Ode to the Music Box

By Abby Rosales

Oh music box with your extravagant beauty and detail
You etch my soul with comfort
Providing support for all
With the crank of a pin
You elegantly disperse warm tones
Vocalizing the sentimental song of "You are my Sunshine"
Provided by my oh so loving grandma
Your simple brown walls mean so much more
With deep comforting roots in every note played
Custom made with me in mind
Each intricate bolt and screw plucks at my heart
While witnessing the complex ways in which you work
So providing entertainment and deep meaning
You, little music box
Make every inch of me feel cheer.

Sherry was born on July 25, 1944 in Iowa City, Iowa to parents Richard D. Folsom and Patricia McVicker Folsom. In 1950 she moved with her family to Spencer, Iowa, where her father set up a dental practice. Sherry attended public schools in Spencer, graduating from Spencer High School in 1962. She attended and graduated from Coe College in 1966 and was a member of the Kappa Delta Sorority. She treasured the relationships she had with her high school classmates and her sorority sisters and kept in touch with them over the years, attending reunions and taking part in many diverse activities. In 1968 Sherry married Charles W. Meek and moved to Houston, Texas, where she taught for a year at Phyllis Wheatly High School. The couple moved to Overland Park, Kansas, then, and Sherry began a career in real estate. One of their greatest joys was the 1975 birth of their daughter, Patricia Lee ("Trish") Meek. The couple divorced in 1981, and Sherry began graduate work at Kansas University in Lawrence, Kansas. She attained her master's degree in adaptive physical education in 1983 and then attended Texas Woman's University, where she obtained her doctorate in 1986. Sherry taught at several universities prior to Minnesota State University at Mankato, where she remained until retiring in 2015. Dr. Folsom-Meek was internationally known for her work in the field of Adapted Physical Education and had numerous awards and publications to her credit. She was also responsible for the licensure of many dedicated teaching professionals in her field. Sherry was also a hands-on professional, dedicating many seasons of work with Camp Courage, an organization established in 1955 to serve participants with developmental disabilities and special needs. Inspiration for these accomplishments was her daughter Trish, who died in 1999 at the age of 24. Sherry is survived by her sister, Virginia ("Gina") Folsom of Ames, Iowa, brother Richard ("Kip") Folsom, sister-in-law Sherri Graham Folsom, nephew Travis Parks, an uncle John Folsom, all of Omaha, Nebraska as well as many cousins, friends, and colleagues. She was preceded in death by her daughter Trish Meek, and her parents Dr. Richard D. and Patricia V. Folsom.

Sherry requested that memorials be made in the name of her daughter, Patricia Lee Meek to Lakemary Center Endowment Association, 100 Lakemary Drive, Paola, Kansas 66071 or to Special Olympics Minnesota, Donor Services, 100 Washington Avenue South, Suite 550, Minneapolis, Minnesota 55401.

A small funeral service will take place Saturday, September 5, 2020 at 10:00 in the morning at Sherry's church of many years, the First Presbyterian Church, 220 East Hickory Street, Mankato, Minnesota 56001. Please call the church office (507-387-2160) before noon Friday if planning on attending. COVID-19 funeral policy will apply.
