The Descendants of Richard Warburton of Dublin

Descendants of Richard Warburton

First Generation

1. Richard Warburton.

General Notes: This tree has been compiled from a number of sources, some contradictory. These include:

1. A handwritten tree obtained from the late Virginia Warburton detailing the descendants of George Warburton of Aughrim, of whom her husband, Thomas Egerton Warburton, was one.
2. A tree prepared for James Arthur Warburton of Prince Edward Island, Canada, by Conrad Swan, York Herald of Arms dated 1st July 1976, together with a memoir written by James Arthur.
3. Burke's Colonial Gentry; the entry for Henry Hume Warburton of Vancouver, British Columbia.
4. A tree submitted to www.islandregister.com (the island being Prince Edward Island) by Gary Carroll.
5. The Royal Ark website by Christopher Buyers, specifically the entry for the Durrani dynasty at: <http://www.royalark.net/Afghanistan/warburto.htm>.

Richard's descendants claimed kinship with the Warburtons of Arley Hall, a link accepted at certain times by the family at Arley. However there is no known documented evidence of this link, and different explanations of it have been suggested. The most common suggestion is that Richard was descended from Peter Warburton, the ancestor of the Warburtons of Hefferston Grange, and his wife Alice Cooper, via Peter Warburton and Magdalen Molten.

Richard was a merchant in Dublin. He was named in a Chancery Decree on the 8th February 1635 when he lent £8000 to King Charles I.

Richard married Elizabeth L'Estrange.

General Notes: Elizabeth was the daughter of Thomas L'Estrange of Moystown, King's County.

Children from this marriage were:

- + 2 M i. Richard Warburton was born about 1637 and died in Feb 1717 in Garryhinch, Queen's County, Ireland aged about 80.
- + 3 M ii. George Warburton was born about 1640 and died on 14 Nov 1709 aged about 69.
- 4 M iii. John Warburton was born about 1642.

General Notes: John was of Dublin, and was MP for Belturbet.

Second Generation (Children)

2. Richard Warburton (Richard¹) was born about 1637 and died in Feb 1717 in Garryhinch, Queen's County, Ireland aged about 80.

General Notes: Richard was of Garryhinch, Queens County which was acquired before 1682. He was also granted Kilbrechan and other lands totalling 406 acres in the parish of Fennagh. He received the Barony of Forth, County Carlow, on the 9th October 1682.

He was Clerk of the Council to Henry Cromwell in 1654, and Clerk to the Irish House of Commons 1661; though at the tender age of 17 in 1654, could it be more likely his father held these posts? He was named in the will of his brother-in-law Henry L'Estrange of Moystown, dated 20th Jan 1665. He was High Sherrif of Carlow in 1675, and of King's County in 1691, and MP for Ballyshannon in 1697-9, and 1703-13.

Some sources consider Judith Sandes the mother of Richard's children. However the tree prepared by Conrad Swan, the York Herald of Arms, has a marriage date for Richard and Judith in 1686, after the births of Richard's children.

Richard married Unknown before 1664.
