

Charles Foster I do hereby make my last will and testament in manner and forms following that is to say 1^o I desire that all my just debts be paid out of my passable estate, if it be necessary by an immediate sale of a small tract of land which will be sufficient for the purpose of a residence. 2^o after the payment of my debts and funeral expenses I give to my wife Polly Foster one third part of my estate both real and personal for and during her natural life and after her death I give the same to my children hereafter named to be enjoyed by them forever. 3^o I desire that the tract of land whereon I now live may be held and used exclusively by my three children Abraham, Luvenia and Martha whilst they think proper to remain on the same returning the one third part of my estate to me land for the benefit and support of my wife Polly Foster during her natural life with this understanding that my son Abraham shall have the same at the request of my wife Polly Foster among the three children Abraham and Martha sell and dispose of the aforesaid tract of land upon such time as they deem most convenient and divide the proceeds of said sale equally between my four children Abraham, Luvenia, Lucinda & Martha reserving the one third part of the proceeds of said sale for the benefit and use of my wife Polly Foster 4^o I give to my grandson John Abraham Tatum the negro woman Mary and her child Leah both now in the possession of Edward Tatum to my said Grandson John Abraham Foster to him and his heirs forever 5^o I give to my four children Abraham, Luvenia, Lucinda and Martha all the rest of my estate of what nature or kind soever with this condition tho' that my daughter Luvenia or her husband George C. Dodson shall account in said division for what I have already given them or advanced 6^o I hereby exceptly exclude from this my last will and testament all the children by my first wife having before given to them in consideration of what I deemed them justly entitled in consideration of their services to my friends Christopher Jones and others and my first wife's will and testament hereby made void and of no effect and nothing done made. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 20th day of December 1837
