Rules of Decorum

1. Every motion when seconded must be submitted by the Moderator to the consideration of the Association, and if required by any member must be made in writing.

No new motion is in order while another is pending but may be amended by the addition, exclusion, or substituton of sentences to any extent, even to the changing of the original motion to an opposite sense by striking all but the word resolve, and substituting a proposition entirely different.

2. A motion may be withdrawn by the mover before it is seconded or put to vote and if the mover accepts an offered amendment it is not necessary to put to a vote on its reception as part of the original motion.

3. The Moderator should rise to state a motion and to a question to vote, and give close attention to each speaker.

4. Motion to postpone indefinitely as to a fixed time, to lay on the table, to commit to a command, to adjourn, are called "privileged motions," as they are always in order. A motion to adjourn proceeds all others and when made without conditions of time, place or purpose, is to be taken without debate, but cannot be made when a member is speaking or can any other motion be made without his consent.

5. When a motion is before the Association any member may freely express his opinion upon it, and while he keeps to the point and does not violate the rules of courtesy, the Moderator must protect him from interruption, but if he breaks any rule of decorum he may be called to order, and required to proceed in order or close.

6. The Moderator must decide all questions of order, but any member who thinks his decision incorrect may appeal to the meeting whose decision is final.

7. If a motion includes two subjects it must be decided at the request of any member and the vote taken on each separately.

8. Motions and amendments are to be considered and voted on in the reverse order in which they are offered, the amendment must first be taken up and decided; if an amendment be offered to any amendment it come to be first in order, then the amendment, then the main question.

9. When the question is to be taken it should be first clearly stated by the Moderator, calling first for affirmative, next, negative votes. If the votes are equally divided, the Moderator may give the casting vote or by declaring not to vote, may leave the question negative. Each member is bound to vote on all questions unless excused; those not voting being considered as acquiescing in the decision of the majority.

10. After the question is put to vote there can be no discussion or motions until the voting is finished. A motion to reconsider a vote may be made by any member voting with the majority at its passage. Such motions opens the subject for discussion and a vote to reconsider brings back to the first, where it was before passed.

11. When a member wishes to offer a motion or speak on a question he must arise and address the Moderator respectfully. A member about to make a motion may preface it by remarks to explain its design, but with this exception all speaking is out of order which is not directed to some definite proposition before the meeting.

The East Tennessee Baptists Hospital continues its effort to fulfill the admonition of the Lord Jesus to "heal the sick." We are fortunate in having our hospital located in a city where a large and competent staff of doctors is available. We are also fortunate in having our own School of Nursing which aids greatly in supplying the necessary nursing personnel.

The hospital currently has 248 doctors on its medical staff; 511 employees; and 112 students in the School of Nursing.

Within the past twelve months the following improvements have been accomplished which will aid the hospital in ministering to the general public:

1. The establishment of an endowment fund, the income from which will be used under the terms and conditions imposed by the donors.

2. In December of 1958 the School of Nursing received full accreditation from the National League for Nursing.

3. Equipment purchased amounting to $2,097.00.

Beyond what has been accomplished already the hospital is looking toward the future with anticipation of extending its facilities and broadening its services to patients and the public in general. There are three major areas of expansion to which we are looking forward:

1. Completely air-conditioning the hospital.
2. The construction of a chapel, and
3. The construction of a physical therapy department.

The Board of Trustees is asking the Tennessee Baptist Convention's permission to borrow $300,000 with a view to completing these projects as soon as possible. These items are all very necessary if our hospital is equipped to meet the need in our changing times.

Respectfully submitted,
Signed: Everette Cook, Chairman
W. S. Satterfield.

Motion by Hoil Minor to adopt this report; seconded by E. V. Seal. Discussed by Everette Cook and Sam B. Conner, Chaplain of the East Tennessee Baptist Hospital, and adopted.

24. MISSIONS REPORT. Read by Miller Lee Vaughn.

We, your Committee on Missions, beg to report as follows:

Home, State and Foreign Missions has to do with the Church carrying out the great and final commission of our Lord Jesus Christ "Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature. He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved, but he that believeth not shall be damned." Mark 16:16.

Therefore, we as Baptists are charged with the great responsibility of spreading the gospel at home and in our state and unto the uttermost parts of the earth.

Therefore we urge upon our churches that they bestir themselves to the task of making known to all races, kindred, and tongues, the good news of salvation, by grace through faith in the Lord Jesus Christ.

Since the Church is the only one authorized to preach the gospel and thus being the only means the Lord has in reaching and saving the lost, we urge our churches that they put forth a greater effort in His Kingdom's work by prayerful study of God's Eternal Word, and giving our whole-hearted support to missions with our means.

37. CHRISTIAN EDUCATION REPORT. Read by E. V. Seal.

In this strategic hour Christian education is most important. At a time when juvenile delinquency is on the increase, when two-thirds of the children and young people never attend church or Sunday School, and when religion is either ignored or openly sneered at in some schools, our Baptist Schools are more important than ever.

Our Tennessee Baptist Schools are highly respected and are doing excellent work. They offer strong liberal arts courses in a wholesome Christian atmosphere. Bible is required of every student and the other subjects are taught by dedicated Christian men and women who make lasting impressions on the students.

Our Baptist schools are essential to the denomination. In every state where there is a Baptist school, Baptist work is strong. Wherever there is a large area without a Baptist school, our denominational work is weak. The majority of our foreign missionaries had their college work on Baptist campuses. Five out of every six Baptist peachers who have college degrees received their degrees from Baptist colleges. It is on the Baptist college campus that the student is most likely to hear the Still Small Voice, or it is here that this call is nurtured to full fruition in a life of dedicated service.

Our Tennessee Baptist schools are Belmont College, Nashville; Harrison-Chilhowee Academy, Seymour; Carson-Newman College, Jefferson City; and Union University, Jackson. The four schools had last year a total of 2581 full-time students and more than 100 part-time students. Of these 420 were ministerial students, about 115 mission volunteers, and 145 other students preparing for other church vocations.

The value of the combined plants of these schools is $8,540,000. This is a great investment and Baptists are proud of their schools.

The United Campaign and Capital Needs Program of the Tennessee Baptist Convention have meant much to the material progress of the schools. Belmont has made extensive repairs to the buildings, improved the library, built tennis courts, redecorated the dormitories and other buildings. Carson-Newman College has built a Health and Physical Education Building, extended Butler Hall to accommodate 90 additional women students, and is in the process of remodeling the heating plant. Union University has completed a new dormitory for women and rehabilitated a men's dormitory.

Some of our schools are already turning away many students each year, and it is predicted that enrollment requests will double in a few years. More teachers are neded and salaries should be raised for the underpaid teachers we now have. It is therefore absolutely necessary that churches increase their giving through the Cooperative Program and that all unpaid pledges to the United Campaign be paid as rapidly as possible.

38. TEMPERANCE REPORT. Read by Everette Cook.

We, your Committee on Temperance, report as follows:

Alcohol is a painful disease on the spirit of America. Seven million Americans are heavy drinkers. Research says one in nine Americans are destined to become alcoholics. Alcohol is only one of America's intemperate problems—motion pictures, televisions and public nuisance have joined hands with alcohol to wreck the lives of our youths, and fill their minds with adultery.

We, your committee recommend to this Association and its membership, the only solution to this problem of intemperance is to turn back to God and the Bible—preach, teach, and practice the Word of God.

Let us shun the very appearance of evil, and discipline ourselves to do good and God help us to have a better land to live in.

Respectfully submitted,

Rev. Everette Cook

43. BAPTIST TRAINING UNION REPORT. Read by Carl W. Greene.

The B. T. U. is committed to the task of developing the individual for Christ. Its aim is to help us prepare for more effective Christian service. The winning of an individual to Christ is only half of the great commission—the other half "Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you," is also binding on us, and we have neglected it to our hurt.

No other department of the Church has the distinctive aim of training the individual for better church membership. The need for better informed members in all our churches is evident to us all. Through the Training Union church members are led to read the Bible daily, pray publicly as well as privately, become better soul-winners, Sunday School teachers, and leaders in our church and denominational life.

The duties and privileges of church membership are so great and important that every church should deem it essential to offer every possible means of training and developing each member into a well-rounded Christian.

Every church needs a Training Union. It is as adaptable as the Sunday School and will meet definite needs in the smallest as well as in the largest Baptist Church.

45. W. M. U. REPORT. Read by Carl Greene.

Woman's Missionary Union exists as an instrument in the hands of God to be used in carrying on his work. The most important word in their work is "witness." This witness must begin at home in the family circle, and extend to the uttermost part of the early to fulfill the command of our Lord. Women, endowed by God with an absorbing love for lost souls make very effective witnesses.

Realizing the privilege and challenge of being "laborers together with God" the Woman's Missionary Union seeks to promote the Lord's work through prayer, stewardship, study, community missions and missionary education of our young people.

May we all be faithful to Him, whose we are as we labor together, and may we not grow weary in well-doing, but press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling in Christ Jesus.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. Carl Greene, Chairman

Scripture portions were published last year in 1,136 languages. This total included the complete Bible in 215 languages; New Testament in 273 and at least one gospel in 648 in 1958. The American Bible Society distributed around the world over sixteen and one-half million scripture volumes. May her friends and loved ones be comforted by her love and guided by the Holy Spirit till they too, are called to be with her.
