and only son was probably William of Cobham, known as the one to whom the Greyhound Arms were granted in 1663."

3.
  - iii. WILLIAM CARPENTER, b. 1576, Wherwell, Hants, England; d. About Jan 1659/60, Weymouth, Norfolk Co., MA.
4.
  - iv. RICHARD CARPENTER, b. Unknown; d. Unknown.

Generation No. 2

2. JAMES<sup>2</sup> CARPENTER (WILLIAM<sup>1</sup>) was born Unknown, and died 1593<sup>l</sup>.

Notes for JAMES CARPENTER:

From A Genealogical History of the Rehoboth Branch of the Carpenter Family in America, also known as the "Carpenter Memorial," p. 34

"No. 9--1. James inherited the estate of his father."

Child of JAMES CARPENTER is:

5.
  - i. JAMES<sup>3</sup> CARPENTER, b. Unknown; d. 1599.

3. WILLIAM<sup>2</sup> CARPENTER (WILLIAM<sup>1</sup>) was born 1576 in Wherwell, Hants, England<sup>l</sup>, and died About Jan 1659/60 in Weymouth, Norfolk Co., MA. He married (1) MARY BATT 1595 in St. Edmunds, Salisbury, Wiltshire, England. She was born Unknown, and died Bef. Aug 1604. He married (2) ALICE ? About 1604 in Old Salisbury Parish, Wiltshire, England. She was born Unknown, and died Unknown.

Notes for WILLIAM CARPENTER:

From A Genealogical History of the Rehoboth Branch of the Carpenter Family in America, also known as the "Carpenter Memorial," p. 34:

"No. 9--3. William Carpenter, born in 1576, was a carpenter by trade and lived in the City of London. He rented certain tenements and gardens in Houndsditch in 1625 to him demised for 41 years with a covenant to build within five years, which tenements and gardens were heretofore conveyed to the city's use for the support of the Carpenter Free School by John Carpenter, Town Clerk of London.

This William, the progenitor of the Rehoboth family, came over in the ship "Bevis" with his son William, son's wife Abigail and their children. He was registered at Southampton, at the time of emigration as a carpenter by trade and as coming from Wherwell, but it is evident that he was a resident of London. It appears that all the family were Dissenters and consequently obliged to leave the City of London for a more quiet place. Alexander went to Leyden, and William, the son of William No. 8, went to Wherwell. There is no evidence that the father was there only as he went to join his son at the time of emigration."

-----
Per Savage's Genealogical Dictionary of New England Settlers, v. 1

CARPENTER, WILLIAM, Weymouth, came in the Bevis 1638, from Southampton, aged 62, a carpenter from Horwell, says the clearance at custom house with William, 33, probably his son and Abigail, wife of the latter, 32, and four grandchildren "of ten years old or less," not named in that document, was freeman 13 May 1640, representative 1641, and 1643, and died in the winter of 1659/1660. His will, of 10 December proved 7 February following names son John and his son but of this brother nothing is seen after; William, and his son John; Joseph, and his son Joseph; Abigail; Samuel; Hannah; and Abigail; and gives to son of John Titus, who had married testator's daughter, but I fear some incongruity of time will hardly be reconciled. (MY opinion is that the will mentioned here is actually his son William's will.)

-----
From Pope's The Pioneers of Massachusetts:

CARPENTER, WILLIAM, carpenter, came in the Bevis in May, 1638. Settled at Weymouth. With him came his son, William, William's wife Abigail and four of their children under 10 years of age. (They) settled at Rehoboth....."

(Balance of entry appears to be regarding William of Rehoboth)

Child of WILLIAM CARPENTER and ALICE ? is:

6. i. WILLIAM<sup>3</sup> CARPENTER, b. May 23, 1605, Wherwell, Hants, England; d. Feb 07, 1659/60, Rehoboth, Bristol Co., MA.

4. RICHARD<sup>2</sup> CARPENTER (WILLIAM<sup>1</sup>) was born Unknown, and died Unknown.

Notes for RICHARD CARPENTER:

From A Genealogical History of the Rehoboth Branch of the Carpenter Family in America, also known as the "Carpenter Memorial," p. 34:

No. 9--4. Richard Carpenter the fourth son of William was born about 15__; it is supposed that he went to Amesbury, where he is known to have property, in order to escape the religious persecution. He was the father of William Carpenter who came to America in 1636, and settled in Providence with Roger Williams and is known as the progenitor of the Providence branch. The record and genealogy of this family is in the hands of Daniel H. Carpenter, of Maplewood, N.J., who is a direct descendant of Joseph, who settled at Mosquito Cove, L.I., and was the son of William of Providence, R.I.

Child of RICHARD CARPENTER is:

7. i. WILLIAM<sup>3</sup> CARPENTER, b. Unknown; d. Sep 07, 1685, Providence, Providence Co., RI.

Generation No. 3

5. JAMES<sup>3</sup> CARPENTER (JAMES<sup>2</sup>, WILLIAM<sup>1</sup>) was born Unknown, and died 1599<sup>1</sup>.

Child of JAMES CARPENTER is:

i. THOMAS<sup>4</sup> CARPENTER, b. Unknown; d. 1653<sup>1</sup>.

6. WILLIAM<sup>3</sup> CARPENTER (WILLIAM<sup>2</sup>, WILLIAM<sup>1</sup>) was born May 23, 1605 in Wherwell, Hants, England, and died Feb 07, 1659/60 in Rehoboth, Bristol Co., MA. He married ABIGAIL BRIANT Apr 28, 1625 in Shalbourne Parish, Wiltshire, England, daughter of JOHN BRIANT and ALICE ?. She was born About May 27, 1604 in Shalbourne Parish, Wiltshire, England, and died Feb 22, 1686/87 in Rehoboth, Bristol Co., MA<sup>2</sup>.

Notes for WILLIAM CARPENTER:

Per Savage's Genealogical Dictionary of New England Settlers, v. 1

CARPENTER, WILLIAM, Rehoboth 1645, son of the preceding who he accompanied, brought wife Abigail, who died 22 February 1688, and four children, of whom we know three to be William, Joseph, and Samuel; had born in this land Hannah, 3 April 1640; Abraham, or Abiah, 9 April 1643; and John. After death of his father, I suppose he went back to Weymouth, where he had first resided.

(MY opinion is that the will listed for his father is actually his will.)

Notes for SARAH REDWAY:

Per Savage's Genealogical Dictionary of New England Settlers, v. 3

REDWAY, REDWEY, READAWAY, or REDDAWAY, JAMES, Rehoboth 1646, probably had John, perhaps more, as Sarah, who married 25 May 1660, Samuel Carpenter; and was buried 28 October 1676.

7. WILLIAM<sup>3</sup> CARPENTER (RICHARD<sup>2</sup>, WILLIAM<sup>1</sup>) was born Unknown, and died Sep 07, 1685 in Providence, Providence Co., RI<sup>13</sup>.

Notes for WILLIAM CARPENTER:

Per Savage's Genealogical Dictionary of New England Settlers, v. 1

CARPENTER, WILLIAM, Providence 1636, son of Richard of Amesbury, in Co. Wilts, where the estate to him descending from his father was by him, in a deed 4 December 1671, given to his sister Vincent of that borough, described as "a house in Frog lane in Amesbury, which did belong to her father Richard Carpenter" the grantor called himself son and heir of Richard Carpenter. Perhaps he was brother of that Thomas before mentioned. He married Elizabeth Arnold, probably daughter but perhaps sister of the first Benedict Arnold the Governor, had Joseph, Silas, Benjamin, William, Timothy, and Lydia; was an Assistant 1665, swore allegiance 1666, and died 7 September 1685. In his will of 1674 all the children are mentioned as living and William, son of Joseph. Lydia married Benjamin Smith.

Children of WILLIAM CARPENTER are:

Notes for BENJAMIN SMITH:

from SAVAGE, VOL 4 DICTIONARY OF THE FIRST SETTLERS OF NEW ENGLAND.

SMITH, BENJAMIN, Providence, came about 1660, one of the many, as to the cause of whose coming tradition is happy to repeat many foolish stories. Either he was a parliamentary man or a supporter of Cromwell, so that it was good for him to escape at the restoration "losing, the bulk of his estate" and as he was rather young, this probably was not much. However he married Lydia, daughter of William Carpenter of Pawtuxit, had Benjamin, born about 1661; Joseph; William; Simon; Lydia, who it is said, married a Fones; and Elizabeth who married 28 February 1699, Israel Arnold. He was an Assistant 1696, his wife died 1 October 1711, and he died 13 December 1713.

- ii. WILLIAM CARPENTER, b. Unknown; d. Oct 29, 1708<sup>15</sup>.

Notes for WILLIAM CARPENTER:

Per Savage's Genealogical Dictionary of New England Settlers, v. 1

CARPENTER, WILLIAM, Providence, son of the first William of the same, had Ephraim; Priscilla, who married 31 May 1670, William Vincent; and Susanna, who married 1682, Elisha Arnold; and he was drowned 29 October 1708.

More About WILLIAM CARPENTER:

Cause of Death: Drowned<sup>15</sup>

- iii. JOSEPH CARPENTER, b. Unknown; d. Unknown.

Notes for JOSEPH CARPENTER:

Per Savage's Genealogical Dictionary of New England Settlers, v. 1

CARPENTER, JOSEPH, Providence, son, perhaps eldest, of William the first of the same, removed to Long Island, had son William, as appears in the will of grandfather conveyed by adv. of his father in deed of 2 Sept. 1674, his estate at Providence to his uncle Stephen Arnold.

- iv. SILAS CARPENTER, b. Unknown; d. Unknown.

Notes for SILAS CARPENTER:

Per Savage's Genealogical Dictionary of New England Settlers, v. 1

CARPENTER, SILAS, Providence, probably son of William the first of the same, swore allegiance 1671.

- v. BENJAMIN CARPENTER, b. Unknown; d. Unknown.

Notes for BENJAMIN CARPENTER:

Per Savage's Genealogical Dictionary of New England Settlers, v. 1

CARPENTER, BENJAMIN, Providence, son of William of the same, swore allegiance May 1671. Perhaps he married Renew, daughter of William Weeks of Dorchester, but he was permanent resident at Rehoboth, had Jotham, born 1 June 1682, baptized 1 July 1683; John, baptized 21 June 1691; and Submit, 5 November 1693; all, I judge, at Dorchester, in right of their mother.

- vi. TIMOTHY CARPENTER, b. Unknown; d. Unknown.

Notes for TIMOTHY CARPENTER:

Per Savage's Genealogical Dictionary of New England Settlers, v. 1

CARPENTER, TIMOTHY, Providence, brother of Silas, swore allegiance at the same time.
