8. ORDER OF BUSINESS REPORT (Read by Frank Mullins):

2. That we have the Annual Sermon at 11:00 A. M.

4. That we convene at 9:00 A. M. Thursday morning.
5. That we adjourn at the will of the body.

Respectfully submitted,

Signed: Frank Mullins, Chairman
Herman Trent.

Motion by Clyde Reed to receive and adopt this report; seconded by Joe Lamb. Carried, adopted.

9. CHRISTIAN EDUCATION REPORT (Read by Mack H. Wilder).

We, your Committee on Christian Education, report as follows:

As we begin to consider Christian Education, let us first of all consider the founder of the school, the "Lord Jesus Christ" who said: "Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me."

He taught why men should be saved, how men could be saved, and once saved, how they should grow up to represent the noble example that He placed before them.

We come now to consider the method of Christian education today. The education of the child should begin in the home under the direction of parents who are Christians. The Church should then assume its responsibility of leading the child to Christ, and training it in the great truths of the Bible. If there is opportunity for the child to receive advanced education, we firmly believe that such training should be in schools and colleges that are sponsored, operated and controlled by Christians, who have within them the "Spirit of the Most High."

Any of the institutions mentioned herein that is not led and controlled by the Holy Spirit, whether home, church, or school cannot fulfill its obligations to Christian education, but may become a serious hindrance.

As we have in Tennessee many Baptist Homes, many Baptist churches, and four Baptist Schools: Harrison-Chilhowee Academy, Carson-Newman College, Belmont College and Union University, where we believe the Spirit of Christ dwells and where Baptist doctrines are carefully guarded, let us give them all our prayers and undivided support.

Signed: Mack H. Wilder, Chairman
Herman Trent

Discussed by Mack H. Wilder and Herman Trent. Motion to adopt by Clyde Reed, seconded by Wilson Wilder. Carried and adopted.

10. TEMPERANCE REPORT (Read by E. V. Seal).

As we look at the subject of Temperance again, which is always so important, because it concerns everyone. The Scripture says: "Be temperate in all things." It behooves us as Baptists, to take a greater interest in exposing the cause of temperance in every way. We would especially call your attention to the liquor traffic, as there are now in the United States 3,000,000 problem drinkers, 3,000,000 addicts, and 1,000,000 chronic alcoholics, making a total of 7,000,000 people who are being destroyed by the curse of strong drink.

Signed: E. V. Seal, Chairman
Hoil Minor

Discussed by E. V. Seal and Hoil Minor. Motion to adopt by Wilson Wilder; seconded by Clyde Reed and Frank Mullins. Carried and adopted.

11. INTERMISSION. Motion by Hoil Minor, seconded by Clyde Reed, that ten minutes intermission be given prior to Annual Sermon. Carried.

12. Reconvened at 11:10.

13. Song by congregation, "If I Could Hear my Mother Pray Again." Followed by prayer by Clyde Reed.

14. ANNUAL SERMON: By Rev. Henry Cook, who read 118th Psalm, and used 21-22 verses as a text: "The stone which the builders refused is become the head stone of the corner—This is the Lord's doing; it is marvelous in our eyes." After a very lengthy and inspiring message, a song entitled "Heaven holds all to Me," was sung, followed by handshake, and spiritual fellowship with audible shouts from the congregation.

Thereupon the congregation was dismissed for one hour for lunch.

15. NOON HOUR. The large audience present on this occasion gathered in the church yard where a bountiful luncheon was spread for all those in attendance. Brother Grant Lawson returned thanks.

16. RECONVENED AT 1:30. Called to order by Moderator.

17. Song: "Where Could I Go, But to the Lord." In the devotional exercises the 12th chapter 2nd Timothy was read, followed by prayer by Thea Davis.

18. REPORT OF EXECUTIVE BOARD.

1. Pursuant to request of the Mulberry Gap Association, while in session, we, the Executive Board have investigated the matter between Robert Hurd, and his wife, and the Grassy Springs Baptist Church, and we report the following:

After a thorough investigation of the affair, we feel that, under the circumstances the church had no alternative, but to act as it did, in excluding Mr. and Mrs. Hurd from their body, which action is upheld by the Board. We further recommended that no other church in the Association accept for members, Mr. and Mrs. Hurd until they have been duly accepted back into Grassy Springs Baptist Church, thereby establishing their good will and earnest intent toward the church and community.

It is most fortunate that our forefathers caught the vision of the need of an orphans home.

In the Scripture it says: "Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this, to visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep ourselves unspotted from the world."

We recommend that all our churches respond wholeheartedly to this worthy cause.

Respectfully submitted,

Signed: Ed Garland, Chairman
Mack Wilder
Herman Trent

know she is now at rest with Jesus. Her place is vacant here, but filled in Heaven.

Sleep on, dear Mother, till we all meet again to part no more.

In death her hands are folded,
We're sure she has gone to rest,
We loved her, or, so dearly,
But Jesus loved her best.

WRITTEN BY DAUGHTER.

HENRY D. BROOKS, son of George and Nancy Brooks, was born July 23, 1884, departed this life January 8, 1953, age 68 years, 5 months and 15 days.

He was called from his life suddenly, which was a great shock to us. He professed faith in Christ at an early age and joined the New Life Baptist Church where he remained a member until God called for him.

He was in poor health for several years. He often said no one knew how he suffered. He is survived by wife, Minnie Henard Brooks; one son, Johnnie, of Pressmen's Home, Tenn.; two daughters, Irene Helton, Pressmen's Home, Tenn.; and Bessie Bell, Crossville, Tenn.; two sisters and six grandchildren, and a host of friends to mourn his passing.

Daddy passed away quickly and fell asleep as it were in the arms of Jesus.

A precious Daddy and Husband from us is gone,
The voice we loved is still,
A place is vacant in our home,
That never can be filled.

The one we love is gone, but not forgotten.

WRITTEN BY WIFE AND CHILDREN.

MAYMIE RACHEL BROOKS, daughter of William and Alice Brooks, was born November 2, 1884, departed this life February 18, 1953; age 68 years 3 months and 16 days.

She professed faith in Christ at an early age, and joined the Pleasant Hill Baptist Church, where she remained a very faithful member until death.

She leaves six brothers and two sisters, and many relatives and friends to mourn their loss.

WRITTEN BY NIECE.

GEORGE A. BROOKS, was born September 19, 1899, died September 8, 1952.

He was married to Pearl Russell, August 6, 1936; to this union were born six children, two of them preceded him in death. He was a member of Spruce Pine Baptist Church.

Five children were born to them by a former marriage, one having preceded him in death.

He was a loving husband and father to his wife and children.

George would call us to his bed and say I am going home. He stated that when he became sick that he could not get well—that he had taken sick to die. He asked that the church pray for him to get well, but it was not God's will. We hated to give him up. He was loved by all who knew him.

He leaves wife and eight children; two brothers, one uncle, two aunts.

Sleep on, dear Husband and Daddy, we'll meet you some sweet day.

WRITTEN BY WIFE, MRS. PEARL BROOKS AND CHILDREN.

ARVILE WADE BROOKS, son of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Brooks, was born July 15, 1944, died May 13, 1952, age 7 years, ten months.

My little darling suffered many pains here, but Jesus took him to heaven for a jewel. Our home is so lonesome without him. I can look around and see your little playthings. Little Wade always liked to go to Sunday School when he was able to go. We all miss him.

Wade, bless his little heart, he can't come back to us, but thank God, we can go to him. Wade often talked about his two brothers who had gone on to heaven. I know they all are happy there together. Wade called his Daddy to his bed the morning before he died—he looked up at him and smiled, and died in his Daddy's arms on the way to the hospital. He had been sick for fifteen months, and everything possible was done for him.

He leaves Mother, three brothers and one sister; three half-brothers and one half-sister, grandfather, grandmother, four aunts and seven uncles to mourn his passing.

Sleep on little Wade, I will meet you some day.

She leaves father, mother and a host of friends and relatives to mourn her loss, but their loss is her eternal gain. One brother preceded her to the Gloryland.

I wonder why she was taken from us. She was my darling sweet baby, and the flower of our home, but God in his wisdom called our flower away to bloom in heaven forever. She is enjoying full beauty while we are so sad down here. I think of you in silence—no eyes may see me weep, but many secret tears are shed while others are asleep.

Sleep on sweet baby, and take your rest. I loved you but God loved you best.

In the garden of life there grew a flower so lovely and sweet, that the Master who planted it there, gathered it into his arms, and now in the light of his love, sheltered and blessed. I will meet you dearest Baby on that bright and golden shore, where we'll have no grief and we'll part no more.

IN MEMORIAM

BROTHER RALPH R. DeBORD, was born Saturday, April 10, 1909, deceased Good Friday, April 3, 1953. He was the son of the late Theo and Bertha Buttry DeBord of Eidson, Tennessee.

He was married to Nola Shepard, July 28, 1929. He leaves his wife, two daughters, three sons, and a great company of friends, who were so bereaved.

Brother Ralph professed faith in Christ at the early age of eleven, and from that time he was always interested in and busy at the Master's Work.

He answered the call to preach the Word at the age of 21 and thereafter made it his most earnest labor. At his passing he was pastor of the First Baptist Church, Sneedville, Tennessee, and Associational Field Worker for the Mulberry Gap Association.

He was also a member of Overton Lodge No. 5 Free and Accepted Masons, at Rogersville, Tennessee.

A great and generous soul has passed beyond the veil of this earthly Tabernacle, and left his family and friends to mourn. A devoted Christian, a true and tried Master Mason, a faithful workman of the Temple, who dared not to hue to the line and let the chips fall where they may, but the chips that fell from the hands of Brother Ralph were worthy of the closest scrutiny and respect of everyone, for they bore the stamp of meritorious workmanship, of genuine merit, of integrity, of purpose, of earnest devotion to duty in the service of God and his fellowman—a champion always of the principles of liberty, equality, fraternity and Christianity.

As a Christian and a Mason, he labored till the sun of life sank in the west, and like a faithful workman returning to his cottage at the end of a long and faithful day, he lay aside the sword of God, and in cheerful obedience to the Master's call and willing response to His last summons. He labored until eventide, then briefly paused to hear the call, to lay his tools aside, and left us mourning here.

His trowel rests as all trowels should, on the Temple wall, beside the cornestone he stood, to hear the Master's call.

For him the gavel's voice is still, the tressel board is bare, his skillful hands no longer build, with compasses and square, the plumb his righteous work approves—the level shapes his grave.

But, oh! His apron, spotless proves the righteous life he gave, though stained perhaps with honest toil, or errors unforeseen. His faith has washed away the soil and left his apron clean; and cherished in the hearts of men, his kindly deeds of love, shall live until we meet again in that Grand Lodge above.

In the passing of Brother Ralph, Southern Baptists have lost a great soldier of the Cross; a preacher and teacher of the Word; a devoted father, a distinguished, able, congenial personality, who possessed impressive leadership. His upright character, kind and charitable deeds will be long remembered.

WRITTEN BY BROTHER, GEORGE M. DeBORD.

JOYCE ESTHER DeBORD, daughter of Mrs. Nola DeBord and the late Rev. Ralph DeBord, was killed in a car wreck July 27, 1953, at the age of 16 years, 4 months and 18 days. She professed faith in Christ at the age of 8 years and was baptized and joined the Sullivan High Baptist Church, in Kingsport, Tennessee. She leaves her mother, one sister, Anna Ruth Carray, three brothers, Bill, Virgil and George.

We feel sure that she has gone to be with her Daddy who left us and went on to rest April 3, 1953, three months and 25 days before her. Our home is lonesome, Dad and Joyce, without you, but we feel that God had a purpose in taking you to be with him.

Joyce loved her church. One could always see her on Wednesday night and Sunday night sitting on the church steps waiting for the members of the church to come in. She would very often say, "Mother, I wish more of the young people would come to church and I have asked them to come." She was a member of the Sneedville Baptist Church at the time of her death. She was loved by all who knew her and had a host of friends. She never said "no" when she was asked to lead in prayer in church, at home, or to return thanks at the table. She was always willing and ready. She was secretary of our Training Union and was appointed to conduct prayer meeting on Wednesday night, the day she was laid to rest. She loved to sing. On Sunday, July 19, she sang "God Will Take Care of You," and on Wednesday night she sang a special number, "In the Garden." Sing on darling, we will hear you again up in Heaven some day.

If Joyce could speak to her many friends today, the young people of the Mulberry Gap Association, the words of this song she sang so much in her last days on earth would be her advice, testimony and challenge:

"Does Jesus Care?"

Does Jesus care when my heart is pained too deeply for mirth and song,
As the burdens press and the cares distress and the way grows weary and long?

Chorus

Oh yes, He cares, I know He cares, His heart is touched with my grief;
When the days are weary, the lone nights dreary, I know my Saviour cares.

WRITTEN BY HER MOTHER AND FRIENDS.
