WELCOME

Hello Everyone;

Welcome to the Fall 2011 issue of the Dellinger, Knecht, Pfeffer, Silar (DKPS) family newsletter. I've included you on my mailing list because you are someone who shares a common interest of searching for information on the surnames associated with my paternal family line. I hope that some of the topics addressed within this newsletter will assist you with your genealogical endeavors.

This issue's Feature Article is about the Lieberknecht family of York County, Pennsylvania. This narrative begins with Johann Friedrich Lieberknecht, (1732-1797), who emigrated to America from the Palatinate region of Germany in 1761 and ends with Lydia Lieberknecht, (1825-1899), the eldest daughter of Johan and Elizabeth Lieberknecht. Within the News of Interest to the Family Historian I've added a new article listing some of the new records put on line by FamilySearch. Also there is an article about the 1940 census due to go online in 2013. Check out our DKPS Databases at the RootsWeb World Connect Project and Ancestry.com to see if we've added any new ancestral family lines, or individual records that may be of interest to you. You are reminded to take time to look at the new and revised web pages and image galleries recently uploaded to the Maternal and Paternal Ancestors Website at RootsWeb's Freepages. Included here are pages containing worthwhile information about individual surnames, ancestral locations, historic American roads and migration routes, as well as other topics such as military units, our genealogy reference book library, and free genealogy records.

Check out the Research Connections section to see if anyone else is researching your family or a similar surname.

The BORN surname is featured in the Surname Search section. "Surname Search" displays matches of a surname in our database to the huge resources found at RootsWeb.com.

As always I will attempt to keep the newsletter brief but informative and hope you will enjoy reading it. If you do not wish to remain on the mailing list please let me know and I will stop sending it to you. To read my previous newsletters, see the link in the Contact Information section of this issue.

FEATURE ARTICLE

The Lieberknecht Family of York County

The surname Lieberknecht or Lieberknecht is not a common surname nor is it found in the Dictionary of American Family Names. A reasonable explanation for the origin of the Lieberknecht surname is that it originated in the Palatinate region of Germany. The combination the names Leiber and Knecht to form the Lieberknecht surname probably comes from the "Palatine German" vernacular utilized to mean a freedman, i.e. Libert (French) who is a helper, or hired hand, i.e. Knecht, (German).

Johann Friedrich Lieberknecht, (1732-1797), emigrated to America from the Palatinate region of Germany. This location is probably now within the German State of Rhineland-Palatinate. Situated in western Germany, the Rhineland - Palatinate borders North Rhine-Westphalia, Hesse, Baden-Württemberg, France, Saarland, Luxembourg and Belgium. In 1761 Friedrich now a 29 year old single-man decided to seek a better life in America. Whereupon he left his home and family and joined other emigrants for the two week voyage down the Rhine River to the sea. Subsequently he boarded the ship "Snow Squirrel", captained by John Benn, at Rotterdam. After a stop at Portsmouth, England the ship crossed the Atlantic Ocean and arrived in the Colony of Pennsylvania at the port of Philadelphia in October of that year. Records show that Friedrich took an oath to the Government at the courthouse of in Philadelphia on October 21, 1761. Although he could not sign his name he did make his mark of an +. By 1766 he had married and was living in York County, Pennsylvania. It is most probable that Friedrich settled in that area of Windsor Township which became Lower Windsor Township in 1838. Friedrich is listed in the York County Tax Lists for 1779, 1780, 1781, 1782, and 1783, as well as the 1790 U.S. Census in Windsor Twp., York Co, PA. He and his wife Catharina produced at least five known offspring, all born in York County, between 1766 and 1781. They are Christoffel born 1766, Georg born 1768, Jacob born 1772, and Friedrich born 1781. Johann Friedrich was a patriot of the American Revolutionary War as he served in the Pennsylvania Militia of York County. The name of "Frederick Lebeknecht" is listed in the muster roster of Capt. Jacob Bieber's 1st Company of the Third Battalion of Associators. As a member of the this York County Militia unit he was most likely detailed as a guard at Camp Security, one of only a handful of prisoner-of-war camps established during this war. Located just east of the City of York in Springettsbury Township, Camp Security housed over 1000 British and Canadian prisoners of war between the summer of 1781 and the spring of 1783. Johann Friedrich Lieberknecht lived out the remainder of his life in York County. He is buried in the Canadochly Church Cemetery, Lower Windsor Twp., York Co., Pennsylvania.

Johann Georg Lieberknecht, (1768-1846), the second son of Friedrich and Catherine, was born in 1768. Records show that he was baptized at the Canadochly Lutheran Church. In 1790 he married Catherine Elizabeth Keller, (1770-1851), daughter of Anthony Keller, Jr. (1744-1817) and Maria Elizabeth Kohler (1747-1802). Of this union six known children were born. They are: a daughter born in 1792; Helena born 1793; Peter born 1796; George born 1797; Elizabeth born 1809; and Samuel born 1814. Johann was listed as the head of a family on the 1840 Census at Lower Windsor Twp., York Co., Pennsylvania. Johann died on 12 September 1846 at age 78. He was buried September 1846 at Canadochly Cemetery, Lower Windsor Twp., York Co., Pennsylvania. His weathered gravestone is inscribed in German with, "Hier ruhen die gebeine von George Lieberknecht, geb. den 3 Feb., 1768; starb den 12, Sept., 1846; In einem alter von 76 yre. 7 mo, & 9 tage."

George Lieberknecht, (1797-1863) was born on November 2, 1797 and baptized at Canadochly Lutheran Church, on December 17, 1797. Records show that he was sponsored by his Uncle Jacob Lieberknecht. In 1822 George married Elisabeth Abel, daughter of George Abel, (1769-1828) and Anna Margareta Jacobs, (1769-1852). Eight known children were born between 1823 and 1839. They are: Johan born 1823; Lydia born 1825; Cassandra born 1827; George born 1830; Mary born 1831; Henry born 1833; Sara born 1836; and Leah born 1839. George lived his entire life in Lower Windsor Township. He passed away at the age of 65 years and is also buried at the Canadochly church cemetery.

Lydia Lieberknecht, (1825-1899), the eldest daughter of Johan and Elizabeth Lieberknecht, was born February 27, 1825. She was baptized on 21 May 1825 at the Canadochly Lutheran Church. She was sponsored at her baptism by her Aunt Elisabeth Lieberknecht. Lydia married George Dellinger, (1797-1862), around 1841.

George was the son of Jacob Dellinger, (1751-1824) and Christina Schaffer, (1760-1845). Lydia would have been only 16 or 17 years old at the time thus 28 years younger than her new husband who was the same age as Lydia's own father! It is also interesting to note that this was the first marriage for George Dellinger. Lydia bore four know offspring during her marriage. The names of her children are: Elizabeth born 1841; Jonathan born 1846; Lydia Ann born 1847; and George born 1854. Lydia and George Dellinger are found in the 1860 Census as living in Hellam Township, York County, Pennsylvania. Lydia died on 4 January 1899 at Lower Windsor Twp., York Co., Pennsylvania, at age 73. Her body was interred in January 1899 at Lower Windsor Twp., York Co., Pennsylvania, at Canadochly Cemetery.

NEWS OF INTEREST TO THE FAMILY HISTORIAN

Great places to look for free genealogy records

Overwhelmed by the number of family history-related Web sites popping up? The folks at FamilyTreeMagazine <<http://tinyurl.com/re5ryu>> have taken the time to sort through them to bring us the best. As a result they have recently identified the following worthwhile websites if you are looking for ancestors who lived west of the Rockies:

Arizona Genealogy Birth and Death Certificates

at: <http://genealogy.az.gov/> Hard to beat if you have Arizona ancestors, this site serves up birth records (1855 to 1933) and death records (1844 to 1958) linked to PDFs of the originals.

Colorado Historic Newspaper Collection

at: <http://tinyurl.com/3c5xwuy> This ambitious collaboration between the Colorado State Library and the Colorado Historical Society is like a paperboy from the past, delivering more than 500,000 pages from 163 newspapers published in Colorado from 1859 to 1923.

Colorado Plateau Digital Archives

at: <http://archive.library.nau.edu/index.php> This Northern Arizona University site covers the whole Southwest with digitized photographs, oral history interviews, films, diaries, letters and maps.

Washington State Digital Archives

at: <http://www.digitalarchives.wa.gov/> Leading the way in digitizing its past, Washington State now has more than 85 million records online, with more than 26 million of them searchable. You'll find vital records, censuses, land records, military records, naturalization documents and more.

Nevada Census Database

at: <http://www.nvshpo.org/>. Click on the Nevada Census Database icon on the right for this pioneering project that put Nevada federal census records, 1860 to 1880 and 1900 to 1920—310,000 entries total—online for our favorite price.

SFGenealogy

at: <http://www.sfgenealogy.com/>. This site for researching ancestors in the San Francisco Bay area has launched an ambitious project that has volunteers indexing 45,000-plus digitized mortuary records. The site is worth a look, too, if your ancestor attended school in the Bay Area, for its growing collection of alumni records.

University of Washington Digital Collections

at: <http://content.lib.washington.edu/> This searchable archive includes photos, maps, newspapers and other artifacts from the entire Pacific Northwest, including Alaska and Western Canada. Subjects range from the Alaska gold rush to Industrial Workers of the World ("Wobblies") to Civil War letters.

Western States Historical Marriage Records Index

at: <http://tinyurl.com/453ggjk> The goal for this index is to put historical marriage data from 12 Western states at the fingertips of genealogy researchers. While not there yet, the site now has nearly 700,000 nuptials, including most pre-1900 marriages for Arizona, Idaho and Nevada, and many counties of those states extend into the 1930s or later.

NEW Records from the FamilySearch Historical Record Collections

1940 Census Will be Free on Ancestry.com

Subscription genealogy website Ancestry.com has decided to make the 1940 census images and index—which will be on the site after the 1940 census is opened next year for research—FREE to search and view through 2013.

There will be more than 3.8 million images with 130 million records. The records will be indexed by 45 fields, meaning you'll be able to search on the name, street address, county, state, parents' birthplaces and more. The records won't be on Ancestry.com right when the census is released April 2, 2012. Ancestry.com's press release says they'll commence "streaming onto the website in mid-April 2012."

If you can't wait until mid-April the record images will be available first on the National Archives' website at, <http://www.archives.gov/> but they won't be searchable right away by name.

Some "Good News" submitted by our Readers

As I was looking for information about my ancestor Johannes ARNOLD I recently sent in a free request to Ancestral Findings.com. At this website I filled out a request for them to search the Pennsylvania German Church Records, 1729 - 1870 database, (see page at), <http://www.ancestralfindings.com/cd130.htm>

I received the following results from my query: Pennsylvania German Church Records, 1729-1870 Arnold, Johannes Section : Pennsylvania German

I just received the civil war pension file for Hartman LEITHISER and I have updated the info on my

Database Updates

New Records Uploaded To the Databases at RootsWeb and Ancestry

Our Siler - Pfeiffer Family Line database at Ancestry.com currently contains the records of 2,096 persons. The database can be viewed by all Ancestry subscribers. This tree will change every three months as we edit, remove, or otherwise modify the data therein.

An updated version of our DKPS Database was recently uploaded to the, open to all and FREE, World Connect site at RootsWeb.com. Several new records have been added over the past three months. We now have information on 1,877 persons. Since we update the database quarterly to coincide with the publishing of this newsletter our readers are all reminded to take a look at what is new with our family history research. If you do check out the website you may find some new information that will enhance your own research or you may find some errors in ours that we need to know of.

The Database at Rootsweb free for all to use, is located at: <http://tinyurl.com/4z3ky6>. You may also access our family tree by going to: <http://worldconnect.rootsweb.com/>.

The Database at Ancestry.com can only be accessed by subscribers. It is located at the Home Page <http://www.ancestry.com/> in the "Search" pull-down button under "Public Member Trees".

Please know that we would always welcome any new information that you may have on our common ancestors.

What's New at the Website? Our Ancestors: 380 Years of History in America

New Connecticut Library Page Added Southeastern Coastal Migration Routes Revised

Since we usually update our website several times between the publishing of this newsletter you are reminded and encouraged to periodically review what is new with regard to the family information and genealogical resources contained at, Our Ancestors: 380 Years of History in America. To access the site's Home Page use the following link: <http://tinyurl.com/3lbrly>.

Over the past three months four new or revised web pages have been created and added to the DKPS Subsite. We've finally completed our new and revised "Source Document Galleries" for each of 23 direct ancestral surnames. These galleries feature hundreds of documents we've found and utilized to prove the facts included into our published family tree.

At our Ancestral Locations sub-site three new or revised web pages have been built and uploaded to the internet. We've revised nine county image galleries.

The scope and volume of the various sub-sites created for our Special Topics continued to increase since the last issue of this newsletter. We have added extensively to our special topic sub-site Free Genealogy

Records and Databases. Here you will find hundreds of links to free genealogy record databases. Most of these free records come from websites such as Family Search, Ancestry.com, Distant Cousin, and various U.S. State archives.

We have continued to upgrade and increase the number of volumes within our Genealogy Reference Library. As a result of our growing library of books we've added a separate page for the Georgia State collection. Most of these books are fully searchable and can be downloaded to your computer. In addition text may be cut & pasted directly to your family tree software or other document.

For our readers who have an interest in Historic American Roads And Migration Routes major revisions have been made to the Central Plains States region pages. As a result 48 new trails and several image galleries about routes taken by pioneers to settle in the U.S. States of North Dakota, South Dakota, Minnesota, Nebraska, Kansas, Iowa, Minnesota, Missouri, as well as parts of Oklahoma,

RESEARCH CONNECTIONS

Since the first issue of this newsletter was created its distribution list has grown significantly. Along the way we have interacted with many genealogists that have expressed an interest in one or more of the family lines contained within our DKPS databases located at RootsWeb and Ancestry.com. Because networking is a key to the success of any family historian we feel that it is important for this newsletter to help in making that connection. As a result "Research Connections" has become part of every edition because we all realize the importance of a forum for researchers to reach out to others who may be working on the same family.

Since most of the readers of this letter share several surnames in the DKPS databases we believe that we would all benefit from the publishing of your significant "brick wall".

BORN Surname at RootsWeb

The BORN surname is being featured in this newsletter. This Born family was most likely from Hornbach, Rimschweiler, Germany which is located in the current German state of Rhineland-Palatinate. The earliest known ancestor is Theodor Born who lived in the aforementioned location during the second half of the 17th century. He married Kunigunda Forster. Susanna Margareta Forster Born was a product of this union. She was born in 1671 and lived her entire life in Germany. Susanna married Johann George Bracher in 1692. It was their daughter Anna Maria Elizabeth Bracher who became the wife of Paulus Schaffer, Sr. and came to America in 1738.
