6. Thomas³ Glascock (Gregory² Glasscock, Thomas¹ Glasscocke)⁴⁷ was born Abt. 1671⁴⁸. He married Sarah Stone^{49,50} Abt. 1698⁵¹, daughter of William Stone.

Notes for Thomas Glascock:

On November 5, 1723, Thomas[3] "made an assault on the Body of William Forrester by Stabbing him with a knife by means whereof the said Forrester Instantly Dved." No more details about the killing are available. Life was a good deal cheaper and men were more violent in those days than now. Perhaps Thomas[3] had a very good reason or perhaps not. Perhaps the knowledge of all of the facts would reveal ample justification for his violent action or perhaps not. At any rate, after the incident he fled from his home and apparently was never heard from again by his family.

His son Gregory[4], who was 23 at the time, accompanied him on his escape and was later arraigned by a Richmond County Court as an accessory after the murder. After hearing the 'testimony of Gregory[4] and his brothers, John[4] (age 24.) and Thomas[4] Junior (age 18), the court found, that "the principall not being attainted, noe indictment will lye against the Accessory, therefore the sd Gregory Glascock is Admitted to Baille". {footnote: He had to acknowledge himself "Indebted to our Soverigne Lord the King" and post a bond of 40 pounds sterling and appear before the court at any time called within "a Twelve month and a Day". There was no trial.}

Following is a copy of the testimony at the hearing:

"Gregory Glascock being examined saith that on the fifth of November last about midnight he set off in a boat with his father THOMAS GLASCOCK from their Landing (on Farnham Creek) and the next morning his father put him on Shoar the other side of the River about five miles below Morattico Creek, and then he travelled to Gloucester Town, and went over the Ferrey to York Town, and from thence went to Hampton Town, and soe went over James River and Landed at one Willsons, and from thence Traveled Through Norfolk Town and went to a place Called the Northwest Landing, and then came back about Two Days before Christmas to the house of one Nehomiah Jones, and from thence made the best of his way home."

The next generation of Glascocks in Thomas[3]'s line apparently had to start allover again on their own.BB They moved north from their old home in the Tidewater and established large families and many descendants in northern Virginia in the Piedmont area.
