

George Breckenridge Dead in Iowa

George Breckenridge, a pioneer resident of St. John. and prominent among early settlers, died at Selina, Iowa on Monday, October 2nd, at the home of a niece. The word was received here this morning from his daughter Mrs. Mary Zabriskie of Springville, Utah, in a special delivery letter to Mrs. Ira W. Smith of this city. Mrs. Zabriskie was then starting to Iowa but did not yet know funeral arrangements. Mr. Breckenridge was a veteran of the Civil War and about eighty years of age. •
