STATE LOTTERY, 1779.

THE Tickets, Shares, and Chances, stamped at the Bank of England, are sold and registered on the lowest terms.

By NICHOLSON and Co. Stock-brokers, At their Office, Lottery Office, the King's Arms, No. 103, Cornhill, where Six Capital Prizes in the last Lottery, were sold and shared.

Also the new and advantageous adventure at ONE GUINEA, HALF A GUINEA, and FIVE SHILLINGS and SIX-PENCE each, similar to their much approved plan of last year, on which they sold undrawn tickets to the amount of 5000, besides 5000 to Miss Smith, of Parliament-street, Westminster; which said Plans are much improved, both in the number and value of the prizes, as adventurers therein will receive considerably more for every prize of 2000, 1000, 500, 200, or 100, than can possibly be gained on any other mode at so trifling a venture; and may also gain the Twenty Thousand Pound, or any other of the CAPITAL PRIZES. Thus the smallest prize is a great object to the purchaser; and as these plans are undertaken at a fair price, without the least risk (being formed from real tickets) it is, therefore, returned, will be found well worth the attention of every adventurer.

Schemes and particulars to be had gratis. Likewise every business relative to the Lottery or Government Security transacted with dispatch and integrity which cannot fail meeting with the approbation of the public.

N. B. It is necessary to observe that the above plans are for the WHOLE TIME OF DRAWING.

STATE LOTTERY OFFICES.

Licensed according to Act of Parliament,

POPE and GALLEY beg leave to acquaint their Friends and the Public in general, that they have opened the following offices for the sale of State Lottery Tickets, Shares, and Chances, all of which have been regularly stamped at the Bank of England, and the original Tickets deposited there, viz. No. 53, Colman-street; No.
21, Piccadilly, facing St. James's-street; and No. 15, London-lane, Norwich; where all business relating to the Lottery will be transacted with the greatest honour and fidelity. There are now selling Tickets and Shares, on different plans, as usual, and likewise a variety of Insurance Policies, from six shillings to two guineas each, which are the most advantageous of any thing ever yet offered to the public. Schemes given gratis.

POPE and GALLEY take this opportunity of returning thanks to their friends for the favours they received during the last former Lotteries, and hope their known punctu-lity will recommend them to their future favours.

Tickets insured to return undrawn.

N. B. The Lottery begins drawing the 15th of November.

Fifty undrawn State Lottery Tickets may be gained for Five Shillings.

HORNSBY and Co. No. 26, Cornhill, humbly solicit the Public to peruse the following safe mode of adventuring in the Lottery; it being calculated on a more beneficial plan for the purchaser, than any yet published, as it evidently gives him a chance of all the capital prizes, for the very small premium of FIVE SHILLINGS.

If the number of the drawing is drawn in the course of the first twelve days of policy, the bearer of such policy will receive

A BODY OF LOYAL AMERICANS having made an humble tender of their personal services to his Majesty, which offer has been most graciously accepted; and it having been desired by the Commander in Chief that the said Americans should proceed to the choice of their Officers, in order to be recommended to his Majesty, this is to give notice, that, at a meeting held at the Adelphi Tavern on Saturday, Sept. 18th, Friday next, the 22nd inst.

is appointed for that purpose. It is therefore requested, that all those Gentlemen who have signed the said association, or may hereafter be disposed to join in it, do attend

PERSONALLY on the day and place above mentioned, at twelve o'clock in the forenoon, in order to proceed in the said business, and to consider of other matters of great importance to the said body.

JOHN RANDOLPH, Chairman.

BARONETS OF ENGLAND.

This Day is published,

Elegantly engraved, and brought down to the present time, in a pocket volume, price 3s.

THE ARMS OF THE ENGLISH BARO-

NETS, and the KNIGHTS OF THE BATH; with the Dates of their Creations. To which is added, the History of the Order of English and Irish Baronets, and those of Nova Scotia; also the History of the Orders of the Garter, Thistle, and Bath; with correct Tables of Precedency.

Printed for G. Kearsley, at No. 46, near St. Paul's Church, in Fleet-street; R. Faulder, in New Bond-street; and Richardson and Unwin, at the Royal Exchange.

Of whom may be had, price half a crown.

The ARMS OF THE NOBILITY OF ENGLAND,

SCOTLAND, and IRELAND, brought down to the present time; with an elegant English Translation of the Motors.

Also, the PEERAGE OF THE NOBILITY OF EN-GLAND, SCOTLAND, and IRELAND. Containing their Titles, date of their Creations, Descriptions of their Arms, Crests, and Supporters, their Country Seats, and Town Residences; together with their Names, and the Titles by which their eldest Sons are (in Courtesy) distinguished. Price 2s. 6d.

Of the above bookellers may likewise be had, price half a crown, the Fourth Edition, A Short and Easy

INTRODUCTION TO HERALDRY, in which all the most useful Terms are explained in a clear and alphabetical manner; a concise method of blazoning arms; likewise at-chievements (commonly called hatchments) familiarly explained; with a great number of elegant copper-plates, containing above eight hundred examples. To which is added, A Dictionary of Heraldry, by HUGH LARK and T.

WORKMILL.

With considerable Additions, and a great number of Explanatory Notes.

This Morning will be published, a New Edition of

THE HOUSE OF PEERAGES; or, Female

Oratory; containing the Debates of several Peeresses upon the Bill of Land's Bill, for the more effectual discouragement of the crime of Adultery.

Printed for G. Kearsley, at No. 46, in Fleet-street.

N. B. The Editor of these debates finding many of the allegations were misapprehensions, (and consequently some improperous passages) has, in order to prevent such mistakes hereafter, added a considerable number of explanatory

Notes, to prevent a possibility of mistaking the party.

At the same place may be had,

A Fourteenth Edition of the SKETCHES OF NATURE, containing upwards of one hundred Characters of the principal Personsages in the Kingdom.

By a MEMBER OF PARLIAMENT.

THE character given by the Monthly and Critical Reviews, and the extensive sale of this pamphlet, of which there has been Thirteen Editions printed in a few weeks, are incontestable proof of its merit, and such as cannot be produced in any other production that has appeared within these few years.

Speedily will be published,

A PRELIMINARY DISCOURSE, wherein are delineated the very great Disorders which prevail in the Affairs of INSURANCE; their principal Causes explained, and Methods proposed for better Regulation and Prevention. Together with the PLAN of an entire New and Comprehensive WORK (preparing for the press) containing the THEORY, LAWS, and PRACTICE of Insurance in general.

G O U D,

INSTANTLY relieved from the greatest Torture from the Gout or Rheumatism; this cure is accomplished after a long study and great expense, by Dr.

SOLOMON, Northumberland-street, Strand, who will engage to cure every species of a fresh gout in a few days, and if continued to their bed ever so long, or the joints have come to violent knots, he will promise to relieve them in quick use and health, in a few weeks time; relief may be expected from the first dose, and the patient will daily get better till the cure is complete. The price from One Guinea and upwards, according to the circumstances of the patient. There are now some persons of credit, which were very bad a few days ago, and almost well, to be met at the above place. Attendance from nine in the morning till two in the afternoon.

N. B. At the above place are to be had medicines, and will be engaged to cure every species of a fresh Gout, and for Cancer if ever so violent; and also the famous Corn Extract, with several certificates, price 2s. 6d. per box. It perfectly cures Corns without pain.

For the MORNING POST.

WEST INDIA ISLANDS CONSIDERED.

Mr. EDITOR,

THE Coffee-house Politicians give the alarm, and the multitude cry out that we are all undone, and the whole nation ruined by the loss of the Grenades; in consequence every man carries as much dejection in his countenance as he did joy at the miserable mock victory of Kappel, to whose conduct the late insults we have received are owing.

Please Sir, to inform those gloomy statesmen and the people at large, that the Grenades have belonged to England but fifteen years, having been ceded to us by the French, together with St. Vincent's, Dominica and Tobago, by the late peace; and is England ruined because the French have retaken them again?

The public mind is informed that we now have every West India island that we had sixteen years ago, and which produce annually one hundred and twenty thousand hogheads of sugar, which is much more than this kingdom consumes, for we supply other countries with twenty thousand hogheads a year. Where then exists the ruin of this country? In the capture of three or four half cultivated islands, and which have cost this kingdom much more than they are worth; islands which I say we knew nothing of but sixteen years ago. Yet the cry is most indudiously proclaimed by a few planters, merchants, and malcontents, that the nation is ruined, the ministries all traitors, that inevitable destruction hangs over the kingdom, that our liberty is lost, and slavery at our doors.

Permit me to inform these wiser men, that the extension of empire generally weakens it; that in keeping 22 ships of the line to protect these rocks, we expended ourselves to insult at home.

And tell them farther, that if England had not one island in the West Indies, she would be much more powerful than at present. To which you may add, that sugar is one of our greatest luxuries; that its first cost, as well as the duty of a above six shillings per cwt. is altogether a total loss to the people; and that if another cargo of sugar was never to arrive in the kingdom, it would be an immense saving to the nation, and in consequence a great addition to its strength.

Yours,

EDWARD BEEHIVE.

Shewbury,
Sept. 20.

For the MORNING POST.

An ENQUIRY how far the present Crisis is owing to ADMINISTRATION.

Mr. EDITOR,

NOTHING is more common than to hear Administration condemned, not only for the actual losses which the nation suffers, but also on account of our apprehensions of the enemy's greater force. Let us consider whether this is, or is not rational.

There is no doubt but the revenue of France amounts to sixteen millions sterling a year, and
