Deed Number One

p. 21

Appeared before me, Johannes Schenk, licensed Clerk of the Town of Midwoud, the worthy respective heirs of the late William Guiljamsz Cornel and Margareta Polhemus, who in our presence delare that they have come to agreement pursuant to the final will and testament aforesaid. We declare then also that we transport, cede and convey in full, free possession just as we do hereby transport and hereby cede, to Cornelis Willemsz Cornel, for him and his respective heirs and descendants forever, a certain piece of land, situate here in the Town of Midwoud, lying on the south side of Leffert Pietersz and on the north side of Adrian Ryersz and Marten Adriansz and on the west side of the highway, large and long according to the patent, with the apputenances thereof and all that is earth- and nail-fast: with further two lots of meadow situate in the Canarisingh, one adjoining Hendrick Vliet and Margrietje Cornel: with further two half-lots beyond the Varsche Kill common with Leffert Pietersz and Pieter Stryker, the half of each lot: and the flats, according to the patent thereof: and further the equity in the common woods according to the drawing held. This we, the undersigned, acknowledge that we transport, ceded, convey and make full surrender of all, and promise in presence of these witnesses never at any time to take action here against nor allow such to occur in law or without, and, if any one be found who will take appeal here against, that the same shall be void and of no validity. Done without deceit or trick. Executed

p. 23

Appeared before me, Johannes Schenk, licensed Clerk of the Town of Midwoud, the worthy respective heirs of William Guiljamsz Cornel and Margareta Polhemus, who in our presence delare that they have come to agreement pursuant to the final will and testament aforesaid. We, therefore, declare that we transport and cede hereby to Johannes Willemsz Cornel, for him and for his descendants forever, just as we do hereby transport and convey, a piece of land, situate at Oostwoud, to the east of Cornelis Wykhoff and to the west of Elsje Snediker, the width and length similar to its neighbors, being two lots: further one lot of meadow, common with Eever Jansz, to the east of the Church lot, to the west of Elsje Snediker: and another, common with Leffert Pietersz, east of Rem Remsz, west of Gerrit Stryker, a half lot in each, large and wide according to the patent thereof, situate between the Second and Third Kills: further two block-lots, situate between the School lot and Margrietje Cornel, one of them, and the other between Gerrit Stryker and Klaes Barentz,
