

Mr. Alvin D. Jones, 71, of Mountain Home, Ark., formerly of Ottumwa, passed away Oct. 8, 2011, at the Hospice of the Ozarks Hospice House. He was born May 19, 1940, in Ottumwa to Dale Franklin and Viola Jones. In 1964, Alvin married LuAnne Ogles in Ottumwa. He lived in Fairfield for 22 years, working for Fairfield Aluminum Castings Company before moving to Mountain Home in 1995. He is survived by his wife of 47 years, LuAnne; two daughters, Darlene (Harry) Wright and Teresa Countryman; four grandchildren, Kurtis Wright, Teri (Michael) Byrd, Timothy and Thomas Countryman; his sister, Dorla Henthorn; his two brothers, Ronald (Lila) Jones and Bruce (Sally) Jones; and numerous nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents; a brother, Clarence; and a sister, Carolee. Services are private. Conner-Hankins Funeral Home in Mountain Home, Ark., was in charge of arrangements.

The Ottumwa Courier, Oct., 2011