In the matter of the Estate of

Minerva W. Adams

Administratrix

Now comes Minerva W. Adams widow of said John W. Adams dec'd, and Administratrix of said Estate and represents to the Court that at the decease of her said husband there remained on hand for the support of her ^{said} family only about twenty Bushels of wheat and enough pork to supply her family for the space of twelve months and that she was left unsupplied with other articles necessary for her subsistence. She further represents to the Court that her family is large consisting of nine persons, seven of them ^{small} children, ^{and six females} and too young to do any thing for their own support, and that on a very low estimate it will require the sum of five hundred dollars to provide sufficient grain meat and other provisions ^{in addition to what is on hand} to supply herself and family for the space of twelve months.

She therefore respectfully ask the Court to make an order appropriating out of the assets of said Estate the said sum of five hundred dollars for the purpose of supplying said deficit.

ency in grain meat and other provisions necessary for the support of herself and her family
