

A "BLEAR-EYED PREACHER" PREFERRED

BOSTON, Oct. 6.—The Universalist Society, of which the Rev. M. H. Houghton, of New-Haven, is Pastor, has voted that Mr. Houghton be retained until April 1 at his present salary of $1,800, with the understanding that his pastorate will then cease. His recent sermon on the Rose Ambler case is believed to have brought about this action.

The New York Times

Published: October 7, 1883

Copyright © The New York Times