Notes for John Courtright:

He and his brother, Abraham V Courtright were among the first pioneers of Fairfield County, Ohio. The following is extracted from the published work "History of Franklin and Pickaway Counties, Ohio"

John Courtright was a native of Pennsylvania, and emigrated with his family to Ohio in 1803 or 1804. They journeyed over the mountains and through the forests in a three horse wagon, bringing with them such articles of household necessity as they were able to convey. On their arrival he bought land near Royalton, Fairfield County and began the labor of making a home in the wilderness. Progress was necessarily slow at first, but year by year the clearing was enlarged and as prosperity followed, he added to his possessions, until he was the owner of some two thousand one hundred acres of land, the result of his own exertions, seconded by those of his sons, as they arrived at an age to assist in the smaller and larger duties of the farm.

Family history says that the family moved to Ohio in 1803 in two wagons, the five children and a cow. A comment was made, no one could remember the cow's name.<sup>4</sup>

The data presented for the will of John Courtright Senior was provided by Marvin Courtright, a Courtright descendant and transcribed by Charles A. McKinley from pages Book 5, 281 to pages 285 and from the Will envelope in Case 3747 file at the Fairfield County Courthouse in Lancaster, Ohio.

__DAR Lineage Book 136, Page 42.

John Jacob COURTRIGHT Jr. was born on 6 Jan 1805 in Bloom Township Fairfield County, Ohio and died in Fairfield County, Ohio on 16 Oct. 1878; he was 73. He was buried in the Lithopolis Cemetery. John was married three times during his life. His first wife was Margaret Crist, the second was Mary Sarber, and the third, Mariah Roberts. He had 13 children from his first two marriages, and from his offspring, a total of 64 known grandchildren.

John Jacob Courtright's lineage began in Fairfield County Ohio, when his Father, John Courtright Sr. (1779-1863) and his uncle Abraham Van Kampen Courtright (1787-1862) emigrated to Ohio about 1803 from North Hampton County in Pennsylvania. According to family history, they came in several wagons with their children, household possessions and a cow. They bought land in the Royalton area and cleared it to build homes and farms. It was in this area that young John Jacob, at the age of 16, bought his first piece of property, fifty acres from David and Sarah Wright on 1 May 1821 for the sum of five hundred dollars. By the time of his death he owned some 850 acres, which he deeded to his children.

The following is the will of John Courtright as found in Fairfield County Wills, Book 7, Pages 111-114, case 5457. This data was inscribed by a court reporter from a hard copy that couldn't be found in the package and is a true representation of the contents.

These Data were Transcribed by C. McKinley a Descendant and are separated by Dashes.

Calvin Whitfield Courtright was the sixth child of John Jacob Courtright and Maria Margaret Christy. He was born into a very large pioneering family who created Bloom Township in the late 18th Century. As a child, Calvin was surrounded by aunts and uncles and cousins who shared the name Courtright and lived, as he did, on farms in South Central Ohio. They were influential movers and shakers in their area who produced very large families. It appears that Calvin was the only child of John Jacob Courtright who received a college education.

Calvin married Sarah Albach while they were in college at Miami University. By the time he was 36 years old he had lost two mother's, six brothers and sisters and four of his own children. His life was dedicated to his wife, his family and the Presbyterian churches across the country in which he was pastor. According to his wife's diary family letters and newspaper articles of his time, he was an avid gardener and raised bumper crops of fruits and vegetables which he and his wife, Sarah, preserved. Calvin had played baseball for Princeton and developed a lifelong interest in sports.

He was ordained in Northern Ohio at the Deerfield Presbyterian Church in 1870. It appears that he then located the family in McConnelsville, Morgan County, OH, about 50 miles from his birthplace in Fairfield County. He served as a minister of several small Presbyterian Churches from 1867-75, traveling many miles to perform his duties. He was Superintendent of schools in McConnelsville 1875-73. The family lived in this area for twelve years; ten of his and Sarah's 15 children were born in or near McConnelsville and three died there. The oldest, Katherine and Stella, who helped to raise or bury all their siblings, went to college and became authors and social workers, active in birth control education and work with the poor.

According to an article in the Morgan County Democrat, 8/16/1923, Calvin and Sarah left the area in 1882, spending about two years in Chicago where Katherine and Stella opened a school. When Sarah's health began to deteriorate, they moved to Oregon. In Oregon, he tended to two churches and taught at a Presbyterian College in Albany, Oregon. After three years in Oregon, he returned to Chicago where his sons were in business. Due to his health, he was forced to retire from the ministry. In 1902 he and Sarah moved to Oakland, California, where they were enumerated in the 1910 Census with their unmarried daughter, Elizabeth Root. Gertrude, also unmarried, worked close by in a private hospital and probably lived with them. Calvin built a home on Ardmore Avenue where he planted fruit trees and raised vegetables and flowers. There, he and Sarah spent the rest of their lives. Calvin

John began his life as a farmer near Greencastle, and while living on the farm during the civil war he was called to Columbus to defend the country on the occasion of Morgan's Raid. He was released shortly after and returned home. In 1875, he left the farm and moved to Lithopolis Fairfield County, Ohio, where he entered the hardware business with George Weiser. He later became an undertaker and owned a furniture business and a boot and shoe business while retaining his share in the hardware store.

Courtright as of 1-12-2015

When his daughter, Amanda Almina (Minnie) married Luther Schultz on March 21 1883, and moved to Shanes Crossing (Now Rockford), Ohio, John sold his interest in the hardware and undertaking business to Mr. Weiser and followed his daughter and husband to Shanes Crossing where he again engaged in the hardware business. He was a good business man except in one respect--he extended credit to people whom he knew would never be able to pay the bill. Finally, having compelled to dispose of his store with very little left, he spent a few years as a traveling salesman. He then moved to Columbus and for a short time engaged in the grocery business there. He was an honest worker in the Methodist Church. He died in November of 1896 and is buried in Lithopolis with his wife and daughter Irene.

On 5 Oct 1858 when John Ezra was 21, he married Lorinda WILLIAMSON, Spouse of 1C4R, daughter of George W WILLIAMSON (15 Jun 1801-10 Dec 1889) & Elizabeth KEMP (18 Mar 1803-18 Jan 1889), in Fairfield County, Ohio.<sup>5</sup> Born on 28 Jun 1824 in Fairfield County, Ohio. Dr. Roller was quite the country gentleman doctor. He lived in a stone/brick house with a beautiful flower garden which is now a part of the Wagnalls Memorial in Lithopolis Fairfield County, Ohio. Doc's office and house was quite a throwback to the early times of the area. He always spoke to every one when he was out in the town. Most people said that he delivered most of the children in that area, and it is known that he signed a lot of the death certificates for the local people as well. He owned two beautiful Packards from the early 1950s, that were in mint condition. They were garaged and taken out weekly to be washed and driven. He always wore gloves when he drove. One of the cars belonged to his late wife that he kept until the early 1960s, when he traded them in on a Lincoln. In later years it was hard for him to get around and had been the victim of a robbery and later was confined to a wheelchair. He still went out side and tended to his garden and had a driver to take him around the countryside.

Courtright's as of 1-12-2015

Amanda Fairfield County, Ohio, in 1862, a representative of one of the oldest families in that County, his grandfather having settled there when the white men had scarcely ventured into the regions within its borders. It was in the year 1800 when the great-grandfather of our subject arrived from Pennsylvania and took up his abode in Clear Creek Township, Fairfield County. Ohio was yet under territorial government, its population being insufficient to secure its admission to the newly organized Union. His father, John L. Griffith, was also a native of the same locality and became a stock grower and dealer, well known as one of the heaviest stock dealers in Pickaway and Fairfield counties, his shipments exceeding those of any other individual in the business. He was an excellent judge of stock and was therefore enabled to make his purchases judiciously and to sell at good advantage. He was accidentally killed on one of his business trips near Steubenville, Ohio, 1872. His wife, who bore the maiden name of Samantha Custer, belonged to one branch of the Custer family that has furnished several prominent representatives to the nation. Her people came from Pennsylvania to Ohio and established their home amid pioneer surroundings in Bloom Township, Fairfield County. It was in that County that Mrs. Griffith was born, and her death occurred in 1869.<sup>48</sup>

Westfall resided on a homestead in Dodge County for a number of years, but in later life he and his wife removed to Dr. McKinley's home where they died. To the union of Dr. McKinley and Mrs. McKinley four children have been born, two girls and two boys, namely: Effie L., the wife of Walter Bernd, secretary of the Wholesalers Association of Omaha; Alfretta Susan, who is the wife of George N. Gibbs, an attorney at North Platte; Cloyde Edwin of York, who travels for Armour and Company; and Harold Courtright, who is completing his last year at the University of Nebraska and is a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity.

Dr. and Mrs. McKinley are members of the Congregational Church and take an active part in all the various activities connected with that organization. He is a member of the Democratic party and fraternally is a Mason and an Elk. For one year he has served the County as County health officer and has been County physician for three years. In connection with his professional duties, Dr. McKinley is a member of the County, State and American Medical Association and has held the office of president of the County association. In order to keep abreast with the strides ever being made in the medical world Dr. McKinley has taken three post-graduate courses at the medical College in Chicago and has also attended different clinics. Through out York County he is known as a physician and surgeon of much ability, and although his practice is mostly a general one he makes disease of children a specialty."

This letter was graciously provided by Mary Ann Eckhart a granddaughter of Dorsey and Myra McKinley. Uncle Doc made trips back to his Ohio roots and often visited various members of the families. Some times these trips were made during the Courtright and McKinley family reunions.

Kansas City, Missouri

October 8, 1936

Dear Dorsey and Myra,

Arrived in Kansas City last Saturday night at 12 45. Glad to get back, but, sorry to leave you all because I had a wonderful time all the time I was there, and especially at your place. I've been worried wondering about the dairy business, since I've not been there to deliver. I know that I'm going to be terribly missed on the delivery wagon, especially at the windup where we finish at the cafe. I'm sure to be missed all around the town, because I was so useful in the delivery service. The people along the route I know valued my services very much and will miss me. I think I could drive the route myself now without any trouble.

I certainly enjoyed the stay at your place more than any place on the whole route, because of everything that was so different to what my life had been from the time I went west, and I enjoyed it all because it was different. You and Myra went out of your way to be nice to me, and I'll certainly never forget your kindness. If I were to come back, I think I would have to suggest a change in the handling and management of the cross bull, because I don't like him and I'm afraid of him, but that can be arranged if and when I come. Tell Dorsey that I certainly appreciated his taking me down to Columbus and delivering me at George's place, where I stayed a couple of days and had a good time. I hope you have milking machines when I come back, because I don't like to hand milk. I hope you got the corn all in good and got good money out of it. You sure ought to make a nice bunch of money out of those shoats that you had ready for the market. I'll be glad when the election is over and Roosevelt safely installed in the White house again. Give all the youngsters my love and tell them I want to see them again.

Love to all from your old

Uncle Jerome

This interesting story about the family of Abner Courtright was graciously provided by Kenneth (Ken) Courtright, a grandson of the writer, Andrew J. Courtright. It depicts the late 1800s in the Bloom Township area of Fairfield County and the life in rural Tennessee during the same time period as well as the early 1900s. (These notes were transcribed years ago from an old wire recorder and editors notes are in parentheses)

Memories of A.J. Courtright Born 23 October 1870 in Fairfield County, Ohio

My Grandfather's family, John Courtright, came from Pennsylvania. He lived to be 73 years old. My grandmother Margaret lived to be 37. My father, Abner, died at the age 68. My mother's name was Mary Courtright, from Fairfield County. (The two were not directly related as they were second cousins). His first wife died young. Each had 80 acres of land (Current research data show that Abner had this amount and other wills are being researched to determine Mary's acreage from her family). We hauled corn to Winchestershire on the canal. We lived 18 miles from Columbus Franklin County, Ohio. The boat on the canal was pulled by two mules. Williamsport was on the canal and a large corn and flour mill was located here. My father went here to exchange corn for coal and fished out of the canal catching catfish weighing 3 to 4 lbs. The streams near home had pike and other fish.

Courtright's as of 1-12-2015

The farms sold for $125.00 an acre as they had a two story brick home on the 160 acres. Part of the land had valuable timber.

Abner Courtright was a successful farmer growing oats, corn and timothy hay.

My father made me a gun which I used for many years. He fed out 300 head of hogs marketing his corn this way rather than selling it at 12 1/2 cents a bushel. He would buy stocker hogs for 2 1/2 cents per lb. Receiving 3 1/2 cents per lbs. When sold. We used wood and coal for fuel. Coal at this time sold for $4.00 per ton.

When I was 12 my father, mother, and 7 children moved to Tenn. Where my father purchased 1340 acres of virgin timber land for $2,500.00. We shipped a car load of furniture, tools, seed, supplies from Ohio to Tenn. for $40.00. This land was unfenced as the original rail fence was burned by Buel's army 'Yankees' who camped for two weeks on this place. I helped to cut timber and split rails at $13.00 per month. My father was postmaster at Abner, Tenn.(Now Named Deerfield), named for Abner Courtright, near Waynesborough, Tenn., Wayne County. We lived on the Pike between Waynesborough and Clinton, Tenn. I went to school at Fairfield.

I was married to Ada Octavene Chambers on 20 March 1892, daughter of Robert and Louise (called Lou) Chambers.

I bought a small farm, cut the timber off and had it sawed at a mill that charged a part of the timber. I built a 14 X 16 ft. room for between two or three dollars. This was for the nails. This was after I had worked for seven years for a lumber man at $1.00 a day. This was a day of cheap living: eggs were 5 to 10 cents a dozen, corn 12 1/2 cents a bushel, 52 cents shelled, wheat 50 cents a bushel, pork was 2 to 6 cents a lb., coffee was 12 1/2 cents a lb. Of the many good things I remember about Tenn., was the good hunting and fishing: deer, turkey, coon, etc. On a hunt one time the dogs treed a coon beside a creek. I cut the tree down and it fell across the water, coon and all. I held back the older, well trained dog so a young dog could get the experience of the kill which he was unable to do as the coon was more at home in the water. Finally the dog realized this and pulled the coon ashore and made short work of killing it. I had a turkey call made from a hollow bone out of a turkey wing which could be used in calling a turkey up to the place where I would hide. I would go out early and hide in the vicinity of a turkey roost and watch for a time strutting in some opening. I would then call like a turkey hen, never moving. If you batted and eye the old tom would become suspicious and be gone: one especially large and wise old tom weighing 46 lbs. was a challenge to any hunter. I finally took him by calling lower and lower. He, thinking his possible mate was leaving, came within shooting range. I was using the fine gun my father made and gave me. We had wild game to eat most any time. The deer were plentiful but the old big bucks were wise and shy and used their quick sight and super sense of smell. There was a large buck in our vicinity who had been shot by a stingy hunter who was so saving he did not use near enough charge: guns in those days were charged from the powder horn and shot pack and firing caps. Smaller shot was used for squirrels, quail, and small game. Evidently the game load was used to shoot the buck. This made him very shy. However, with the help of my deer do and favorite rifle I finally took him. He was a large buck with a long set of horns.

There was lots of timber which land owners sold to timber companies for $100.00 per acre.

I worked for and operator, a Mr. Garrett, for 7 years. I worked first, cutting timber one year, later ran the saw mill and firing the boiler for 3 years and received $1.00. I made more than a good living. When we started at a new place, we would saw and build houses for us to live in, 16 X 28, these places would belong to the land owner when operations were finished. We made 16 ft. boxing planks, etc., cross ties and long bridge timbers 16 in. by 16 in., 44 ft. long for railroads. 8 ft. lumber was $9.00 per 1000 ft.

One widow, Aunt Polly Duckworth, had a lot of hogs that strayed off on Straight Fork Branch. She engaged brother Linnie and me to get them. We took our hog dogs and went hog hunting. When we had killed four I went for the hack and old mule Pete. I unhitched one mule from the hack and went into the woods and dragged them out to the hack. By this time brother had killed three more: loading all seven we went to Aunt Polly's house and dressed them, getting half the meat for our part.

One of my father's brothers got me to help him, he had a fertile field of corn, due to the spring overflow. He got the corn planted so late that frost came before it was fully matured. He went to market and purchased a large number of hogs and put them in this field to gather the corn. When they were fat he butchered them and sent me to town with a wagon load of hogsheads, ribs and backbones which sold for 2 cents a pound. We would sell hogsheads for $1.00 each.

I owned a small farm on little Buffalo Creek (which ran into the big Buffalo, then into the Tenn. River) seven miles from Henryville. We lived 18 miles from Lawrenceburg. There was a dam and factory four miles from us on the little Buffalo making thread, using water for power. We lived on the road between Clinton and Columbia Tenn. There were two nearby communities with Deerfield school 2 1/2 miles away.

Pleasant Grove Church and cemetery was where my father and mother were buried, (Pleasant Grove Cemetery is located off Summertown Road, not far from the Buffalo River in Lawrence County and is one of the largest in the area. Perhaps there are 10 Courtright buried there) I had one brother Linnie (Abner Leonard) and sisters Katy Rob, Elvie (Elvina), Maggie (Margaret) Cheatman (Chapman), Ermie (Emma) McCool, Jessie Johlen and she lived near Houston at St. Joe.

Our social was country Church, school, and Christmas celebrations, 4th of July picnics, sack races and greasy pole climbing.

We moved to Brown County, Texas, in 1904, settled at Clio, between Brownwood and May. I worked at the Clio gin and later farmed nearby. We moved to May in 1923, where I hauled freight, by truck, from Brownwood to May.

Stella Courtright Stimson was born September 15, 1862 to Sarah and Calvin W. Courtright in Oxford, Ohio where her parents attended college. Stella was the first child of 15 and before she was fifteen years old, she saw four of her siblings die from disease and accident. She was especially close to her sister, Kitty, and throughout their lives the two were more guardians than sisters to their surviving siblings. The girls helped to raise all the children who came after them; Stella delayed her college education at Wellesley in Philadelphia to help out at home. Still, she attended Wellesley from 1882-84 and taught there as well. She taught in McConnellsville, Ohio, where her family lived; there she met and married Charles Miller Davis in 1886. She lived with him and their son, Miller, in Wichita, Kansas and in Colorado. A second child, Dorothy, died in 1892 when her brother was five. Her birthdate is unknown at this writing but the following year, Charles Miller Davis died as well and these losses left their mark on Stella for the rest of her life.

Stella went for a time to Chicago, where she and her sister ran their own school for primary through high school aged children but in 1894 she took a position teaching Latin at Coates College in Terre Haute, Indiana, where she met and married Judge Samuel Cary Stimson in September, 1897. Two months later she saved the life of a window-display artist who caught fire as the largest store in Terre Haute burned to the ground, the worst fire disaster in the history of Terre Haute. She wrapped him in her coat as her 11-year-old son looked on in terror.

This life-saving instinct in Stella was second nature. Having seen what she had seen in her young life, she had a great desire to break the cycle of poverty, pregnancy and abuse suffered by so many American women and children. After the births of her two children, Stuart Courtright and Margaret Elizabeth, Stella became "a potent force in the Legislative Council of Indiana Women". (Terre Haute Tribune, 3/7/99) In 1912 she organized an effort with a few other women to watch the polls in a hotly contested Mayoralty election where they recorded so many people voting twice that the Mayor of Terre Haute was recalled (Chicago Daily News, 11/27/57)

Stella was President of the Florence Crittenton Board in 1912 and wrote an influential article outlining a project that made sex education "available through parent-teacher clubs and social centers of the schools, YMCA and YWCA at Indiana State Normal School." Stella was a National Treasurer of the Women's Christian Temperance Union and a member of the Indiana League of Women Voters. Her daughter, Margaret Huddlestun of Indianapolis said about her that her "Mother was always busy at something," and that something had usually to do with educating and improving the lives of poor women and children. She was a charter member of the Woman's Press Club of Indiana in 1913, a leader of the first Boys Club and the head of the first business girl's club. She taught the boys' class at the Washington Avenue Presbyterian Church for years. She was the first woman to be elected to the Terre Haute Board of School Trustees.

Stella Courtright Stimson died July 28, 1964 at the age of 101, having traveled to the West Coast twice and to Europe at least once. She was skilled in Latin and Greek and taught her daughter, Margaret, both languages at home. Like her father and her sister, Kitty, Stella was an avid gardener; she worked her own sizable garden herself until she was quite old. She was one of a small army of American women who, by her own sheer determination, shaped the lives of women who came after her.

Katherine Louise Courtright was born November 11, 1863 in Brookville, Indiana. When Kittie was two years old, the family moved to Princeton, New Jersey, where her father was a student at Princeton Theological Seminary. Kittie was very close to her sister, Mary Estella, who was one year older and taught Kittie to read and write by the age of three. The day after Kittie's second birthday, a baby brother, John Calvin, was born. He took ill with diphtheria when he was seven months old and, in spite of Calvin and Sarah's frantic efforts to save him, died a month and a half later. It was the first of four tragic childhood deaths for Kittie and her family. The family was deeply religious, holding family devotionals daily and living under the watchful eye of God.

Following his graduation from Princeton, Calvin moved his little family of three back to Ohio where he became a Presbyterian preacher and the superintendent of the McConnelsville schools. By 1877, when Kittie started high school, she and her older sister, Stella, had five younger brothers and sisters. The home must have been a little day care center. Her mother had been pregnant nearly every year of Kittie's life. She had four more children before Kittie was twenty-three and out on her own, a total of fifteen births in 24 years. Her brothers and sisters continued to be a part of her life and work as she grew older.

Kittie graduated from McConnelsville High School in 1881 and began a remarkable career of employment. For the next 17 years she worked as; tobacco stripper, school teacher, writer, secretary, boarding house manager, elementary school founder and director. At the same time she attended several schools, including Wellesley Preparatory School in Philadelphia, eventually getting her Ohio teaching certificate.

In 1896, Kittie went to Knox College in Galesburg Knox County, Illinois to become Dean of Women of Knox College. Her personal accomplishments were recognized in that year's Harper's Bazaar, where she was named a Leader in the Higher Education of Women; "Miss Katherine L. Courtright, dean of women of Knox College, presents attractive suggestions to those interested in the woman movement. Miss Courtright is a very young woman to hold the position she does, but in addition to that she is also a young very young woman who has received no 'higher education' as it is furnished in schools. A college dean with not degree, no alma mater even, is a rarity worth comment , and when that dean is a teacher with an enviable record and a director of fine methods, there is something to be said to the women who lament that so many doors are closed to them because of their lack of college training. In an interim between two principalships Miss Courtright also made herself a business record second to few held by young women"

Katherine married Will Simonds, a professor of English Literature at Knox College and together they had three daughters, Marjorie, Katherine and Eleanor. Their home became a well beloved gathering place at the college. When the girls were old enough to go to school, their mother became a lecturer around the U.S. on the subjects of health, nutrition and jobs for women. She was a probation officer, often bringing her parolees into her home to work. Kittie went to Simmons College in Boston too. She established jog-training programs for poor women and started a day nursery for their children. At the same time, she continued to write and occasionally publish stories about the plight of poor women and children.

At the time of her death in 1954, pioneering educator and social worker, Katherine Courtright Simonds was the grandmother of five and great grandmother of four children.

Will Simonds was the author of several texts on English literature and one on the History of American Literature for Houghten Mifflin. He edited several books and was acquainted with many American poets and authors of his time. In the summer of 1914 he was to have taken his wife and three daughters to Europe for a sabbatical year, but the First World War intervened. Will accepted a teaching position at Harvard and the family stayed in Boston for a year. His daughters attend Boston Latin School, where Will gave the graduation address.

Upon returning to Galesburg, his daughters finished high school and graduated from Knox College. His wife, Katherine, kept up a busy lecturing schedule around the Mid-West and the East; Will became acting President of College for a year and continued to teach and travel until his retirement in 1930. He and Katherine traveled to Italy, France, and Switzerland and rented a home in Winter Park, Florida for many years. The rest of the year was spent in Ithaca, New York with daughter, Eleanor, who was in the office of financial dean of Cornell. There, he died after a long bout with heart disease in June of 1947.

Page 481,482--This is an age of specialization in which the individual does not attempt to master an entire field of scientific knowledge and investigation but after acquiring familiarity with the basic principles devotes his attention to one special line and therein gains proficiency that he could hope to attain otherwise. This course has been followed by Dr. T.T. Courtright who in his practice, is making the speciality of the diseases of women and children. A native of Fairfield County, Ohio, he was born March 16, 1860, and is a son of John E. and Lorinda (Williamson), also natives of this state. The father was born in Fairfield County, and was the son of Jacob Courtright, who came from the eastern states in pioneer times and cast in his lot, with the early representatives of farming interests in Fairfield County. There John E. Courtright followed the occupation of farming and passed away in 1896 at the age of fifty-six years.

Dr. Courtright was a pupil in the public schools of Lithopolis and also attended the State University from 1879 until 1882. While pursuing his collegiate course he had the intention of one day becoming a member of the medical Profession and with his end in view, he enrolled as a student in the Starling Medical College from which he was graduated in 1884. He then began practice in Basil, Fairfield County, where he continued for five years when he removed to Lincoln County where he continued in active practice for eleven years. Since 1900 he has been a member of the medical fraternity at Columbus and prior to his removal here, he pursued a Post Graduate course in the Chicago Polyclinic, preparing for his specialty, which is obstetrics and the diseases of women and children. He is now lecturing, or obstetrics in Mercy Hospital and in his chosen department of medical practice he has won success: becoming largely accepted as authority by his associates in the medical fraternity here.

In 1895 Dr. Courtright was married to Miss Minnie F Bunker, a native of New England, and they have one son Ivan S., born November 5 1886. They are well known socially and have gained many friends during their period of residence in the capital city. Dr. Courtright is a valued member of the Knights of Pythias fraternity and the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, while along his professional lines his membership extends to the Columbus Academy of Medicine, the Ohio State Medical Society and the American Medical Association. He is actuated in all that he does by a spirit of helpfulness and his professional labors are prompted no less by a laudable desire for financial success and a love of scientific investigation than by broad humanitarian principles.<sup>72</sup>

On 15 Jun 1885 when Theodore Eugene was 25, he married Minnie Frances BUNKER, Spouse of 2C3R, daughter of Cyrus T BUNKER (14 Nov 1814-17 Jun 1883) & Abigail Bartlett CASS (26 Apr 1824-27 Sep 1913), in Pickaway County, Ohio. Buried on 28 Jun 1928 in Greenlawn Cemetery Columbus Franklin County, Ohio. IR:66199, buried on Lot 172, Section 68.

Thurman was the Prosecuting Attorney (County Attorney) for Fairfield County, Ohio, and was a leading member of the Lancaster Bar. He was a native of Fairfield County. He was one of seven children born to his parents who were farming people both born in Fairfield count.

He was educated in the public schools and after graduating high school he entered upon the study of Law at the office of Judge John G Reeves. Later Thurman attended Ohio State University and was admitted to the bar in 1900. After gaining admittance to the bar, he taught school for a year before taking up his chosen profession at Lancaster Fairfield County, Ohio. There are certain elevated and responsible offices in the legal field that ambitious lawyers desire to fill, but few attain the dignity of prosecuting attorney in such short time as did Thurman, his election to that office taking place in 1908 and he assumed his duties in January of 1909. He proved to be a very respectable attorney and was popular with the people of Fairfield County. He was a leading factor in Democratic politics in his area. He was a member of the Masonic Lodge and the Knights of Pythias, belonged to the Royal Arch Chapter of the former, and was captain of the uniform of the latter.<sup>74</sup>

Barton Griffith, whose name is on the roster of leading and successful attorneys of the Columbus bar, was born near Amanda Fairfield County, Ohio, in 1862, a representative of one of the oldest families in that County, his grandfather having settled there when the white men had scarcely ventured into the regions within its borders. It was in the year 1800 when the great-grandfather of our subject arrived from Pennsylvania and took up his abode in Clear Creek Township, Fairfield County. Ohio was yet under territorial government, its population being insufficient to secure its admission to the newly organized Union. His father, John L. Griffith, was also a native of the same locality and became a stock grower and dealer, well known as one of the heaviest stock dealers in Pickaway and Fairfield counties, his shipments exceeding those of any other individual in the business. He was an excellent judge of stock and was therefore enabled to make his purchases judiciously and to sell at good advantage. He was accidentally killed on one of his business trips near Steubenville, Ohio, 1872. His wife, who bore the maiden name of Samantha Custer, belonged to one branch of the Custer family that has furnished several prominent representatives to the nation. Her people came from Pennsylvania to Ohio and established their home amid pioneer surroundings in Bloom Township, Fairfield County. It was in that County that Mrs.. Griffith was born, and her death occurred in 1869.

Barton Griffith was reared on the old homestead farm but after his father's death he was taken to a farm near Lancaster, Fairfield County, living with an uncle, with whom he remained until he reached the age of eighteen years. He was educated in the district schools, after which he engaged in teaching school for two years, or until twenty years of age. Desiring, however, to extend his own knowledge, he matriculated in the Ohio Wesleyan University at Delaware, where he pursued his studies for four years. With broad literary knowledge to serve as the foundation upon which to rear the superstructure of professional learning, he began preparation for the bar, reading law in the office of General J. S. Jones, at Delaware, Ohio. In 1887 he was admitted to the bar and the following year came to Columbus. He has been attorney for the Columbus Savings & Trust Company for nine-

Attended Pleasant Ridge school as a child where his sister Effie taught. Dorsey often held family social events at his farm. Many of his nephews and nieces often took their children there over the years. Recent family stories has revealed the name of his dairy, it was called the "Elm Lane Dairy", in fact, some of his grandchildren often worked the summers helping delivering his milk. It was also reported that Dorsey regularly listened to Abie's Irish Rose as he was proud of his Irish heritage. In gathering data on Dorse and his wife Elmira, it was discovered that he was strong family man not only in his own household, but also with his siblings. He often helped them in time of spiritual, emotional and financial need.

Courtrights as of 1-12-2015

Dorce Oliver McKinley, 67, a widely known and well respected resident of this vicinity, died at his home here Friday morning, three days after he had suffered what was first thought to be a slight stroke of apoplexy. Mr.. McKinley had been in failing health for the past year, but had not been confined to his home prior to his recent sickness.

Deceased was born in Franklin County; March 19, 1880 and spent his childhood days there. On May 20th, 1903;he was married to Elmira Spangler, of North Madison, Illinois. Kansas City, Missouri

October 8, 1936

Dear Dorsey and Myra,

Arrived in Kansas City last Saturday night at 12 45. Glad to get back, but sorry to leave you all because I had a wonderful time all the time I was there, and especially at your place. I've been worried wondering about the dairy business, since I've not been there to deliver. I know that I'm going to be terribly missed on the delivery wagon, especially at the windup where we finish at the cafe. I'm sure to be missed all around the town, because I was so useful in the delivery service. The people along the route I know valued my services very much and will miss me. I think I could drive the route myself now without any trouble.

I certainly enjoyed the stay at your place more than any place on the whole route, because of everything that was so different to what my life had been from the time I went west, and I enjoyed it all because it was different. You and Myra went out of your way to be nice to me, and I'll certainly never forget your kindness. If I were to come back, I think I would have to suggest a change in the handling and management of the cross bull, because I don't like him and I'm afraid of him, but that can be arranged if and when I come. Tell Dorsey that I certainly appreciated his taking me down to Columbus and delivering me at George's place, where I stayed a couple of days and had a good time. I hope you have milking machines when I come back, because I don't like to hand milk. I hope you got the corn all in good and got good money out of it. You sure ought to make a nice bunch of money out of those shoats that you had ready for the market. I'll be glad when the election is over and Roosevelt safely installed in the White house again. Give all the youngsters my love and tell them I want to see them again.

Love to all from your old

all come back when you are lonely, all the things you've ever done your life from a child on it sure makes your memory come to life. Also you think how much better off the world would be without you for you are so terrible lonely. Not self pity after you've lost the one you love better than life when you are alone in years then you are lonely no one only who experienced it can understand. Work or go among others often as possible is the only thing can help or keep you sane. Suicide is in your mind more often than any one can guess for you feel so useless in this world. But you go on push ugly thoughts' away as long as you are sane. But no one knows how loneliness can drive you insane. Its easier on young for they have a future. Older persons have none.

Edward Leroy was known to friends and family as Roy. He spent a winter in Leigh Colfax County, Nebraska working in his Uncle Joseph Franklin McKinley's Drug store after he went to study to be a doctor under the tutelage of his uncle Jerome Courtright Mckinley and decided that was not to be his choice of a profession. It was during these times that he met grandma McKinley and later married her. These data are related by Joseph Franklins Daughter, Ellen Eileen Patrick in a letter to Ginny McKinley in April of 1982 and in a family dinner with members of her family. She mentions that she has pictures of Roy and Grandma Ursula with 2 small children. Pictures will be scanned and added at a later date if possible. Family hearsay says that he also like to cook as he worked in various restuarants during the depressdion. He was quite the man when it came to his painting business. It has been rumored that on several occasions, he took customers to the wallpaper/painting stores for the customer to pick colors, etc, and on a few occasions, he left through another door to head to a tavern. On the day of his death, some grandchildren were staying at his house and was in bed when he passed. The children's mother Mary was in the hospital after the Mary Ursula was a descendant of a wealthy family and liked the cultural things in life such as music. Her father owned a store in Indiana and later moved to Nebraska when Mary Ursula was 7 years old. She never was thrilled about cooking or cleaning and liked the cultural things in life such as movies, music, and museums. She often took her children on train rides going to Oldenburg Indiana, her home town as well as out to Nebraska where she had lived. This kind o lead her down the path to activities in later life as she often took her grandchildren on outings to band concerts and movies in the Columbus, area. This was probably due to the fact that her father was also a Bandmaster in Nebraska. She would play cards at family functions, and neighborhood family taverns, and other social functions in the Senior center where she lived at a drop of a hat. Many grandchildren relate that she always enjoyed beer with an egg in it a s she often took her grandchildren tho thewse places in spite of their parents requests to not too.. This was probably due to the fact that she wasn't a very good cook and needed the protein. (Tongue in Cheek Comment) Her cooking talents were terrible and often mixed several thingws together and made jello in a small glass container that ofeten was like the candy named JuJuBee. She worked at a commercial laundry as a seamstress. During the time that she lived in a Seniors Center, some of the children always took her back qand forth, sometimes when they had did her laundry, and she wanted to go home on the bus or trolley, she would put several dresses on to not have to carry them. There are a myriad of other inteesting things that can be shared by her grandchildren, about her cooking habits as well as other things and will be added in the future.

Katherine Simonds was born September 13, 1900, the second child of Will and Katherine Simonds. She was educated in Galesburg, graduating from Knox College in 1921. From an early age, Katherine wanted to write, her first job was writing a column for the local newspaper when she was in high school. Out of college, she became a journalist, writing copy for the Northern Pacific Railway about the Old West. She became a tour guide for the railway taking several groups of young women to dude ranches and once, to Mt. Rainier, which she climbed to the top. Katherine developed a love of the outdoors, horseback riding and hiking while working in the West that lasted her whole life.

She met and married Roy Wensberg while they were both working for the N P in Chicago. Roy became a vice president of Bozell & Jacobs Advertising Agency in Omaha, for whom he worked for many years and in many cities. After they were married, she gave up working to raise a family of three children, Peter, Erik, and Eleanor. But she was a cut of her mother's cloth and Katherine became a volunteer for the Omaha Red Cross in World War II. It was the first of many, many organizations that she devoted energy to, including The Girl Scouts, The Boy Scouts, The Audubon Society, The Little School and Eastshore Unitarian Church.

It was the Church to which she gave most time and effort. She wrote curriculum for their Children's Religious Education Division, much of which was used in many churches across the country. Beacon Press published her two books, The Tuckers, Growing to Know Themselves and Experiences With Living Things. In 1975 she was awarded an honorary doctorate degree from Starr King Theological School in Oakland, Ca, a Unitarian/Universalist College.

Katherine and Roy bought a home in the woods on Mercer Island and helped found the Eastshore Unitarian Church and The Little School, both of Bellevue, Washington. The library at Eastshore Church is named for them. They built their last home in Seattle, above Leschi Park and Katherine became known as "The Cookie Lady" in her largely black neighborhood. She guaranteed every child in the neighborhood (and many of their friends from others, as well) one cookie a day at her door and established a free story hour and art class once a month for the children.

After Roy's death in 1976, Katherine continued to live in the home that they had built in Seattle, edited the Audubon Newsletter and continued to work for better race relations. In the 1980's she moved back to Mercer Island and met Dr. Bill Curtis. After a lengthy illness from which she nearly died, she married Dr. Curtis in 1989 in a ceremony that caught the imagination of many Seattle newspaper readers. They lived contentedly together for another year and she died in a Kirkland nursing home in 1990. She was the mother of three, grandmother of seven, great grandmother of one at the time of her death.

On 18 Dec 1926 when Katherine was 26, she first married Royal Harrington WENSBERG<sup>33</sup>, Spouse of 3C2R, son of Jens C WENSBERG (5 Sep 1869-12 Sep 1946) & Bardina Sophia HARTZ (12 Sep 1873-23 Oct 1973), in Chicago Cook County, Illinois. Born on 17 Mar 1901 in Logan County, North Dakota. Royal Harrington died in Seattle, Washington, on 18 Apr 1976; he was 75.

A product of pioneer stock from San Francisco, he came to New York and within five years had made 800 recordings on many labels from RCA Victor to Brunswick and Columbia, among others. His early career was marked by performances in oratorio and concert (Handel, Verdi, Wagner) from Carnegie Hall, to the New York Philharmonic and concert halls across the country, and he later also performed on Broadway. He was a founding member of the Revelers and had previously performed with other groups including the Shannon Four, the Singing Sophomores and the Merrymakers, among others. His performances in the primacy of radio made him into a national figure and later, when the Revelers made multiple tours of Europe, into an international star.

Maywood worked during his elementary and high school years for his father at both the elevator in Cecil and at the Rackett store. The trip back and forth to Cecil, six miles, was made by train, by bicycle, and in a one cylinder, two seated, no windshield car his father owned. At the age of 12 he began to study the violin and started to play in orchestras. He became interested in music and taught himself to play the piano, the guitar, and the mandolin. After graduating from high school in 1916, he took his fathers suggestion to enter a school for Electrical technicians conducted by the General Electric Company at their Ft. Wayne plant about 30 miles east of Paulding. At this time the United States was engaged in Word War I and he attempted to enlist twice, but was rejected both times for being underweight. He was 6'2" tall and weighed 130 pounds. Near the end of the war he was drafted but was rejected for the same reason.

After completing his three year course, he took a position in the GE office for one year. Then in 1920 he went to the University of Michigan Engineering School, where he was elected to Tau Beta Pi, a national honorary engineering fraternity, in his junior year. After graduating in 1923 he returned to Ft. Wayne to a position in the apparatus engineering department.

While at the University, he had filled out an application for teaching simply because he had been with a friend who was doing that. In February of 1924 he received a telegram offering him a position as mechanical drawing teacher in Muskegon Heights, Michigan, at a salary of $1800 a year. He accepted for two reasons: The GE company was in a slump, and the summer vacations offered time for travel. He spent the next three summers traveling around the United States, Canada, and Europe, learning to speak French in the process. While in his travels, he met his wife-to-be who was French-Canadian.

Then the great Depression hit; he was paid in script and was forced to do odd jobs to obtain cash. In 1932 he became instrumental music director for the Muskegon Heights Schools. About this time he also became assistant director for the West Shore Sumphony and played the oboe. Starting in 1945, Maywood and Yvette designed, and built much of the work done by themselves, several homes and apartments, living in them for a time, then moving into the next one. Maywood resigned from his teaching position in 1963 and for several years they spent their summers in their home in Trois Pistoles, Quebec, Canada, and on the St. Lawrence River, and their winters living in their traveling trailer home. They also traveled and lived in several foreign countries. Finally , they bought a permanent mobile in Santa Cruz, California and settled down.

On 1 Sep 1927 when Albert Maywood was 29, he married Yvette COTE<sup>2,101,33</sup>, Spouse of 3C2R in Muskegon, Michigan.<sup>2</sup> Born on 4 Feb 1900 in Probably Trois Pistoles Quebec, Canada. Yvette died in Pouslbo, Washington, on 16 Oct 1989; she was 89. DC: C-027344.

Yvette had many interests, one in particular, in that she had some interest in Politics being elected Mayor of Muskegon Heights in 1958, winning by a majority of 6 votes. Her name is on the bronze plaque in the lobby of the Muskegon County courthouse.

Obituaries

Herman Wilson Reid, son of Sarah Esther Wilson, and Francis Marion Reid was born in Harrison-twp, Pickaway – co, July 15, 1887, and departed this life at University Hospital, Columbus, Oh., Sept. 15, 1928, aged 41 years and two months. Deceased lived all of his life in Harrison-twp coming to Ashville at the time of his marriage. On March 15, 1912, he was united in marriage to Miss Lulu Griffith of Ashville, by the Rev. G.J. Troutman of Circleville. To this union were born three children, two of which survive, one dying at birth, They are Elizabeth Waneta, aged 12 and Frances Pearl, aged 8. He also leaves to mourn his loss besides his loving parents, wife and four children, four brothers, Herbert Andrew of Columbus; Russell Elroy of Harrison-twp; Charles Emmett and Carl Emerson Reid of Ashville. Another brother only lived 16 days. At 16 years of age he was converted and joined the Ashville United Brethren Church under the pastorate of Rev. Mr. Rowe. Five years later he was elected to the superintendency of the same Church Sunday school. In this capacity he has serviced ever since, starting this year on his 20th year. For a number of years he had served as president of the Harrison-twp Sunday school association. He loved his Church and his Christ and gave himself without reservation to the work of the Kingdom. He was a great Christian, nobleman with an experience surpassed by none and equaled by only a few. The pastor of the Church always found in him a worker, who had the Church on his heart and one who counted no task too difficult if it advance the Kingdom of God. The pastors of Southeast Ohio Conference, or perhaps no other layman knew them, being delegate from his Church to the annual conference for the last twenty years, with the exception of one or two years. He loved to talk about his Church or his Christ to all who would listen. He had the respect and esteem of all who knew him, serving his community and fellowmen to the best of his ability. He served several terms on the Ashville council as well as a number of years the clerk of Harrison-twp. The last nine years he was employed by the F and R Lazarus store at Columbus, before that being employed by the Mack Parret Clothing store of Circleville. Socially he was a member of the local independent Order of Odd Fellows. In his last sickness he remained cheerful and optimistic to the end, Even when it was evident. He would not get well, he fought to the very last, the ravages of the disease. He was not afraid to go, but wanted to stay so that he could again work for his Church and his master.

They had the following children:

Janet Lineberger Partridge Janet Lineberger Partridge, widow of the late Gryffyd Partridge, passed away on June 15, 2009, after a brief bout with pneumonia, her daughter Loren Partridge at her side. Janet was the daughter of the late Congressman Walter and Florence Lineberger of Long Beach and Montecito, California. She graduated from Santa Barbara Girls School and Vassar College, class of 1939. She attended Mills College, where she met her husband Gryffyd, the son of etcher and Mills art teacher Roi Partridge and Imogen Cunningham, renowned photographer. Janet and Gryff Partridge spent a wonderful, loving 58 married years together, much of it in a handsome contemporary house in Mill Valley, designed by Don Emmons, an old friend, where they entertained friends and raised their children. Born and raised in Long Beach, Janet was a true California Beach girl, with a passion for the water and swimming, which she passed on to her children. With her encouragement, her son Rym began surfing at 13, and over the years he evolved into an accomplished big and small wave surfer, of which Janet was always very proud. Janet will always be remembered by her friends, both old and new, as a woman with much lively energy and enthusiasm, quick wit, broad interest, kind understanding and an infectious smile. She has

John attended Rosary High School in Columbus Franklin County, Ohio, but didn't finish due to the Depression. His hobbies included playing the piano in family members homes and at local family taverns with his family in attendance. His talent was in playing music by ear, as he could not read music. In addition, there are family rumors that indicate he played the organ and sang Vespers at some Churches. He often told stories and used riddles and rhymes with the children. In his youth it has been mentioned that he set pins in a bowling alley of his later brother-in-laws bowling alley and tavern of whom he was the best man at their wedding. His occupation was in Interior Decorating as a result of his fathers insistence and he was also a short and long haul Truck Driver. On one occasion two of his sons went with him to pick up his load; he backed his truck into the terminal, hooked up to the trailer and then went inside to get the bills of lading. When he came out, he started up and began to move the trailer. When he got straightened up, and pulled forward the trailer fell off the fifth wheel and creashed to the ground. The sons were laughing really hard, and he really got upset and smoked their buns. He was later able to get things together, dropped the boys off at home and went on his trip. Many times during the war, he was able to get goodies like candy, chocolates and other rationed items for the family. He loved to decorate the Christmas tree and usually only got the tree the day before and spent the evening putting it together with the help of others. Later in life, he contracted nephritis and was unable to work full time, and most of his children pitched in to help the family, by doing various jobs. He turned down some offers from the doctors to try different approaches in the care of his disease.

In his early and late years John had many cars and trucks that he used in his business, among them being a 32 Ford which was a real runner, a dump truck with which he often hauled and sold coal, a funeral panel flower truck that he used to haul his decorating tools around, a 35 Ford, a 39 and 41 Plymouth. His last vehicle was a 49 Ford that was formerly a West Virginia State police car. He often spent time in the garage and tuning them up. He then went to dust them off as he would say and have some fun racing with some of his old buddies. Often his brother-in-law Bob

Most of Mary's life was devoted to being a homemaker. She had worked for a doll maker in German Village, and for a shoe company on a part time basis. She was an excellent cook and baker, as she followed the German characteristics of her parents and siblings. Summer time was often the time for canning of fruits and vegetables and making of various types of jellies and jams. Every year it was the same for the children at Christmas time, when she would send them off to various dime stores to get baking items such as dried fruit and candies for the holidays. Hobbies include, crocheting, needlepoint, and doll making. Her grandchildren were treated often with her baked goods, especially at Christmas time. She often enjoyed trips to her children's homes in various parts of the country and especially for a 3 month visit in Guam with her youngest daughter. At times she often watch her grandchildren, when their parents needed her.

Family hearsay says that Bill is extremely fond of dogs, but currently has cats, and is known to have played golf in the past. He still is a member of the Phi Delta Theta Fraternity from college days. In a recent conversation about the family, Binky related that Uncle Doc worked on his leg after he had fell out of a tree in 1933. It is now believed that that that was the time of the family reunion that is available in a picture with all of the elders and the other one with all of the children. Attempts are now underway to determine who the children are.

In my first conversation with Ken, this writer was told that he was a former Bank Attorney who dealt with trusts and the like, plus oil business and that after the oil crisis, etc., he left the banking business and went into private practice dealing with family trusts, wills, and probation of wills. He was very interested in the family roots and we went to the grace sites and the areas where the Courtright's had lived. This was after the Revolutionary War ceremony for Abraham Courtright. We shared many notes over the years on family research and military activities.

Peter Wensberg, 77; headed Polaroid marketing in 1970s

By Gloria Negri, Globe Staff | November 14, 2006

In the early 1970s, when Polaroid Corp. introduced its signature SX-70, a camera that produced an instant color photograph, Peter C. Wensberg headed the team that went to Europe to oversee the making of commercials.

As Polaroid's chief marketing executive, Mr. Wensberg was the perfect messenger to convince Sir Laurence Olivier that he had made the right choice to help sell the cameras on television. There were two stipulations, however, according to Sam Yanes, of Beacon, N.Y., who worked at Polaroid in Cambridge with Mr. Wensberg. "One, that the commercial be filmed in Paris, and the other that it never be shown in England," Yanes said yesterday.

Mr. Wensberg was an elegant and persuasive man with a strong command of the English language, friends said. This talent was displayed in several books he wrote, including "Land's Polaroid," about Edwin Land, Polaroid's founder.

Mr. Wensberg, who started his career in the publishing business and rounded it out as a consultant to technology companies and an author, died Nov. 7 of pulmonary fibrosis at Monadnock Community Hospital in Peterborough, N.H. He was 77 and lived in Greenfield, N.H.

"Peter was originally an advertising man. He had a flair for communications," said Ted Voss, of New York City, who worked with Mr. Wensberg at Polaroid. "He was an extremely articulate person who also worked for a demanding, articulate man, Edwin Land. He measured up to what Land wanted his people to be. He was charming, disarming in a sense that if you thought you were going along on Path A, Peter would come along with a twist that would put you on another path."

In his work to introduce the SX-70 that came out in the early 1970s, Voss said, Mr. Wensberg "put together a team, not only with the advertising agency but of creative people, like Charles Eames, the architect and designer. We went to London to make Sir Laurence comfortable [with the fact] that not only could we write commercials but that the product would be appropriate for him to endorse."

The team apparently convinced Olivier. His commercial for the SX-70 aired from 1972 to 1975 in the United States, Voss said. Olivier also made the commercials in Germany, Italy, and France, speaking in those languages.

Although his work on promoting the SX-70 was perhaps the most memorable during his 24 years as marketing executive at Polaroid, Mr. Wensberg racked up a number of other marketing coups. He traveled to the Netherlands, France, and Britain, among other places, to help organize advertising and promotion for Polaroid companies.

In the 1960s, Mr. Wensberg writes in his yet-to-be-published memoirs, he was assigned to produce a promotional campaign for a new camera due in the summer of 1965, working closely with the New York advertising firm Doyle Dane Bernbach, which also worked with Polaroid on Olivier's SX-70 commercial. It would be shot at Treasure Cay on Abaco Island in the Bahamas. A young Ali McGraw was to make the commercial, walking along "a pink curve of unmarked sand," Mr. Wensberg wrote, the new camera swinging from her arm. The name of the camera was the idea of a DDB copywriter.

"The Swinger was a marketing success," Mr. Wensberg wrote, "selling almost a million in 1965 and 3 million the year following." Mr. Wensberg was also responsible for introducing other instant photographic systems, such as Polaroid's Pronto and OneStep, said Yanes, who worked for him in communications at Polaroid.

It was at Polaroid, Yanes said, that Mr. Wensberg began working with the photographer Ansel Adams. "When Adams selected the University of Arizona as the perfect location for his archives, Peter helped establish the new institution formed for this purpose, the Center for Creative Photography," Yanes said in an e-mail.

Courtright's as of 1-12-2015

Mr. Wensberg was more than a businessman, Yanes said in a phone interview. "Peter was my first boss and became my lifelong friend," he said. "I never quite met anyone like him. He was kind of a Renaissance man, a businessman, and a man of letters."

Mr. Wensberg always had a love for words, said his son Ander of Darien, Conn., writing short stories, plays, books, and, lastly, his memoirs. For the past 15 years, he wrote a lyrical letter to his family on his birthday. He was handsome enough to have appeared in some of the plays, his son said: "Clark Gable, without the mustache and with horned-rim glasses, an elegant man who always wore a black tie." Though he promoted a color photograph camera, Mr. Wensberg was colorblind, his son said.

He was born in Omaha, the son of Royal and Katherine (Simonds) Wensberg. Mr. Wensberg attended Knox College in Galesburg, Ill., from 1946 to 1948. In 1950, he graduated from the University of Washington, as an English major with Phi Beta Kappa honors. He met Andrea (Craigue) at the school. They were married 56 years.

After graduation, Mr. Wensberg worked for one year as a college textbook salesman for Harcourt Brace & Co. (now Harcourt Trade Publishers) and for seven years worked for Little, Brown and Co. in Boston.

He joined Polaroid in 1958 and left there in 1982 to become president of the telecommunications division of Atari Inc. in California. Mr. Wensberg returned to Boston after two years.

He lived in Hingham for 30 years, and later in Boston before moving to New Hampshire.

Besides his wife and his son, Mr. Wensberg leaves three other sons, Craig of Milburn, N.J., and Erik and Peter, both of Center Strafford, N.H.; a sister, Eleanor Peleyger of Los Angeles; a brother, Erik of New York City, and seven grandchildren.

A memorial service will be held at 11 a.m. Thursday in Peterborough Unitarian Church, Peterborough, N.H. Burial will be private.

Born on 21 Jul 1943 in Columbus Franklin County, Ohio.

As told by daughter Elizabeth--My grandmother Fitzwater has told me this story several times about the birth of my mother. In 1943, our country was involved in WWII and gasoline had to be purchased with ration stamps. It was near the end of the month and my grandfather used up most of his stamps. This would not have mattered except my Grandmother began labor and the hospital she was to deliver in was about 35 miles away from where they lived. Before Grandpa could driver her to Columbus he had to ask one of his fellow teachers for some stamps to buy gas. They made it and all went well. Growing up my mother liked to play hopscotch, swing, play doctor and beauty shop with her sisters and playmates. She played hide and seek in the evenings during summer. In middle school, she played Monopoly. At MYF she liked to play ping pong and shuffle board. In high school she was on the girl's volleyball team and played intramural basketball.

Columbus Dispatch, The (OH) - December 1, 1995

Deceased Name: Murdith P. "Murt" Byrne: MAN WHO TENDED IRISH ROOTS DIES

Irish eyes are not smiling in Columbus today. A staunch Son of Erin is dead.

Murdith P. "Murt" Byrne, 65, died in his North Side home Wednesday evening. Although he had throat cancer for 11 years, Byrne had remained active in a multitude of activities involving the Irish until his death.

Byrne's father was born in Ireland and Byrne had made 12 trips there to look for relatives and to roam the country. For more than 20 years, he was responsible for painting shamrocks on everything from Columbus streets and houses to the floors of pubs on St. Patrick's Day.

Some affectionately called the shamrocks "Murt's Rembrandts." On Saturday, Byrne's zeal for being an Irishman will be acknowledged in solemn fashion. He will be accorded the honor of being the first person in the 59-year history of the Shamrock Club to lie in state. In 1970, he was president of the club, 60 W. Castle Rd.

Calling hours at the club will be from 4 to 8 p.m. Saturday. Additional calling hours will be 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m. Sunday at the Egan-Ryan Funeral Home, 403 E. Broad St.

In 1993, Byrne was grand marshal of the St. Patrick's Day parade. But even when he was not the parade leader, he delighted in dressing up in green from shoes to hat for that special day.

After retiring as Franklin County superintendent of lands and buildings in 1984, Byrne operated a business that serviced bar beer taps. His son Thomas of Mount Sterling, Ohio, said his father told him, "when I die, I want to be moved around to every funeral home in town for a wake."

On a more serious note, Thomas Byrne said his father had hoped to live long enough to see peace in Ireland. Irish music was playing when Byrne died, his son said. Byrne's brother, Joe, told him, "It's time to go and quit suffering." A few minutes later, Byrne died, according to his son. His body was draped in the Irish flag when the funeral director arrived. "After the funeral, we'll drink to him and cry a little," Thomas Byrne said.

Byrne is survived by his wife, Dorothy. Besides son Thomas, he also is survived by four other sons, three daughters

NOTE On the 10th anniversary of 9-11-2001 everyone seems to remember exactly where they were and what they were doing on that fateful day.

We arrived had arrived in Stockholm, Sweden, the night before. We had attended our niece Tricia's wedding to Ambrose Treacy in Dublin, Ireland. We had then converged on the Treacy family farm along with brother Tom and daughter Heather; sister Sue and husband Jerry; and brother Larry and wife Ivy. We toured much of Ireland and then Tom and Heather headed back to Illinois. Sue and Jerry flew into Boston the night of September 10 and later said in an email that they simply walked off the plane into the airport; they were not even asked for their passports. One of the plans hijacked by terrorists originated in Boston. We, along with Larry and Ivy, flew on to Stockholm and were staying with our friends, Lonnie and Per Sjoquist, who at the time were also our neighbors in Florida.

On the morning of September 11, we were out touring the city. Near the time of the first airplane hitting the Twin Towers we were passing the US embassy. We heard sirens and saw police vehicles speeding in the other direction. Per's cell phone rang, and it was Per's brother Jon, who was a state policeman in Upsala. Per told us, "I regret to tell you that an airplane has struck your Twin Towers in New York." Betty asked, "Was it a small plane?" "No," Per said, "it was a jetliner." Betty looked up at me and asked "Terrorists?" I simply replied, "Evidently." Somehow we both just knew that if a small airplane had mistakenly flown into that area it would have been warned away. Per suggested that in view of what had happened it might be best to return to his house to get the details from TV.

We turned on the television just a minute or so before the second tower was hit. The rest of the day was spent watching the news of the events. We tried to get on the computer which took a while, and our cousin, Jeff Rowland in England, advised us not to fly into Heathrow until we were absolutely sure of our connecting flight to the U.S. as there were no rooms available in the area.

Almost a once flowers were being placed in front of the U.S. Embassy, churches were open late into the nights. Books of condolences to the American people were made available. On Wednesday all business establishments observed three minutes of silence at 10 a.m. Employees and customers came to the fronts of the stores and stood in silence in solidarity with the American people. Everywhere we went there was an outpouring of concern among the Swedish people.

Our return flight was cancelled and it was several days that we could be rebooked through Heathrow and on to the United States. At the airports in Stockholm and London, we were very much aware of military personnel everywhere. We had to physically take our luggage from a guarded cart and take it inside to check it again. The security was very tight and then when we went through the security checkpoint, a thorough examination was made unlike what we had experienced before. Upon reaching our gate, there was a lot of confusion as to what to do. It was the first day flights had flown from Heathrow and a security plan had been launched quickly and probably had not been thought out properly. Finally, they decided to check everyone and their personal belongings yet again, as well as a physical search of each person. At first male employees were searching women passengers. I found a manager and informed him that was unacceptable. After that, they did have two separate lines. There were more women than men; and, unfortunately, they had only one or two women employees to do the searches. Betty and Ivy finally got on the plane about an hour after Larry and I.

After we checked in our luggage and got our seat assignments at Heathrow, Betty, Ivy and Larry went to look at some shops while I went outside to take a smoke before we went through the remainder of the security process. As I often traveled with sensitive materials during my work years, I was accustomed to watching people around me just to be safe. I was curious to see two suspicious looking men getting out of a taxi, one with a back pack, and the other with a bag only. They went inside to the same airline check-in that we were using. They went into separate lines to check in and then lingered about and then went into the security process and ultimately arrived at our same gate, they met and stayed together for a few minutes or so, and then separated again, before they went through the final boarding process. After we got on the plane, I noticed where they were seated as they were on different ends of the plane. I informed a flight attendant of what I had observed outside and inside. They wrote it down. Our flight was long and uneventful from London to Miami. Upon our arrival, there were armed personnel at the exit of the plane, and when I looked back, I noticed that one by one the two men were taken away. No idea of what for. Perhaps they were bad guys, I presume.

On 7 Feb 1959 when Charles (John) Anthony was 21, he married Betty Rosamond WEARS, Spouse of 5th Cousin, daughter of Homer (NMN) (Tommy) WEARS (22 Jun 1897-12 May 1975) & Cordelia Elizabeth McCARTY (4 Jun 1899-3 Jan 1973), in Saint Mary's Church Groveport, Ohio.
