Merrifield – Merryfield

Compiled 1970 - 2007

After the Civil War there were no jobs to be had, so many soldiers took their families and headed towards the West in search of a better life.

As they moved into the Midwest, people spelled the name with the letter 'y' instead of with an 'i'. Therefore the name became 'Merryfield'.

The Merrifields originated in England, just outside of London.

* * *

The sources of these family records are from Birth Certificates, Death Certificates, Marriage Records, Censuses, and from personal visits and letters.

My sincere thanks go to all those who responded so willingly to my many letters of inquiry. And I am doubly thankful to the following for their extra help:

Barbara Woods for her investigating the past,
Harriet Lautermilch, my mother, for helping with the present,
Along with Ruth Jean Suffel, Donna Lyons, and Donna Grimm.

All my appreciation goes to my Great-Grand-Nephew Christopher Kerr for helping my put together and typing this register.

My only desire is to prepare this register with as few errors as possible. At the same time, it is likely that a few will occur.

Abbreviations used:
