Shirley "Little Dove" Custalow McGowan entered eternal rest on September 13, 2021 at the age of 78. Little Dove was born on March 1, 1943 to the late Chief Webster "Little Eagle" Custalow and Mary Lee "White Feather" Adams Custalow on the Mattaponi Indian Reservation in King William County, VA, one of the oldest reservations in the country (1646). Shirley was predeceased by her husband of 61 years, Olson B. "Mickey" McGowan; and two brothers, Dr. Linwood Custalow and Ryland Custalow.

Her proudest achievement above all else was her role as a loving and devoted mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister, aunt and friend. She is survived by her four sons whom she loved dearly, Richard "Red Hawk" McGowan (Darlene), John "Swift Hawk" McGowan (April), James "Falling Water" McGowan (Joyce) and Samuel "Running Deer" McGowan, Sr. (Amber). Our mother was blessed with 10 grandchildren, Crystal, Sarah, Tracey, Rachel, Travis, Isabelle, Emma, Curtis, Alexandra, and Caela. She also leaves behind seven precious great grandchildren; two brothers, Carl Custalow and Leon Custalow, Sr.; four sisters, Eleanor Canada, Edith Kuhns, Delores Salmons, and Debra Graciano; along with a host of extended family and friends.

Shirley was educated on the Mattaponi Indian Reservation and accepted Christ at an early age while attending Mattaponi Indian Baptist Church. She was immersed in the rich history of her people from an early age by her elders. At the age of four she was given the name Little Dove by her grandfather, Chief George Forest "Tecumseh" Custalow, and received her mission in life, to travel in the direction of the four winds teaching the history of her people and to always see others through the eyes of the creator. Through hard work and perseverance, Little Dove became a respected historian who would spend her lifetime sharing the history of the Powhatan people to the world. Her living history programs reached countless people at museums, historical societies, schools, churches, festivals, and many other events spanning over 50 years. She was well known for her artisan skills creating traditional baskets, pottery, tools and regalia representative of her people. Countless newspaper articles and news stories captured her true mission to ensure that everyone would leave her programs knowing her people were still here among us. Shirley was interviewed as a resource on Pocahontas by the Washington Post, Japanese television, International Herald Tribune, New York Times, Richmond-Times Dispatch, Daily Press, Tidewater Review, BBN, CNN, Entertainment Tonight, PBS, and featured in motion pictures Mothers of America and American Princess. She served on the Board of trustees for the Jamestown - Yorktown Foundation, the Advisory Board for Virginia Historical Society, Colonial Williamsburg and Henricus College (1619) Inc. and a Native American Consultant for Disney's movie Pocahontas. Little Dove also left us with books, articles, collaborations, documentaries and movies that will continue to fulfill her mission and educate future generations.

Her life and legacy will be an everlasting testament to her unwavering faith in God. It gives us great comfort knowing that she is in heaven.

The family will receive friends in a walk-through visitation from 5 to 8 p.m., Thursday, September 23, 2021 at Vincent Funeral Home, 417 11th St., West Point, VA. Ode to the Music Box
By Abby Rosales

Oh music box with your extravagant beauty and detail
You etch my soul with comfort
Providing support for all
With the crank of a pin
You elegantly disperse warm tones
Vocalizing the sentimental song of "You are my Sunshine"
Provided by my oh so loving grandma
Your simple brown walls mean so much more

With deep comforting roots in every note played
Custom made with me in mind
Each intricate bolt and screw plucks at my heart
While witnessing the complex ways in which you work
So providing entertainment and deep meaning
You, little music box
Make every inch of me feel cheer.

"Gertrude Elizabeth Custalow, Minnie Ha-Ha, 90, of the Mattaponi Indian Reservation passed away peacefully with family, to be with our Lord, on November 10, 2012. Minnie Ha-Ha was born on September 10, 1922, the Elder of the Mattaponi Indian Reservation and Mattaponi Indian Baptist Church. She was baptized at age 13 and has faithfully attended church for 76 years. She was preceded in death by her parents, Chief O.T. and Marie Custalow, husband, Chief Curtis L. WarHorse Custalow, Sr., son, Marvin I., Sr., grandson, William (Lee) Reel, Jr., brothers, Vincent, Ted, Al, Irvin, Chanco, Jack and sisters Marie and Genevieve. She is survived by her children, Curtis L., Jr (Phyllis), Jacqueline (beloved daughter-in-law), Veronica Reel (Billy), Denise Davis and Michael G. Sr., and 14 grandchildren, 24 great grandchildren and 5 great great grandchildren. Also, Minnie Ha-Ha is survived by brothers, George and Keith and sister, Matoaka, June and Mayflower. In 1969, Minnie Ha-Ha established the Minnie Ha-Ha Educational Trading Post., with the motto, "We Trade Knowledge". She taught cultural classes to schools, the Pepperbird Foundation and many other classes and events. She also taught beadwork and pottery. As an oral historian her memory was vivid. She recalled events from when she was five years old to date. She didn't have to write anything down, she would say, "I can remember, it's all up here." She collaborated history dates and all circumstances concerning the Reservation, Church, State and family. She served as Secretary and Treasurer from 1969 to present. She was active in the W.M.U. She always loved to say in church, "We run on Indian time, we start when we start and finish when we finish." She truly loved her family, her Church and her Tribe. At the death of her mother in 1943, she helped finish raising her siblings as well as her own infant son. She will be dearly missed by all. As all of us children survived, we recall things Mama taught us. Before Mama passed she did prepare us for her leaving. She and Daddy taught us how to be good Christians and obedient children to them and when God calls upon her passing, she will let us know that she would still be watching over us. We talked, we prayed, we grieve, we laughed today, this is what Mama would want. In the past months, Mama was ill and when times were bad she would sing hymns to soothe her pain. Her favorite hymn was Does Jesus Care? "Oh yes He cares, I know He cares. His Heart is touched with my grief. When the days are weary, the long nights dreary, I know my Savior cares." The family will receive friends 6p.m.-8p.m. Monday and Tuesday at B. W. White at Rt. 30, by the Courthouse. Service will be held Wednesday, November 14, 2012 at the Mattaponi Indian Baptist Church at 2p.m. A celebration of Minnie Ha-Ha's life will be held at the Tribal Center following intermittent. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to: Mattaponi Indian Baptist Church/c/o Kenneth Custalow 1538 Mattaponi Reservation Circle West Point, VA 23181 We give many thanks to all who have assisted and is lifting us all up in prayer." 11/11/2012.
