HAWKINS HERITAGE

Published by The Hawkins Family Organization
Olyve Hallmark Abbott, Editor

PURPOSE: The Hawkins Family Organization began in 1985. It is conducted by mail and has no scheduled meetings. The purposes are: To promote genealogical research on Hawkins families and related lines; to promote and share family history; and to strengthen extended family ties.

NEWSLETTERS: HAWKINS HERITAGE is published three times a year in April, August, and December. All members are encouraged to contribute letters and material to the editor. It is preferable if you type your material, but if not convenient, please share it anyway.

QUERIES: Members are also encouraged to send queries to the editor.

MEMBERS AND SUBSCRIPTIONS: HAWKINS HERITAGE was begun with the hope of identifying the parents of James and Margaret ? Hawkins, b. c1765 and 1768, probably in Virginia. Taxation records show that they lived in Stafford CO Virginia from 1793 until 1825, when they migrated to Clark CO Kentucky. One son, John R., married into the Hawkins/Bourne line, which may be a connecting branch of the above James. Because of an apparent need for "group" research, our publication is now open to descendants of all Hawkins lines.

Individual membership and subscription is $12 per year. Contributing Membership and subscription is $20 per year (may vote).

Subscriptions begin with the April issue. Subscribers during the membership year may receive back issues of the current year or begin with the next year and pay for any single back issues, which are $4 each. The 1st issue was December 1986; 2nd, April 1987; 3rd, 1988; continuing with August and December from then on.

PEDIGREE SERVICE: You are welcome to send your Hawkins pedigree chart to be checked with our collection. You will be given any additional information which we might have on file, that would match up with your own. Your chart will be filed for possible future contact. Our Hawkins ancestor files deal mostly with Hawkins of the south and southwest, although not entirely. Cost of this service is $1 to cover search and photocopies, plus an SASE.

HENRY AND MARTHA HAWKINS

By Great, Great, Great Grandson, Hugh H. Hughes

May 1988

Henry and Martha Crafton Hawkins crossed the plains from Lee County, Iowa to Oregon in 1845 with their son, Dr. Zachariah Hawkins (and wife Nancy White); daughter Martha J. (Mrs. John D. Boon), three unmarried daughters: Nancy, America, and Elizabeth, and grandchildren.

Nancy became one of Oregon's earliest brides, marrying Rev. Lewis Hubbell Judson of Stratford, Conn., at Champoege, Oregon, Feb. 22, 1846. Rev. Judson and his first wife, Almira (Elmira) Roberts were missionaries who had arrived in Oregon in 1840 aboard the Lausanne, as part of the "great reinforcement" to Jason Lee's Methodist mission. (a) Nancy's sister, Elizabeth Hawkins married Jessie C. Wilkes, Feb. 1, 1853, in Clackamas Co. and had a son, Arthur. They were divorced in 1854, in Washington Co. On Jul 7, 1848, Henry and Martha secured Polk Co. Donation Land Claim (DLC) #1211 just north of Independence, Oregon.

Henry was born about 1792 in Nelson Co. (later Hardin Co.) Kentucky and married Martha Crafton there in 1811. His father is believed to be John Hawkins, born 1765 and recorded on the 1810 census. John and Henry's families appear together in 1820. According to his obituary (Morning Standard Daily, Portland, Oregon, Jul 13, 1878), Henry spoke often of his adventures as a young man flatboating on the Mississippi and of "Memphis Under the Hill." He and presumably his brother, Smith, appear with their families in Barren Co., Kentucky, 1830 and in De Moines Co., Iowa, 1836. In 1840, Henry, Zachariah, John D. Boon, and other 1845 pioneers appear in Lee Co., Iowa, prior to their departure for Oregon.

Zachariah married Nancy White in 1832 in Illinois. Her brother was Samuel Simpson White who with his brother-in-law, Amzi Doolittle, and Morton M. McCarver founded Burlington, Iowa. Doolittle married Phoebe White. Berryman Jennings married her sister, Lucinda; they became the founders of Jennings Lodge, Oregon. Several married Hawkins children remained in the East as did some of the White children. (b)

The Hawkins, White and McCarver families were part of a 28 wagon caravan led as far as Ft. Boise by Samuel Hancock. On the journey, tragedy struck the Hawkins family twice, first in the death of Zachariah and Nancy's little Laura Emily, 5 years old, and then in the death of Zachariah himself, along the Snake River near present Glenn's Ferry, Idaho. The family tradition states that Zachariah died of Typhoid fever, but Wojcik (c) points to evidence that he was killed by Indians while hunting with George Hinshaw. The search party found George mutilated and dying, but Zachariah's body was not found and presumed thrown into the river. From this sad encampment, Nancy White Hawkins with her mother and 5 remaining children drove one of the two ox teams and wagons on to Oregon. Their wagonmaster, Thomas M. Read of New Hampshire, drove the other. (d)

At Ft. Boise some of the migration elected to join the Stephen Meek and Sol Tetherow parties who ventured across Eastern Oregon to become known as "the lost wagon train of 1845." Many lives were lost. Thomas Read, known by his contemporaries as a prudent and conservative man, chose to bring the Hawkins family with the others who remained on the established trail. This led them through Burnt River canyon and the Blue Mountains, to the Columbia. There Nancy had Mr. Read build a raft for the transport of the family and goods to The Dalles while he and Nancy's brother, Newton White, drove the cattle by Indian trail on to the Willamette Valley. At The Dalles, they were met by McCarver who had come to meet his family with a crew of men. From there, they rafted on to the mouth of the Sandy, then traveled overland by way of Fosters to the little settlement called Oregon City scattered around Dr. John McLoughlin's home.

Nancy with her children and mother, Nancy Atherton White, probably stayed that winter with her brother Samuel. (e) Thomas Read built bricks for Dr. McLoughlin's mill construction. In 1846, Read took a DLC in Benton Co. and married Nancy Nov. 29 at Independence where Zachariah's will was probated. They then went upriver to become some of Benton County's first settlers. The home in which they raised a large family is now a Benton Co. Historical Site in Wells district, near the entrance of Oregon State University Arboretum.

Henry Hawkins remained in Polk Co. 13-21 years and presumably buried Martha (between 1850-57), and daughter America in Burch Pioneer Cemetery. (no markers) On 29 Oct 1857, he married Elizabeth Hursaw Clauson, (widow of Ephraim Clauson, DLC #1730). She deserted him and he filed for divorce in 1870.

Henry's name appears on the Donation Land Claim records of several of his neighbors: Thomas Burbank, Elgy C. Dice, Leonard Williams, Catherine Fudge, John B. Smith, Joseph Carmack, Bethuel Dove and Hiram S. Young. A further search of Polk Co. records may reveal more information.

In 1870 Henry appears in the Benton Co. home of John and Martha Miller (no known relation) next door to his granddaughter, Martha Hawkins (Mrs. Francis Pyburn) and the 6 Pyburn children. In 1871 Henry sold 442 acres of his Polk Co. claim to Francis (Frank) Pyburn. Martha and Frank were divorced and Martha married Louis Berry in 1874. They made their home in Linn county.

At the time of his death in 1878, Henry was living with a Scottish immigrant family, the James Minty's, 4 miles east of Silverton. His widowed daughter there, Martha Boon, had passed away the year before. The Boon's had 7 children. As noted in his obituary, Henry had attained a ripe old age with a clear mind. He read his Bible daily without glasses and was loved by all.

Zachariah's older son, Samuel Simpson (named for his uncle Judge Samuel Simpson White) married Cynthia Cahoon in Benton Co., Oregon, and migrated to Zillah (Yakima Valley), Washington, where his descendants are now scattered over Eastern Washington. Pyburn descendants are also known by the author. Zachariah's younger son, Edward Harrison Hawkins married Susan Caroline Norton and farmed about 20 years at Irish Bend, Benton Co. His teenage son, Clarence, preceded Susan in death by just 15 days in January, 1884. Edward had two remaining children, Clara and Clayton.

Edward then married a local schoolteacher, Nancy Ellen Taylor and migrated to Eugene where they established their home in the present Hawkins Heights district. Edward and Nancy had three children, Virgil, Herbert and Ruth. The family, including his oldest daughter (my grandmother Clara), are buried in Mulkey Cemetery, on Hawkins Heights. Zachariah's widow, Nancy White Hawkins Read, her mother Nancy Atherton White, daughter-in-law, Susan C. Hawkins and Susan's son, Clarence, with members of the Read family are found in Lewisburg or Locke Cemetery, Benton Co. (A.N.Locke, DLC, Claim #41)

The resilient spirit of independence that brought the Hawkins family into the perilous wilderness of 1780 Kentucky, onto the virgin plains of Iowa in the 1830's and from thence to Oregon in 1845 was the same spirit that produced the congenial self-sufficiency and progressive agriculture for which they are well known. From their notes, letters and a study of their toil worn faces reflecting firm determination and dignity, one can fathom more of the mettle and spirit of the Pioneer. Several became wealthy and left their names on landmarks and developments where they had transformed the wilderness into productive agricultural successes. All of them have passed on to us, their descendants, a heritage of self reliance and love for the land they strove to reach, subdue and cultivate. They were among those who realized the fulfillment of the Great American Dream.

NOTES

(a) Judson's ancestors were English pilgrim immigrants of 1634. He learned the wheelwright trade from his father and pursued carpentry. In 1831 he married Almira (Elmira) Roberts and they aspired to be missionaries to the Indians of the West. In preparation for this endeavor, Judson educated himself in medicine which proved very valuable, especially when they served at the mission in Clatsop county. The Judsons became part of the "great reinforcement" to Jason Lee's Methodist mission, arriving in Oregon aboard the Lausanne, June, 1840. Aboard ship, the party decided to name the town they would found, Salem, after the ancient holy city, Jerusalem. Judson worked on the construction of the first dwelling there, the Jason Lee house, which the family shared with the Lee's and two other families. In February, 1842, work began on a school for white children with Judson as a trustee and chairman of a committee of three to draw up a prospectus and code of by-laws for the school, later named the Oregon Institute, and finally, Willamette University.

In 1844, his wife, Alvira, passed away leaving him with four children. Two years later, he married Nancy Hawkins. After the reorganization of the mission in 1844 when all lay workers were released, he chose to remain in Oregon and purchased the mills nearby. He was an intensely patriotic and useful citizen, and served the early settlers as Marion County Surveyor. He died in 1880 and is buried in the IOOF cemetery at Salem. (Dobbs, Caroline C., Men of Champoeg, Metropolitan Press, Portland, Oregon 1932.)

(b) There is considerable history regarding the Whites and McCarvers. S.S. White with his son-in-law, Capt. John C. Ainsworth, Jennings and others built the first steamboat on the Willamette "Lot Whitcomb" at Milwaukie in 1851. White was a notable figure in Oregon City business, judicial and missionary circles and in 1846 was appointed Oregon's first Probate Judge by Gov. George Abernethy. White and McCarver laid the first plat for the city of Sacramento, CA and Tacoma, WA. The Ainsworths' (Nancy Jane White) remarkable home still stands in Oregon City. (see ca. Apr 1975, Mt. Hood Trackers Clackamas Co. Geneological Mag, article by Donna M. Wojcik. NOTE: This is as far back as I have been able to research. Perhaps others have traced this line back to at least immigration to America. That would be interesting! John Hawkins, the father of Henry Hawkins, supposedly came from Orange or Culpeper CO VA. He came to Nelson CO KY by 1785. - H H H.

THE JOHN T. HAWKINS FAMILY IN ALABAMA

By Joseph L. Whitten
P. O. Box 125
Odenville, AL 35120

John Thomas Hawkins was born on 16 November 1832. It is thought his place of birth was North Carolina although it has not been documented as yet. Sometime before 1857 he moved to Carroll County, Georgia, and on 13 October 1857, he and Sarah A. Dobson were married in Carrollton. Sarah A. Dobson, born in 1837 in Carroll County, Georgia, was the daughter of William F. and Elizabeth Dobson. Her known siblings were two brothers, Thomas (b. 1834) and William (b. 183-), and one sister, Nancy (b. 1836). When the 1860 census for Georgia was taken, John and Sarah were living in the Hickory Level District of Carroll County. That same census list a value of $700.00 for John's property and a value of $685.00 for his personal estate. North Carolina was John's former place of residence.

John and Sarah were the parents of five children: Joseph Theodore (b. 22 September 1858), William Ferdinand (b. 16 October 1859), Mary Elizabeth (b. 13 December 1862), Martha Josephine (b. 29 January 1864), and Nancy Allena (b. 9 February 1865). All were born in Carroll County, Georgia.

John enlisted in the Confederate Army as a First Sergeant on 4 August 1863, as a member of Company I, 7th Regiment, under Col. Robert S. Sharp's command. John was a tanner and was a bootmaker during the war. Because of his trade he was exempt from active duty to make boots for the soldiers. The active duty exemption of bootmakers was verified by the Georgia State Archives in Atlanta. My grandfather also told of John Thomas sleeping in the garden under piles of leaves to escape being captured by the Federal Troops.

John was a private at the end of the war. Although I have found no record to give a reason why John was cut in rank, it seems reasonable to guess that he made the boots at his shop at the tanyard in Villa Rica and stayed there during the war years. His Civil War records show that he was not present for several muster calls, although he received his pay.

John's first tanyard was in Carrollton. Around 1860, the tanyard, located on Alabama Street near the Methodist Church and cemetery, was one of thirty-two businesses located in that newly organized town. The young people of the town used the tanyard pool as a swimming hole which was perhaps Carrollton's first swimming pool. (1:70)

Sometime before 1864, John moved his family to a home just outside Villa Rica, Carroll County. This home was located just north of Old Town Villa Rica on what is now Georgia Highway 101. John was still a tanner and the homestead was the location of his tanyard. (2:6)

On 21 April 1870, Sarah A. Dobson Hawkins died of cancer. (2:7) Her youngest child was five years old. There is no record of where Sarah is buried. The Cemetery Directory for Carroll County does not list her or her parents' graves as being marked in that county.

John T. Hawkins married Millicent A. Martin (b. 1839, d. 1893) around the end of 1870 in Georgia. Millicent was the daughter of Nathan and Elizabeth Martin. She had a twin brother, Reuben, and her other brothers and sisters were James, William B., John P., Belinda, and Frances. (2:7)

John and Millicent had five children, all born in Georgia: Charles Martin (b. 29 October 1871), Ida Jane (b. 6 August 1874), Ludia B. (b. 1876) Minnie L. (b. 27 July 1878), and Nettie Lougenia (b. 5 October 1881). Between 1870 and 1879 the Hawkins family moved to the Pumpkinvine District of Paulding County, Georgia, where John joined the Pumpkinvine Baptist church on 27 August 1879. (2:7)

According to Howard Hawkins, grandson of John T., the Hawkins family moved to Alabama around 1888, locating in Cullman County. Millicent Martin Hawkins died in 1893 and was buried in the Pleasant Grove Methodist Church Cemetery near Hulaco, Morgan County, Alabama. John T. Hawkins died on 9 October 1899 and was buried beside Millicent. A Civil War marker was placed at his grave in 1982 by his descendants.

When John and Millicent moved to Alabama, two of John's sons by his first wife came to Alabama either with him or shortly thereafter. These were Joseph Theodore and William Ferdinand.

Joseph Theodore had married Mary Talullah Barnes in Georgia and their first child, John Lovic, was there in 1887. Their other four children were born in Cullman County Alabama: Anna Lee, Lottie Gertrude, Tommie Bell, and Robert Louis. Joseph and Mary moved their family to Etowah County, Alabama, and their children attended Etowah County schools. Many of his descendants still live in the Gadsden and Rainbow City areas of Etowah County. Robert Louis Hawkins' children have been leading forces in the establishing of Rainbow City. Robert's farm was bought by his three children and developed as a lovely community of pleasant homes in Rainbow City.

William Ferdinand Hawkins was married first to Louissa Baxter, the daughter of Henry and Hulda Williams Baxter of Paulding County, Georgia. William and Louissa had three children: Jennie Bell, Thomas T., and Mattie Mae. Louissa died on 21 March 1887, and is buried in the Lane Cemetery in Paulding County.

William's second wife was Sarah Zuella Haynes, born 23 November 1867 in Villa Rica, Carroll County, Georgia. (An article on the Haynes family was printed in the Spring-1990 edition of the CCGQ.) William and Sarah, who was called Sallie, were married 17 November 1888 in Carroll County and shortly thereafter moved to Alabama--perhaps at the same time his father did. All of William

On a blazing hot August afternoon, I stood in the old cemetery at their graves and wished I could have known them. While I read the stones of the two baby graves next to Sallie, a dust devil arose in the church yard and whirled through the dry leaves. As I watched the quiet whirlwind, I pondered the reality that we are all chased by "devils" of one sort or another, and I wondered if the deaths of the two children were not Sallie's personal ones.

Erasmus B. Hawkins and his wife, Sarah Moncrief (b.1829) left in 1851 from MS to Indian Territory.

They came on the steamboat and 12 hours after they arrived in Skullyville, Sarah got cholera, but survived. The article didn't mention children for them. Later Erasmus died, and Sarah married Aaron Harlan. They operated a trading post in Tishomingo. Sarah died in 1926. She was a high-Scotch Cherokee with 1/4 Indian blood.

"We're a family - a big one, but still a Hawkins family"

The April, 1994 issue might be a good time to begin family news of our subscribers. I think we would enjoy knowing what our subscribers might have to tell of their families, don't you? Children, grandchildren, vacations, a super genealogy find, enjoying staying at home, your garden, hobbies, whatever you would like to share, please write me a note about it. We can spare a page or so for a little personal news!

And until then, may all the blessings of the Christmas Season be yours, and may those blessings continue in the new year. All our lives we have seen beautiful Christmas cards imprinted with "Good will toward men". Prayerfully, this year we will see it come true throughout the world.

!MERRY CHRISTMAS and HAPPY NEW YEAR!

HAWKYNS
HAWKINS GENEALOGY

SUBJECT: Maiden name of Elizabeth Barnes
LOCATION: Mercer County, Kentucky
PURPOSE: To establish beyond a reasonable doubt that our Elizabeth Hawkins, who married
Samuel Kilby Hawkins, was not the Elizabeth Barnes as recorded in books and the two research records provided by the International Genealogical Index, Church of Jesus Christ of the Latter Day Saints, Salt Lake City, Utah. Roll film # 1260572
Therefore, I have assigned a "letter" to each # 0538353 subject in order to separate the two "Elizabeths".

ITEM # 1: The children of Benjamin Hawkins and Nancy Bourne. Page e

- (A) = Elizabeth Hawkins
- (B) = William Barnes (1st husband)
- (C) = Robert Johnson (2nd husband)

ITEM # 2: Mercer County marriage records. Page f

- (D) = Samuel Hawkins
- (E) = Elizabeth Rains

NOTE: The marriage of Nathan Hawkins to Margaret Barnes shows the bride's mother as Elizabeth Johnson and her father, William Barnes, as the witness.

ITEM # 3: Will of Benjamin Hawkins, in which his slaves are divided amongst his heirs.
All the principal subjects appear on this document and are shown on other documents as well. The name "Barnes" is clearly spelled. Page f 1

ITEM # 4: Marriage Certificate for Samuel Hawkins and Elizabeth Rains, with William (F)
Rains (father) as surer. In this document, the name "Rains" is clearly spelled. Document received from the Archives Research Room, Public Records of the State of Kentucky attest to this. Page 5

ITEM # 5: Abstract of Deed from John Lillard to Samuel Hawkins, that borders Allen Rains property and the witnesses, William and Adam Rains. Allen Rains surfaces again in Sullivan County, Indiana in 1855. Page 6

ITEM # 6: Records of the Good Hope Baptist Church, established in 1855, Sullivan, Indiana, show Allen Raines (Rains), James H. Raines and James W. Raines along with our Hawkins family and other allied families.

Welcome to The Hawkins Family Organization

We like to hear from each other in our publication of HAWKINS HERITAGE publication, and we hope that you will contribute something - every issue, once a year, or whenever you like. It is from your contributions that our issues can maintain a large amount of information.

Be your own editor and proofreader. We organize and print our material as is, or with minimal changes. Please follow these guidelines for what you would like to see published.

1. Use standard 8 1/2 x 11 inch paper.
2. Try to leave a one inch margin on the top and sides and 1 1/2 inches on the bottom.
3. Type, print, or write legibly. Dark black ink copies the best.
4. Use one side of your paper only.
5. If an item is larger than 8 1/2 x 11, and you are unable to reduce it, then send it as is to the editor to reduce.
6. Your submission may be written as a letter to the members, an article with title and author, a question or an answer to the members, or copies of documents, maps, etc. Include proper credit for sources of information (important).
7. If you want your submissions returned, please provide return postage.
8. If you are a new member, it is hoped that you will send a family group sheet if you have one, for the specific ancestor for whom you are searching.
9. Please take advantage of submitting queries. You may do this once a year, and they can be in "standard" or in letter form.

The editor would like to receive material for publication by the following dates:

By February 28 for the April issue.

By June 30 for the August issue.

By October 15 for the December issue.

On occasion, more material arrives than can be used by the above dates; however, it will be used as soon as possible.
