1

FRANZ ZENNER was born on the 18th day of August in the year 1823 in the Village of Wahlen, in the Rhein Province of Prussia, being a son of Phillip Zenner and Elisabetha, nee Koch, his wife; and was thereafter married some time in the year 1850, to MARIA STRAUCH, who was born in the same Village on the 7th day of February in the year 1830, being a daughter of Nicolas Strauch and Margaretha, nee Engel, his wife.

2

THEREAFTER, on the 18th day of March in the year 1853 he obtained a Discharge from Prussian Citizenship and Allegiance to the King of Prussia, from the Department of the Interior of the Royal Prussian Government in the Royal District Court at Trier; and on the 24th day of March, 1853, in the same Court, he was granted an Official Pass and Permission to emigrate to America, together with his wife and one child.

3

AND THEREAFTER, on the 4th day of April in the year 1853, the said Franz Zenner made a Contract with a Passenger Agent, Johann Anton Leroy, at Coblentz, to travel from there by way of Rotterdam to Liverpool, and thence on the 14th day of April, 1853, per first class three-master sailing vessel "Roger" to New York, arriving in New York on May 23d 1853; Thence via Albany on the New York Central Railroad to Buffalo, N.Y.

4

FRANZ ZENNER thereafter, on the 23d day of June, 1855 did, in the Superior Court of Buffalo, declare his Intention to become an American Citizen; and did appear again, in said Court at a Special Motion Term held October 17th 1859, G W Clinton, Justice presiding, and was granted a Certificate admitting him to all the Rights and Privileges of a Citizen of the United States of America.

5

FRANZ ZENNER was by trade a Nail-smith, making, while he lived in Europe, the large-headed shoe-nails used in the shoes of athletes, farmers, and mountain climbers, but in his new home in Buffalo he was employed as a laborer. He died on November 26th 1894, at Buffalo, N.Y., and Maria Zenner, his wife, died at Buffalo, N.Y., on July 24th 1909.
